THE POST.

Middleburg, April 29, 1880.

Local News, &c.

SNYDER COUNTY COURTS.—The Courts of Snyder County are held on the fourth Mondays of February, May, and September, and second Monday of December.

—All communications, business letters &c., for this office, to secure prompt attention should be addressed as follows: THE POST, Middleburg, Snyder County, Pa. Advertisements, communications &c. must be handed in by Monday noon, to secure insertion in next issue

To the Patrons of The Post.

—o—

For the third time since The Post came under its present management on January 1, 1877, we publish a request that our patrons help us financially to carry on the publication of our paper.

We think it safe to say that no publisher in the State has been more lenient; and now that we are in need of funds to conduct the paper we hope each of our patrons in arrears for subscription, advertising or Job-work will promptly respond.

We deem the above sufficient to bring forth a prompt response to our request.

Milliners are busy.

Wheat looks promising.

Potato bugs are ready for business.

Real estate is increasing in value.

Groceries; Fresh Groceries at Dreese' Corner.

Spring work occupies the attention of farmers.

The ladies are fixing up their flower gardens.

Don't let caterpillars infest your shade trees,

Repair county roads. Good roads help business.

Peach trees are putting on their annual new Spring dresses.

Toads are now giving free open air concerts at meadow ponds.

Straw hats have made their appearance on our streets.

Merchants report trade as being very encouraging so far this spring.

So far as cold winds are concerned April has resembled March very much.

The Supreme Court has decided that farmers have a right to work out their road tax.

"Fifteen," is a very nice game, but sweet sixteen is a nicer one if there is a miss or two in it.

Already opened at Dreese, Corner a large and well selected stock of Dry Goods, Notions, &c. &c.

Leap year hasn't passed out worth a cent, for old maids. Men are such bashful creatures, you know.

Mrs. A. M. Pfahler has just returned from the city with a large stock of Millinery Goods—notions &c.

Be wise; simply call on your druggist for "Dr. Sellers' Cough Syrup," when you have a cold or cough. 25c. a bottle.

When ladies meet they always greet with kisses heard across the street; but men, more mild, don't get so wild; they meet, then part when both have 'smiled.'

Cal. Gutsline' mare left her bed and board on Thursday night last, without any just or reasonable cause, and was found near the Dry Saw-mill, below New Berlin.

Boots and Shoes! Mens,' Women and Children,—every style and quality--The largest and best stock, at the lowest prices ever offered the Snyder county public. Come one and all, both great and small, and we guarantee to fit the foot and the purse, at Dreese's Corner, Main Street, Middleburg.

The Heirs of George Moatz, deceased, offer a valuable farm, at private sale, located about one mile southeast of Middleburg.

Persons desiring to purchase a farm unexceptionably convenient in all respects would do well to examine the above farm at an early day.

The person who borrowed my shovel and crow-bar will bring them back forthwith and avoid further difficulty. I know the person in whose possession they are and unless returned at once I will accompany an officer of the law to the place.

ALBRIGHT SWINEFORD.

The usual spring improvements, and renovations are being made in our town, which this season of the year suggests. Fences, yards and walks are receiving due attention and the good house wife is raising the dust from behind the cob-webs preparatory to cleaning house.

READY-MADE CLOTHING.—An extraordinary large stock of Ready-made Clothing at Lower Prices than can be found anywhere in the county. Every quality from coarse to superfine at lower prices than have ever before been offered in Snyder county. Must and will sell. Woolen Goods are advancing and now is the time to buy cheap. Come and examine at once and be convinced that, at Dreese's Corner, clothing are being sold at prices not to be found elsewhere.

Farmers who have wintered their potatoes in expectation of better prices have made a mistake. Potatoes were never more abundant at this season of the year, and they are being sold at much lower figures than were realized last fall.

The Champion Reaper and Mower is represented by Robert Smith, Middleburg; M. B. Gardner, Selinsgrove; J. I. Bingaman, Troxelville, and James Lepley Traveling Agent. A good Machine as is the Champion, represented by such clever agents, must meet with the success it justly merits. See advertisement in another column.

West Beaver.

WEST BEAVER Ap. 21, 1880.

(Back near the mountain where the girls grow healthy and beautiful, and romp among the wild flowers unrestrained and warble sweet songs that rival the nightingale and whose rosy cheeks, ruby lips and vigorous and symmetrical forms captivate at a single glance.)

ED. POST.—A number of the young gentlemen of the "West End" have been writing for THE POST and have created quite a sensation, so we thought it our privilege too, being leap-year, to join a spell. Although we do live near the mountains, we don't think that we are altogether in the dark, for among the native wild flowers along the gurgling mountain-brooks which ripple down shrouded slopes and intermingle their crystal waters with the streams of the valley—or on the moss-bound rocks we gather ideas by a sort of intuition altogether unknown to those ENVIOUS, SELFISH, COLD-HEARTED TEACHERS who are writing each other into notoriety.

But Mr. Editor we read your valuable paper, THE POST, and it helps us to hold Bob. and Sam. level.

Some throw slurs at our quiet, mountain homes, but we prefer them with their natural beauties which no artist can imitate—soft breezes and balmy health-giving air—and the quiet so necessary and invigorating to the industrious toiler, by far than the noise, confusion, unrest of town and city.

It is not true that it is lonely here. We are just as lively a set of girls as can be found anywhere and the boys and girls who pay us occasional visits have realized it. And now that this is leap-year we extend an invitation to the young gentlemen of the valley to visit us and verify what we have written.

Yours respectfully,

ADA and LIZZIE.

West Beaver Items

The crops are in a flourishing condition at the "west end." Some of the farmers are still sowing oats, while others are talking about planting corn.

Mr. Isaac Wieand was so unfortunate last week, as to burn his pocket-book with some $50 in money, and notes for about $200 while kindling a fire to burn critters. I believe he was in the habit of carrying his matches in his pocket-book.

Mormon! Mormon! Who killed the cat?—Wilson.

Quite a lively time was anticipated during the removal of Mr. Sauck's another moves near Jack's Mountain. Some more lively enough to sign the Pledge.

Is it any body's business, if a gentleman should choose, To wait upon a lady, and the lady don't refuse. Or, to make it little plainer, lest the meaning all may know, Is it any body's business, if a gentleman will go three years to see a lady, and then, not know whether to say: yes or no.

Bannersill for wealth, Beavertown for health;
Sawville for pretty girls, and Middle Creek for business.

The Charcoal business is still in progress in the west end of the county. Persons that are out of employment will do well, by giving Mr Romig a call. He pays 50 cents per cord for chopping wood.

An accident; One of our num men met with a terrible loss. The KING of one of his hives died, and the QUEEN, a widow, is not able to see to the rest of the hive. Very likely he will lose his bee. Oh! isn't it awful!

Rockton, Clearfield Co. Pa.

ED. POST.—A short letter from Rockton may not be uninteresting to your readers.

Rockton, situate on Anderson creek, is a lively village, pleasantly located, promising in a business point of view to become of considerable importance. The people are modest in their pretentions, generous, hospitable and progressive.

The town is laid out and built upon lands of John Brubaker one of the early settlers, who moved from Snyder (then Union) county in 1839. He settled in the Pine forest—the first tract of land he purchased contained one hundred acres covered with huge pine trees which at that time were of comparatively small value and were cut down and burned in log heaps. He built a house, blacksmith shop and then a distillery—he cleared and cultivated and was soon able to purchase another 100 acre tract on which he erected a saw-mill—he sawed lumber and made shaved-shingles which he floated down the Susquehanna to Marietta out of which he realized large profits and was enabled to purchase a 1000 acre tract. He has five sons who are engaged in business—some of them in the mercantile business and all are growing wealthy. The old gentleman is seventy-one years of age and is active and industrious—his wife who is his senior by two years does all her own household work. The old gentleman had lately entered into partnership and put up machinery that cut 25000 shingles per day—the partners, however, were not "heavy" enough and were compelled to withdraw from the firm and leave the old gentleman to run the business in his own way. He has on hand three million feet of lumber. A vast deal of lumber has been taken out the past winter thus making it lively for the laboring classes.

Yours &c.

B.

The young ladies of the "west end" can have space in our paper for coms.

Now is the time to buy your Spring and Summer Millinery Goods, and the place to buy it is of Mrs. A. M. Pfahler, Middleburg.

CORN IS KING.—Far more bushels of corn are raised in America than of all other grain crops added together. For some weeks now this will occupy most attention. The American Agriculturist for May gives instructive results of hundreds of careful experiments with fertilizers on Corn during 1878 and 1879, and there are some 130 other articles, and 75 original engravings, all useful and instructive to every cultivator of a small Garden or a large Farm. The Department of Agriculture gets a hard hit for sending out some bogus seed. Exposure of Humbugs, Hints and Helps for Farmers, various Dairy matters, etc., etc., make this a most valuable number. Price 15 cents, or $1.50 a year. Orange Judd Company, New York Publishers.

Considerable excitement exists in the vicinity of Shamokin Dam, over the prospect of the oil pipe line being run through a number of farms in that vicinity. Civil engineers have been surveying the route from Pine station on the P. & E. R. R. via Buffalo Valley. They intend crossing the river at Granger's Hollow below the Ferry House, and erect tanks in the lower part of Sunbury. The company have bought and paid for the right of way for the pipe line and also for a telegraph line. The whole affair was transacted very quietly. The pipe line will extend from Pine station on Philadelphia & Erie R. R. to Sunbury, a distance of about 30 miles. They are now laying the pipe at the rate of a mile per day, and expect to reach here in about 30 days.—Sunbury American.

Last week whilst J. M. Troxel was weighing out several pounds of rock powder to one of his customers, he at once noticed that something more than powder was running out of the kegs so upon examination he found to his surprise two matches of the Ads amsbug manufacture which both caught fire very easily upon trial. Mr. Troxel not feeling very contented, ordered his clerk (Mr. Stover) to take the keg outside the store and run the powder out into a tobacco bucket but found no more.

Where those matches were put in Mr. T. cannot tell, but as he has not kept any of those matches during the past six years he feels satisfied that they must have been put in at the manufactory or dropped in.

A SUBSCRIBER.

Trout Fishing.

ED. POST: On Friday, April 23rd, C. A. & J. P. Fisher, in company with John D. Wagner, son of Adam Wagner, Esq., all living near Middleburg, concluded to have a little sport with the speckled beauties that inhabit the mountain streams, so they set forth on a small fishing expedition and to have a little genuine sport.

They succeeded, inside of seven hours in filling (with hook and line) two hundred and eighteen trout from their watery beds and tabling them as trophies of victory to their respective homes.

In tramping along these mountain streams the footing is not so secure as in your pleasant town on the pavements, persons must be very careful in crossing the creek, for it is not very pleasant to be compelled to sit down in the middle of it, with both your feet over a large rock, and sitting in those refreshing waters up to the shoulders, as the Squire's son can testify, as the saying is he cut a "Nasty figure" and worst of all he came very near losing his hat which floated, off down stream to become the food for fishes, but after a long search it was discovered and fished out by the aid of a long pole. It really did look comic to see John walking off as though he did not have one joint in his whole body; yelling out at every step, "Whoa dad, flop your ears, there's a fly on your back."
