Milton's Misfortune.

THE TOWN IN ASHES AND PEOPLE HOMELESS. The Fire Found Running Riot—Two Million Dollars Worth of Property Burned—Terrible Distress of Homeless People—List of Losses.

MILTON, Pa., May 14.—The whole of the borough of Milton is destroyed. The fire originated about 12 o'clock in the roof of the large car shops owned by Murray, Douglas & Co., it is supposed from a locomotive spark. Houses caught fire faster than they could be controlled. The flames spread rapidly in a southerly westerly direction. Some idea of the desolation which exists may be obtained from the fact that there remains in the town but one church, three business places and one hotel. The burnt district covers an area of squares wide and over one mile long. The following is a list of the principal buildings destroyed: The car shops, employing 400 men, Gorman Reformed church, Bickel & Bailey's machine shop, Seydel & Tilden's carriage factory, Methodist church, Cyrus Brown's handsome block, Broadway House, confectionery of A. Lochman, Gov. Pollock's home-stead, Academy of Music, Presbyterian church, Milton National bank, Huff house, post office, Miltonian and Western Union telegraph offices, First National bank, Philadelphia and Reading express and telegraph offices, United States hotel, engine house of the Miltonian fire company, Reyer's tannery, employing seventy-five men, keg factory of Shimer & Co., employing 100 men, Lutheran, Catholic, Covenanters, Evangelical and Baptist churches, besides nearly all the private residences of the town. About 100 places of business were totally destroyed and over 600 buildings. The town proper contains about 3,000 inhabitants. Of this number fully 2,000 are homeless. Several lives have been lost. Moderate estimates place the losses at about $1,500,000. The total insurance will not foot up over $500,000. The principal buildings are insured for the following amounts: Haag's Hardware store $10,000, Brown's drug store $10,000, Reyer's tannery $67,000, car shops $75,000, Heinen, Schreyer & Co.'s dry goods $38,000, Lutheran church $10,000, Methodist church $10,000, Huff house $15,000. The insurance on other buildings will aggregate something near $200,000. The insurance companies interested are: Fire Association, Germania, American, Franklin and North American, all of Philadelphia; Farmers', of York; Lycoming, of Muncy; Danville Mutual, Etina and Phoenix, of Hartford; London, Liverpool and Globa, Phoenix of London, Germania of New York and Watertown of Watertown. The heaviest losers are the Etina and Lycoming.

Latest reports from Philadelphia represent that Mr. McManes' backbones shows no signs of weakening.

Most of the Democratic organs are gradually coming around, and are now declaring that while not in favor of Mr. Tilden they will support him if he should be nominated.

This country does not abound in an abundance of just the right sized timber for Vice President. Every body seems to be either too large or too small for the second place on the ticket.

Speaker Randall has had another Sunday consultation with Mr. Tilden. Mr. Waterson was also present, which gives color to the suspicion that only religious subjects were discussed.

The Democrats in Congress have, in caucus, devised a scheme by which the American people and the States will be practically relieved of the duty of electing Presidents and Vice Presidents.

Bismarck has been trying the gem puzzle, or as the Germans call it, "Das Principals' Vierzweigung," and there is a "Hose Polka" in honor of it. Reichstag was busy with the puzzle.

The unit rule bolters in the New York delegation to the Chicago convention are multiplying. Four State Senators among the delegates have taken the decisive step and others will speedily follow. Where Senators Robertson, Sessions, Woodin and Birdall are not afraid to lead others will not fear to follow. Mr. Conkling ought to discover that he has pressing business in Albany that cannot be postponed.

Monroe county jail has only one inmate.

Titusville is to have a new morning paper.

The snake season is now fully inaugurated.

Iron ore has been discovered near Tremont.

Lycoming county is headquarters for horse thieves.

White settlers have invaded Indian Territory.

Lia Bartholomew is gradually convalescing at the seashore.

Naele ore has been discovered in Heidelberg, Berks county.

A cat that had reached her 23d year died recently at Bradford.

Russian crops are endangered by the presence of a destructive beetle.

Titusville is going to try the electric light for street illumination.

Hannah Kitchen, of Easton, thrashes her father soundly once a week.

A new engine on the Reading railroad recently made one mile in forty-three seconds. Pretty fast traveling.

At last the Census Supervisor's have all been appointed and confirmed.

Mrs. Susan Getz of Lancaster, aged ninety-one, has 195 descendants.

A new jail and sheriff's residence is to be erected in Green county.

There is more small-pox in Chester than in any other county in the State.

The wages of all employers of the Reading iron works have been increased ten per cent.

The Treasury now holds $362,495,659 in U. S. bonds to secure bank circulation.

A young married woman was raped and murdered near Thompsonville, Ky., by a negro.

James Tobin, of Chicago, jumped on his daughter, aged 17, and pounded her to death.

White River Utes, under the brother of Chief Douglas, are trying to obtain power.

Lewistown is famous for game chickens. It had a reputation once for its legislative roosters.

Frederick Laner the beer brewer of Reading, uses $100 worth of revenue stamps every day.

County taxes are lower in Potter and Washington than in any other county in the state.

Sentence of death has been passed on the assassin of Colonel Comman at Constantinople.

John McDermott of New York, was arrested for hurling his wife from a three story window.

A German woman committed suicide by throwing herself from the fourth story of a Brooklyn jail.

There is some talk of having only two mints—one at Philadelphia and the other at San Francisco.

Unrest exists in the North and West that the iron industry may suffer on account of the proposed tariff bill.

Catharine Miller and her paramour were convicted at Williamsport, of the murder of the former's husband near Jersey Shore.

The President may be compelled to call an extra session of Congress if the Democrats continue to make no appropriation for marshals.

Senator Hoar found a good deal to say in favor of Senator Kellogg as Governor of Louisiana, more than can be said truthfully of his Democratic successors.

Blair county is full of desperate characters, who are sources of great annoyance to the people where they live.

An investigation has been ordered of the charges by Mr. Henry Palmer that the Christian Home of Pittsburgh was no longer fit for decent people to attend.

Samuel Saul cut his name on the back of a turtle thirty-two years ago, and the animal has just been found again on the same farm.

A number of furnaces and rolling mills projected in the northern part of the State have been abandoned, owing to the recent decline in iron.

The iron workers of Pittsburgh accept the reduction made in their wages by the fall in the card rate to iron in good humor, and assert that they are satisfied.

George Kennedy, head brakeman on a coal train on the Lehigh and Susquehanna, is a hero. He jumped from a train and snatched a child almost from under the wheels.

Wm. J. P. White, esq., Supervisor of Census for the Philadelphia district, has four thousand applications from which to select the seven hundred enumerators necessary for his district.

Ex-Congressman Glosebrenner, of York, has been appointed to a responsible position in the Pennsylvania railroad office, at Philadelphia and has assumed the duties of his new appointment.

Democratic economy threatens to presently close all the United States courts for want of funds to pay jurors and other necessary expenses.

Several of these courts have already put to their shutters and suspended business. The Democratic majority of the present Congress are making no movement for the relief of this condition of affairs. There is a heavy indictment against the Democracy, and a fearful verdict will be recorded by the people at the ballot-box next Fall.

The Democratic majority in Congress to neglect the important work of making partisan capital, to pass an appropriation bill in order that the United States Courts can go on with their public business. Almost every day some court is obliged to suspend its work, discharge its jurors, and close the doors of the temple of the temple of justice because Congress does not provide the necessary funds to pay expenses. But such trifles do not disconcert the average Democratic politician in Congress. That class are deeply immersed in considering schemes for stealing the Presidency, depriving duly elected Republicans of their seats, and other matters of importance to the party. What do they care whether the courts are in session or compelled to suspend business.
