J. CAUSE, Editor & Proprietor.

FOR PRESIDENT
JAMES G. BLAINE, of Maine,
(Subject to decision of Chicago National Convention.)

JUDGE OF SUPREME COURT,
HENRY GREENE, of Northampton Co.
FOR AUDITOR GENERAL,
JOHN A. LEMON, of Blair County.

COUNTY TICKET.
FOR COMMISSIONER
HON. HORATIO G. FISHER, of Huntingdon.

FOR SENATOR
HON. JOHN B. PACKER, of Northumberland Co.
(Subject to decision of Senatorial District Convention.)

FOR ASSEMBLY
L. N. MYERS, of Middleburg.

FOR COUNTY SURVEYOR
GEORGE D. BENFER, of Jackson.

The idea to make the payments provided for by the Sunday Civil Appropriation bill in standard dollars is a neat scheme. The "standard" is the measure of the people have to pay for, and it is only proper to pay for them in the standard money possible.

One of the silliest of recent stories is that Senator Edmunds has given somebody a letter to be read in the Chicago convention withdrawing his name as a candidate for president in favor of Gustav Grant. The Washington despatches of the Press say Senator Edmunds has not yet declared himself a candidate in the sense of seeking the nomination, and until he does he will have no opportunity, even if he so desired, to withdraw in anybody's favor.

Horace Maynard of Tennessee seems to stand a narrow chance of being confirmed as postmaster general to which he was recently appointed, the reasons being that the Democrats naturally dislike a Tennesseean who was loyal during the war and because some of the Republicans are lukewarm in supporting him. Why any Republican should be lukewarm in supporting Mr. Maynard, except upon private grounds, is not so plain. There was not a stancher Union man during the war than he, and there hasn't been a more consistent Republican since.

The Republican party has within its organization the bone, muscle, brain and integrity of the country. It has the capital and progressive element of the country. Amid the thunders of a mighty revolution it built the Pacific railroad which made the United States the great highway of nations, and it struck the shackles from the limbs of four millions of slaves. If it had done nothing but these two acts they are sufficient to immortalize it. We do not wish to disparage our Democratic neighbors, as many shining lights exist among them, but to the credit of the Republican party it must be said that it is the party of progress, and its progress is in the right direction.

The long-drawn-out struggle between Chili on the one side and Peru and Bolivia on the other seems from the South American news of to-day to be drawing to a close. The allies are putting the question of peace on the hazard of a single battle, which was pending at the last accounts and in whose preliminary skirmishing the Chilians had already gained a decided advantage. The return of peace to these warring republics will be a consummation on which the continent can congratulate itself. The one lesson of the struggle has been that the least warlike of South American States is the most powerful when a genuine conflict is had.

The secretary of the Republican National committee, who has reached Chicago and established his headquarters at the Palmer House, announces that tickets of admission to the convention will be divided among all the delegates, instead of being issued by the local committees of arrangements as hitherto, thus making it impracticable to fill the hall with the admirers of local favorites. He says, furthermore, that never before have candidates entered so early and so systematically on a struggle for a nomination, but he confidently expects to see Grant nominated. He believes that Grant will carry Virginia, North and South Carolina and Florida. It is probable that he is regarded with great favor in many of the southern states. The rush to Chicago on the occasion of this convention will be unprecedented, and next week the filling up of the city will commence.

Change is written all around, "in the air, the earth, the sky," but the great Democratic party is immutable. It is the same destructive cabal it has always been, the same traitorous organization. It was the party of the Tories of the Revolution; it is the party of the traitors of the Rebellion. It is the party of liberal theories and proscriptive practices, of broken promises, of violated pledges. The leopard may change his spots and the Ethiopian his color, but the immaculate Democratic party, like all inferior grades of animal nature, has amazing vitality and will resist these encroachments. It is the standard around which the rebels and anarchists rally, the lodestone to conduct revolutionary spirits to destruction. The Angel of Peace grinned the ghastliest grin, mortified and chagrined to find that as he dropped his wings over the convention at Harrisburg one of Mac Mullin's lambskins extinguished a lamp with a revolver.

The result of the convention at Springfield settles the question as to the nomination at Chicago. The forty-two delegates of Illinois having been instructed for General Grant, his nomination on first ballot in the national convention is assured. This is conceded by the press and politicians generally, and it will be accepted by the country as a finality. Senator Logan managed the convention with remarkable tact and ingenuity, and his victory is accepted as the greatest of his life. That General Grant will be the next President of the United States seems assured, for no one will doubt for a moment what the result will be at the polls. Invincible in war he will also be invincible as a candidate, because he will be backed by the loyal element of the country, north and south. Perhaps there is no better man at this critical juncture in our history to take hold of the helm of state, now that the mutterings of the disloyal are again heard. It is true that many Republicans preferred Senator Blaine, but there is none of them who will not cordially support the ex-President if he is nominated. Many Democrats will do likewise. Where is the Republican who would vote for Tilden if he is nominated? He cannot be. A Grant boom may now be expected to sweep over the land next week, and the great soldier element, which endured the trials and privations of the field with the distinguished nominees, will be elated to know that their old commander is about to lead them to victory again.

All honor to the plucky little village of Potter county. Although the entire business portion of the town was destroyed by fire people declined any outside help, showing that they possess a spirit of self-reliance that soon will enable them to triumph over their recent misfortune. Although Condersport is a secluded place, it enjoys the reputation of being a thrifty and moral village, possessing both intelligence and stamina. Misfortunes cannot permanently hurt such a place.

Ex-Governor Curtin says he "will take off his coat in his Congressional district against the nominee of the Chicago convention." If his taking off his coat against the Republican candidate for president don't amount to more than it did when he ran against Yocum, and was defeated in a four thousand Democratic district, nobody cares if he takes the stump wearing nothing but a shirt collar and a pair of garters.—Huntingdon Journal.

Huntingdon Journal: "While we are in favor of Blaine's nomination and believe that he is the strongest and best candidate that could be put in the field, we are ready to pull off our coat and go to work for the nominee of the party, whoever he may be, and we hope every Blaine Republican in Huntingdon county feels just as we do."

That vigorous anti-Tilden paper, the Philadelphia Herald, says: "Early the other morning, when a wicked fly which had probably been hatched by John Kelly, began tickling the nose of the sage of Gramercy Park, the great defrauded yelled as he attempted to rise: I can cut my own chops; the man who says I can't is a wicked liar."

Burglars have been at work in Scotland.

Chester county crops promise five or ten per cent. better than last year.

Company B. of Baltimore, has been abandoned for riotous conduct.

The stockholders of the Mountain City Bank, of Potville, think that it is solvent.

Altoona will celebrate the Fourth of July with a great deal of powder and noise.

Congressman Dwight, of New York, has a 25,000 acre farm in Dakota.

The total of the liabilities of the Philadelphia and Reading railroad company aggregate $120,779,064.

Allegheny City is moving in the direction of the establishment of a home for orphan colored children.

A new opera house, for which $18,000 out of the $25,000 needed has been subscribed, will be built at once at York.

While slicing up a cow a St. Louis butcher discovered a $10 greenback in the animal's stomach. That cow evidently believed in retiring out paper currency.

Aleck Stephens, says Daniel Webster is the worst slandered man he ever knew, in respect to the stories of his drunken habits.

Sixteen Albany factories had to stop the other day because the water pipes were clogged with fish.

Paris has 365 miles of paved streets. Stone blocks are used on 294 miles; macadam on 82 miles, and asphalt on 19 miles.

The next great constitutional question which will require immediate attention is: "Can Tilden cut his own chops?"

C. C. Walter, a druggist and ex-Conciliator of Altoona, was molested in $200 and costs for selling liquor illegally.

Lemonade costs fifteen cents a glass in Atlanta. With ice cream at a correspondingly high figure matrimonial cautions in that city must be next to impossible.

Judge Henry Green, who has been sojourning at the Hot Springs, Arkansas, in consequence of rheumatic affection, resumed his seat on the supreme bench of the state at Harrisburg Friday. His health has been greatly improved.

If congress adjourns on the 31st nearly a thousand bills will fail by default. The trouble with congress is that a bill has been squeezed out of the ways and means committee, and congress is now in a violent hurry to adjourn for fear it will have to do something.
