The Post.

Middleburg, Feb 19, 1880

I. CROUSE, Editor & Proprietor.

FOR PRESIDENT
The nominee of the Republican National Convention.

JUDGE OF SUPREME COURT.
HENRY GREENE of Northampton Co

FOR AUDITOR GENERAL,
JOHN A. LEMON, of Blair County.

President Hayes says he is as strong a one-term advocate now as he was when he write his letter of acceptance in 1876. That is encouraging anyways.

The New York Herald says its Irish Relief Fund is growing at the rate of about $500 per hour, and will increase still more rapidly when the Western contributions begin to flow in.

Congressman Goode, of Virginia says it is too late in the day to expect any Southern man applying for amnesty to admit having been engaged in treason and rebellion. What Mr. Goode wants is pardon without repentance.

It is whispered about Washington that in late Executive session of the Senate, a little unpleasantness occurred between Senators Vest and Beck, resulting in the former calling the latter what Horace Greeley used to call Henry J. Raymond an Italic liar. No pistols.

General Adams has again undertaken the somewhat difficult task of persuading the guilty Utes to come forward prepared to be hanged. He had also found an Indian chief to supply Ouray's place as "persuader," but unless the murderers of Agent Meeker are caught in some ingeniously devised trap, they will never place themselves within reach of the hangman. And if they are made the victims of a trick the result will doubtless be another uprising and the massacre of some more innocent whites.

The Republican Executive Committee are making an effort to induce the Republicans of Virginia to break away from their coalition with the independent wing of Democrats in that State. The impression that the two factions of Virginia Democrats will not be able to unite, and in such an event the Republicans would have a very fair prospect of carrying four of the Congressional districts at the ensuing election. The programme seems to be a good one, but we place little reliance in the belief that the Democrats will remain divided after the Republicans break the coalition with the Mahone faction.

The newspaper correspondents at Washington are scratching their heads over some things that have lately come to their notice and which they cannot understand. First, some one saw Secretary Sherman and Senator Blaine engaged in an earnest confidential conversation in Blaine's back parlor. There is something very suspicious about this, but the reporters fail to get at the inwardness of it. The same day some other correspondents saw Blaine and Cameron walking arm in-arm on Pennsylvania avenue giving evidence of the most cordial relations between them. Here was more trouble. Later in the day Sherman and Cameron were seen together and once more the correspondents were at their wits end. There is something going on that they have failed to fathom, and no one volunteers to come to their relief.

There is a prospect that the famous Raber murder case, in Lebanon county, and which attracted the attention of the country, will soon reach its final scene. Of the six persons convicted of the murder of Rabor, two have been hanged, one was acquitted on a second trial and three yet remain under sentence of death. The Supreme Court having confirmed the judgment of the Lebanon County Court, the Governor will now issue warrants for the execution of Brandt, Hummel and Wise, whose only and last resort now is an appeal to the Board of Pardons. It is not likely that that last resort will avail the murderers. The Board of Pardons as now constituted has in no single instance, that we can call to mind, intervened in a case where the Supreme Court had been appealed to in vain for a new trial. The Raber murder was one of the most revolting, cold-blooded crimes ever known in this State.

The House committee on Elections continue to hang fire on the Curtin-Yocum contest. The Democratic members of the committee, as we have heretofore noticed are ready to present their report, recommending the passage of a resolution to the effect that there was no election and declaring vacant the seat now occupied by Mr. Yocum. It appears that the majority of the committee are afraid to risk their report to a vote in the House several Democrats having become so warmly attached to Mr. Yocum that it is apprehended they will vote against unseating him. It is certain that if the Republicans vote unitedly against the majority report it will get through by a majority of only a very few votes if, indeed, it is not defeated. The Democrats have only about seven majority on a full vote against the Republicans and Greenbackers combined, so it will be seen that if only four Democrats should falter and vote for Yocum he could not be unseated. If the majority report should be adopted by the House a special election will probably be called in the Twentieth district, at an expense to the State of about $10,000.

The Democratic war in Georgia is going on finely and will soon rival the Hampton-Gara contest in South Carolina.

The "masonry exposing" mountebanks have made their appearance again and are eking out a beggarly existence by duping the innocents at the rate of 25 cents per head.

Counterfeit $5 and $10 gold pieces are making their appearance in the northern part of the State. This generation has some difficulty in recognizing a genuine gold coin of any denomination.

The Democratic members of Congress are chafing terribly under the restraint put upon them by the leaders, and some of them are threatening to break their gags, let the consequences be what they may.

Daniel Doubles recently died at Penfield Clearfield county, at the age of 106, and Ellen Shay lives at the public expense in Lancaster county at age of 102.

Among the papers read before the state Temperance Union at Williamsport was one by Eli Slifer, Jr., on "How to Help Reformed Men," which was roundly applauded.

Ex-Senator Morrill, of Maine, wouldn't object to the nomination for Vice President in the event of Senator Blaine's defeat in the convention. He would make a capital presiding officer of the Senate.

It is being whispered in Massachusetts that General Butler is suspected of an intention to run for Governor this year. Butler will probably be willing if it will afford any amusement to the boys.

Mr. Conger, of Michigan, came near stirring up the Confederate menagerie in the House of Representatives the other day. Speaker Randall's presence of mind restrained the threatened outbreak.

GRIMM & DILL,
Feb. 12, 1880. Atty's for Applicants.

Is a compound of the virtues of sarsaparilla, stillingia, mandrake, yellow dock, with the iodide of potash and iron, all powerful blood-making, blood-cleansing, and life-sustaining elements. It is the purest, safest, and in every way the most effectual alterative medicine known or available to the public. The sciences of medicine and chemistry have never produced so valuable a remedy, nor one so potent to cure all diseases resulting from impure blood. It cures Scrofula, and all scrofulous diseases, Erysipelas, Rose, or St. Anthony's Fire, Pimples and Face-grubs, Pustules, Blotches, Boils, Tumors, Tetter, Humors, Salt Rheum, Scald-head, Ringworm, Ulcers, Sores, Rheumatism, Mercurial Disease, Neuralgia, Female Weaknesses and Irregularities, Jaundice, Affections of the Liver, Dyspepsia, Emaciation, and General Debility.

By its searching and cleansing qualities it purges out the foul corruptions which contaminate the blood, and cause derangement and decay. It stimulates and enlivens the vital functions. It promotes energy and strength. It restores and preserves health. It infuses new life and vigor throughout the whole system. No sufferer from any disease which arises from impurity of the blood need despair, who will give AYER'S SARSAPARILLA a fair trial. Remember, the earlier the trial, the speedier the cure.

The recipe has been furnished to physicians everywhere, and they, recognizing its superior qualities, administer it in their practice.

For nearly forty years AYER'S SARSAPARILLA has been widely used, and it now possesses the confidence of millions of people who have experienced its wonderful curative virtues.

A word to those who are using Porous Plasters. It is a universally acknowledged fact that

BENSON'S CAPCINE PORAS PLASTERS ARE SUPERIOR TO ALL OTHERS.

The great demand for them has caused a number of unscrupulous parties to make and sell worthless imitations under similar sounding names. As the market is flooded with inferior plasters selling at any price it is important for the consumer to know which is the best. It is well known that some of the cheap plasters have been examined and found to contain injurious ingredients which make them dangerous to use, causin paralysis and other diseases. CAUTION—See that the word CAPCINE on each plaster is correctly spelled.

No man is safe who has a rupture, no matter how insignificant he may consider it, for every man who has died from it once flattered himself that it was but a trifling ailment; and every man who now suffers from it and the injury of truss, to such an extent that life has no enjoyments, once regarded it as unworthy special attention. It is self-destructive in its progressive, even unto death. References given to gentlemen in the city, who have been cured. During treatment no hindrance from labor.
