

Farm, Home &c.

C. M. MOATZ & BRO.,

Farmer's Families. Much has been said and written on this subject. Pets have loved it and almost every artist has his easy little farmhouse nestled among the trees, covered with climbing-roses, and surrounded by the "necessary outbuildings." Many a time have we forgotten while gazing at such a picture, or razing one of these amorous effusions, that we were born in the country, and that we lived in a farmhouse and followed its tireless merriment from morning till night, varying from laundry to dairy, feeding the poultry, raising from the lark was naive to milk the "patient kine," and so on with but little variation, save on those days on which there was house cleaning or some "extra job" to be done.

CASH SYSTEM.

And just here is one of the great wants of our modern farmhouses. There will be found, in this case, an unobtrusive hanging case over us for something more. It is the latest thing in picture hanging, and is very different from the old-fashioned picture rack, in that it is made of a very light and elegant material, and is very easy to hang.

DRY GOODS, GROCERIES, CROCKERY, BOOTS & SHOES, HARDWARE, CARPETS, OIL CLOTHS, WALL PAPER, FINE FINDINGS, LEATHER, FISH, LAUNDS, etc.
