

FOR PRESIDENT
OFFICE OF THE REPUBLICAN NATIONAL CONVENTION
EDWARD W. BROWN, CHIEF CLERK
EMORY GIBBENS, SECRETARY
JOHN A. LEMON, OF THE COUNTY.

CONGRESS

In every county of this Congressional district the assets of the party and the unquestionable right of the present member of Congress to an uncontested re-nomination are being maintained and recognized to the extent that, so far as we can learn, Mr. Fisher will be re-nominated in each and every county comprising the district without the slightest opposition. This is as it should be. It is the law and usage of the party to give the Congressman two terms, provided he has properly demanded himself in office—fairly, faithfully and with ability represented his constituency.

The election of Hon. H. Watso G. Fisher over Stinger, a demerit eminent for his ability, but selfish, compromising, hot-headed, strangely and peculiarly Southern in his proclivities, and other circumstances surrounding the election at once directed public attention to Mr. Fisher, and his course in Congress was made the study of his constituency throughout the district.

Mr. Fisher upon entering on his Congressional duties at once took a front seat—an advanced position—and maintained it with marked ability, remarkable zeal and commendable courage and dignity.

He is a really debater—clear, forcible, logical and convincing. In scholarship he ranks high. He is an industrious legislator and devoted all his time and talents to his official duties that he might vote intelligently upon all important matters concerning the public good and serve his constituency and the country at large with the ability and integrity properly belonging to and required of a member of the highest tribunal in this Government.

He possesses intrinsic merit enough to achieve all that is worthy of himself and worthy to be approved by his constituency—a moderate and measured ambition to grasp proper and becoming preferment and honor—an integrity or moral soundness proof against corrupting influences—local and social excellence which commands respect—a rational party loyalty which inspires confidence—a proper appreciation of the important duties of his office and having faithfully represented this district in regard to his constituency to seal his loyalty to his labors as an evidence of their appreciation of his valuable services.

General Grant is expected to be in Chicago on a visit to his son, on Wednesday. He will remain three or four days before leaving for Springfield, to visit the home of Abraham Lincoln.

At White Pine, Nevada, a curious sight is to be seen on the mountain side—a perfect garden of wild flowers in bloom in places where the snow has melted, while a few rods away the drifts are twenty feet deep.

The rainy skies of Raleigh, N. C. were recently overclouded by a shower which fell softly and lightly. The "snowflakes" were dull gray lumps about the size of a grain of corn. They fell thickly and for some time.

It was Tilden's convention because Randall gave it to him, and it was Randall's convention because Squire McMillin captured it for him. The Democracy of Pennsylvania is to be congratulated on its leaders.

The Curtin-Yocum case is as good as gone. The committee has about made up its mind to abandon it for the present. The plaintiff must have felt to the utmost the bitterness of the old saying that he who waits on power has a dull dreary July.

The question between Wallace and Randall, is, which is the lion and which the lamb? now that they lie down so peacefully together. You in his shaggy enough to be a thoroughbred. Nominating committees don't apply to him, although some folks think that it might.

Another serious break is threatened in the New York delegation. Chicago by the report that a speaker instead of the Assembly will today declare his purpose of voting for Senator Blaine on the first ballot, and that he will be followed by others. The Chicago bolt does not appear to be as large as the New York ones.

The public debt decreased $12,078,970.50 during April.

The Erie cake works give practically no work to six hundred men, and cover thirteen acres of land.

The great train of Nordland is said to be paralyzed by the pressure of present and prospective supplies.

Congressional Delegate Cannon, of Utah, is an Englishman, round and red, and has four wives.

Jack Davis has gone to New York to look after property that has been left him by a southern lady.

Salary grabbing Spear is a member of Andy Hill's returning board. He's a lovely Juniata flower!

The Philadelphia Herald suggests that the state capital change its name to Conventonhamasachusetts.

Eighteen of the Massachusetts delegates elected to the Cincinnati convention are said to favor Byard.

Four of the Kentucky delegates are now claimed against General Grant, with three others doubtful.

Marshal MacMahon is in pecuniary troubles. A large portion of his Paris furniture has lately been sold by auction.

Oaaha was visited by a $25,000 fire on Saturday morning. A business block and a boarding house were burned.

Governor "Blue Jeans" Williams of Indiana, is making a southern tour and plentifully distributing lithographed portraits of himself.

A plague of Egyptian flies upon San Diego, California, for the guests are warning these in such numbers that labor is put on end to it.

With the exception of the two last planks, the Democratic platform is the same as last year. Platforms are read once in convention and then forgotten.

General Grant is expected to be in Chicago on a visit to his son, on Wednesday. He will remain three or four days before leaving for Springfield, to visit the home of Abraham Lincoln.

At White Pine, Nevada, a curious sight is to be seen on the mountain side—a perfect garden of wild flowers in bloom in places where the snow has melted, while a few rods away the drifts are twenty feet deep.

It was Tilden's convention because Randall gave it to him, and it was Randall's convention because Squire McMillin captured it for him. The Democracy of Pennsylvania is to be congratulated on its leaders.

The Curtin-Yocum case is as good as gone. The committee has about made up its mind to abandon it for the present. The plaintiff must have felt to the utmost the bitterness of the old saying that he who waits on power has a dull dreary July.

The question between Wallace and Randall, is, which is the lion and which the lamb? now that they lie down so peacefully together. You in his shaggy enough to be a thoroughbred. Nominating committees don't apply to him, although some folks think that it might.

Another serious break is threatened in the New York delegation. Chicago by the report that a speaker instead of the Assembly will today declare his purpose of voting for Senator Blaine on the first ballot, and that he will be followed by others. The Chicago bolt does not appear to be as large as the New York ones.

It is evident that the Republicans have greatly the advantage in the argument of the Kellogg case, though the Democrats may nevertheless persist by mere brute numbers, and expel the Senator by a majority vote. Senator Hoar's speech yesterday did an act of far justice in showing some of Kellogg's services to Louisiana when he was her chief executive.

Spencer Randall, William L. Scott and Henry Waterston were in consultation with Mr. Tilden on Sunday.

It is said that Senator-elect Garfield will present the name of Mr. Sherman to the Chicago convention. It is claimed for him that he has ability to give Sherman an unqualified endorsement as a candidate. Tilden gave Sherman an unqualified endorsement as a candidate.

Frank Williams shot and killed Jack Coates at Moon, Mo., on Tuesday last. The quarrel grew out of an attempt of Williams to throw a dead snake on a girl while the party were on a fishing excursion. Williams fled, but was captured.

The Mormon Church has just excommunicated six daughters of Brigham Young. They were plaintiffs in the late suit against the church, and executors of Brigham's estate which put Delegate Cannon and others to jail for contempt.

The caucus arranged to be that if Congress remains in session until after the holding of the Chicago convention it will remain at Washington until the middle of July. The plan of the Democrats now seems to be to pass the bill prescribing the duties of deputy marshals and their mode of appointment as a separate bill.

Senator Sibley went to Senator Jones of Florida recently: "I suppose you are safe enough for reelection, are you not?" Senator Jones in reply said: "Safe enough if our people carry the Legislature, but the Republicans talk of carrying it, and I'm a little afraid they are going to do it."

At a special meeting of the Board of Directors of the Pennsylvania railroad held last Wednesday, Geo. G. Roberts, at present vice president of that company, was elected a member of the board of directors and president of the company to succeed J. M. Smith, upon the retirement of Col. Thomas A. Scott.
