

Richard Eisenhart, one of the prisoners in jail at this place, left that institution on Tuesday night, for parts unknown.

Uriah Korstetter is on his pins again—proper care and prompt application of a poultice of prevention is worth a pound of cure.

The moth season is close at hand. Do not let your furs, and other goods of a similar kind, lie around until the moths deposit their eggs among them before you pepper them down for the season.

At a regular stated meeting of the W. M. Curtis Encampment, No. 1347, O. O. E. the following officers were elected for the ensuing year:

To the Patrons of The Post. For the third time since The Post came under its present management on January 1, 1887, we publish a request that our patrons help us financially to carry on the publication of our paper.

We think it safe to say that no publisher in the State has been more benighted and more that we are in need of funds to conduct the paper we have each of our patrons in arrears for subscription advertising or job-work will promptly respond.

We deem the above sufficient to bring forth a prompt response to our request. Shed, O. D. Bees are leaving. Beautiful weather.

Set out shade trees. Spring hats and bonnets. The birds are building nests. Spring pools are being sheltered. Some towns to play grass billiards.

The first boat has crossed a backset. Be careful of fire during windy weather. Taggart fields are pleased to look upon.

Summer Schools opened on Monday last. Considerable wind during the past week. Don't do it—we mean discard your flannel.

The hills are assuming a vernal appearance. Good draught horses are in demand and bring high prices. Raising fish will not be in season until the first of June.

Saturday, May the 25th, has been decided on as Decoration day. The birds sing their prettiest songs these spring morning hours.

John Heidenburg is erecting a dwelling house in Park 14. Beak one has—has succeeded in getting a fine cat. G. Alfred Seiler has gone to the city to purchase a fine stock of goods.

A large amount of corn will be grown in this county, this ensuing season. Numerous small fires in the garden around town a month ago in the spring is here.

People seem to be getting on and the weather will be a nice going to Sunday school. Refreshing news means carpenters and painters will have lots of work this winter.

And now the faithful husband looks down town with the loving wife spades the garden. There all the coldish left the alley. These thoughts have been set apart for this purpose.

Frederick Bishoff's brother, a popular and generous host, is lighting his home and parsonage. John B. Heiler, of Union Co., for us to visit the Post, and a fine visit to our town, he said.

It is strange how changes and things will change their positions after the light is put out for the night. And now they say that the past winter was the warmest one in many years, according to the records.

About a dozen tramps were seen in this place last week. It is wrong to encourage them in their idleness by feeding them. Work can be had now almost any place by a deserving man, if he is not too lazy to use his hands.
