Oysters in a few weeks. Heavy dew these mornings. Are you going to camp meeting? Summer is on the home stretch.

Republicans, see that you are registered. The Orphans Cornet Band, of Lewis town, has ceased its blowing.

Col. McClure has our thanks for copy of argument.—Beech, Bar and Press.

Last Thursday, during the thunder storm, lightning struck Sheriff Bolenders tobacco patch and killed a hundred stalks.

Henry Roberts and Meade Long killed eight copperhead and twenty-three rattlesnakes, in Hill Valley, one day recently.—Huntington Globe.

Ralph L. Rolland, the noted criminal and Chambersburg bank robber, died in the Eastern Penitentiary, where he was serving out a ten years' sentence, last Saturday.

That famous hog, "Pedro," belonging to Mr. Jacob Kremer, of the Mansion House, Watsonova, weighs now over nine hundred pounds. It is expected that he will reach one thousand pounds by the first of September.

Beavertown is erecting "the boss" school house. They've got the "boss" Insurance Company and they're trying to be "boss" all round.

Moses Specht, than whom there is no more energetic business man in the county, is the contractor; and it is well understood and generally conceded that whatever he undertakes must move forward rapidly.

The dead body of Robert Allison, a painter, was found in the corn field of Christian Stouffer, a wealthy farmer, near Chambersburg, Pa., on Monday last week. When the alarm was given Stouffer confessed that he had shot the man, because, seeing him in the field on Saturday night, he supposed him to be stealing corn. Stouffer is in jail.—Huntington Globe.

Charlie Himmelwright, living over the creek, was about Hoffman's coal yard on Monday morning, while the men were unloading coal, when the derick broke down and before he could get out of the way the bucket struck him, knocking him down and the rim coming on his foot cut off two toes as clean as if it had been done with a cleaver.—Lewisport Gazette.

Strat.—Last week, two boys, sons of Christian Boney, residing in Adams township, went out to shoot a crow. The fellow with the gun exercised the precaution and care usual in similar cases and accidentally it was discharged, the contents, a small bullet, took effect in the other fellow posterior. Doctors Schuman and Shindler were summoned.

Last Wednesday, James Hackenburger's house tumbled into the cellar. James resides in Centre township. He had built a house intending to build a cellar under it. He and family were occupying the house. The heavy rains loosened the ground; the props gave way and down went the house, the family, cooking utensils, glass, china and crockery-ware in one promiscuous assemblage into the cellar. No lives lost—some crooked furniture, coffee pots &c.

Dr. Tanner, who has been creating a furore by his fasting 40 days, completed his self-imposed task at Clarendon Hall, New York, on Saturday at 12 o'clock noon. He broke his fast by first eating a peach, that agreeing with his stomach he next drank two tumblers of milk, and eat a part of a watermelon, after which he was driven to the residence of Dr. Gunn. Apparently no bad effects followed his fast. He drank water during his fast.

SNAKES.—Says the Opinion: On Monday the 23th ult., as W. H. McCleary, Clayton Poe, Jacob Por and George Poe, were walking along the foot of the North Mountain, near White Rock, above Wm. Keefe's, when they came upon a den of rattlesnakes. Cutting sticks, they prepared for the battle, and charged upon the enemy, killing seventeen from one to four feet in length. Two large rattlesnakes escaped under the rocks. In the conflict a great many rattlesnakes were killed off, but two were secured with their rattles and striking them 14 years old.

B. T. Parks, Esq., will address the Club on Saturday evening August 23.

The Centreville Picnic of Saturday last was the best arranged; most bounteously provided-for; most tastefully arranged; most pleasantly conducted affair that has taken place in that vicinity for years. The articles contributed for the general table were abundant to overflowing. Good cheer and good will were equally abundant. Every body was delighted, and all who participated in its arrangements deserve credit, yet to the young ladies belong the lion's share of praise.

The Band visited Millinburg on Saturday night last and came home in estacies about the fine manner in which they were received and entertained during their stay. Whilst they received the courteous attentions of many of the citizens, we may be pardoned for mentioning the names of John P. Crommiller Esq., Samuel Barber, B. H. Harvey, George Schoch. But as we write, we are informed that the citizens generally gave the Band an impromptu supper which was par excellence and that their services are at the command of the Millinburgers at any and all times.

FIRE AND INSURANCE.—Last Friday, John Radel's house with contents was destroyed by fire. The personal goods were insured in the Beavertown Fire Insurance Company. The loss was immediately adjusted and the insurance paid. This is prompt work and brought immediate relief to the insured, who would have suffered great inconvenience and distress if there had been the usual amount of "red tape" in the adjustment.

This speaks well for the management of the company and should recommend it to our people who are insured in outside, wild-cat institutions.

James Thurg, of Union twp., met with quite a serious accident on lands of John Shoberger on Friday morning. For some time he and others had been engaged in preparing logs to supply the saw mill close by. On the morning of the accident he was alone engaged in felling trees. The tree which he had just chopped fell upon another at right angles on each having rested upon a stump. After the latter tree had fallen the two commenced rolling down a slight embankment. In doing so Mr. Thurg's legs came under the trees which rolled over his body to the breast and then only prevented from moving further by a stone interfering. Mr. C. P. Dent, who is doing part of the hauling for the party who leased the grounds, heard the shrieks of the wounded man and at once repaired to the saw mill, a hundred or more yards distant, for help. By means of his horses he tried to one of the trees and by a manual effort in lifting the other the unfortunate man was extricated from his perilous condition. His hip-bone was dislocated from the back bone, the pelvis-bone broken and was otherwise bruised. He had been unconscious but a short time. Since the accident he convalesces freely and suffers no pain.

DEATH FROM HYDROPHOBIA.—A LITTLE GIRL THE VICTIM.—Between eight and nine o'clock, Monday evening, a seven year old daughter of John Booth, residing on Poplar street, died in horrible agony of hydrophobia, the result of a bite inflicted by a mad dog some time ago. It was nearly two months ago that the little girl, accompanied by her friends to the flesher farm on the outskirts of the city for milk. While her occupation was getting the milk she ran into the yard to pick up some cherries that were lying under a tree, but did not see a dog which was tied to the tree, and which, when she got within reach sprang at her and bit her on the wrist. This dog had the day before shown symptoms of hydrophobia and had been tied up by its owner, who wished to await developments. The next morning after it bit the child it died.

The parents of the child were much alarmed, fearing that her life was in danger, but the wound healed up nicely and the matter was almost forgotten. On Saturday and Sunday, however, she complained of feeling unwell, and yesterday morning fell into a faint on the floor of the hall. She gradually recovered, but when they offered her water she was seized with severe spasms. Dr. T. B. Cox was summoned and both he and Dr. M. L. Herr, with whom he consulted, did all in their power to relieve the child, whose sufferings were heretofore to witness. When the morphia, which was the only remedy that would afford any relief, was administered the child would snuff at the spoon and grind its teeth together. At last, however, the morphia failed to do any good any spasms followed upon until nearly nine o'clock, when death relieved the sufferer.—LANCASTER EXAMINER.

The State Normal School at Bloomsburg is surprising even its friends by its success. Although the Winter term was one of the most flourishing in its history, the number of ladies having doubled within a year, the Spring term completely eclipsed it, in the number both of boarders and of day pupils. The Trustees were obliged to enlarge the corps of teachers. The number of students in the main school was larger than ever before, and although the Senior class was the largest in the history of the School the State Board of Examiners voted to graduate every one of them. The prospect for the next year, that opens Sept. 6th., is most promising. Aug. 12, 14.

Excursion.—An excursion train to the Soradoville Camp meeting will run over the S. & L. R. R. on Sunday, Aug. 22nd. Train will leave Middleburg at 8:54 A. M. for Soradoville. Returning will leave Soradoville at 9 P. M.

Monroe Items. Picnics about these parts are plenty. One was held in Clemonts park. It was the annual generation picnic of the Eckert family, of Northumberland. Also one in the woods of Mr. John Young, by the people of Blue Hill and vicinity. Both were held on Saturday, the 7th inst.

There was a pole-raising by the Hancock Club of Monroe township, at Shanokin Dam, on Saturday the 7th inst. It was attended by a number of the citizens, as well as by a few from Sunbury, and a delegation from Selinsgrove. The pole, about 90 or 100 feet high, was placed on the ground about five feet, without any accident. The chairman, Mr. Isaac Hottelstine, said that the pole stands on soil that has been Democratic for ninety-two years. The speakers on the occasion were Messrs. Parly, Ulrich, Reimsnyder, and Dewart.

E. W. Y. Letter from Nebraska. FREMONT, Neb. Aug. 13 1880: Ed. Post.—My long silence is not owing to a loss of interest in you or your valuable paper, but to a lack of time and perhaps a want of energy. Our weather is very warm. The thermometer to-day stands 103 in the shade.

Harvesting throughout the county is nearly completed. The farmers are all jubilant over a larger crop than was expected.

On Tuesday our busy town was enlivened by P. T. Barnum's "Greatest show on earth." Over 6000 were in attendance.

A party, supposed to be the Kansas butchers, old John Bender and his wife, were arrested and lodged here in jail until last Saturday, when sheriff Bender from Labette Co., Kansas, came and took them to the place where the crimes were committed, to be identified.

A report reached this place that a mob of five hundred had raided the train; that the Bomber's were on, and lynched them. We do not know how much truth there is in it, but we know they are left to the tender mercies of the Kansas people.

We saw a statement that apples were selling, at Middleburg, for thirty cents a bushel. We would be highly pleased if we could get them for thirty cents a peck. They are selling here for 40 cents a peck. The melon-cold days have come, the happiest of the year. Melon patches are daily searched-out perhaps nightly.

The marriage of George Gaugler, and the death of Peter Stufen were "goten off" on the Post, at a fearful cost to the author if the perpetrator were properly pursued in the criminal courts. To get this off on us required a nice ruse— we held the manuscript and it will not be difficult to fix the offence upon the right individual.

Robert Swineford of Selinsgrove died on Monday last. Mr. S. was well known in this and adjoining counties as a fair-dealing, upright man—a gentleman of intelligence; excellent moral character, and a genial companion—conservative in his views, yet, when he knew he was right he maintained it with vigor. He possessed many virtues, and a flexibility of character which made him warmly personal friends who will sympathize with the bereaved.

Business called us to Beavertown on Monday last, and we were somewhat surprised to note the improvements. The cleanliness of the streets, alleys, lanes, side-walks—the neatness and cleanliness of the dwellings, out-buildings, factories &c., demonstrate that her citizens have a due regard to health and general comfort. And then, her town-folks, we do not particularize, we mean all, are so hospitable that it were possible to accept, a visitor could readily be seated to a score of diners.

Squire Weisel has erected an Office which is both ornamental and useful. It is located in the heart of town. Built on the "reticent style" its convenience as a business place is at once suggested.

The following items we copy from the NEW BLOOMFIELD TIMES, of last week. On Saturday week, John A. Smith, of Newport, killed twenty-six copper-heads at Fisher's ore bank.

As a stock train coming east, on Sunday week, was a short distance east of Lewis town, the horses contained in one of the cars got to kicking and knocked the side of the car out. Three horses fell out on to the track and were killed.

BROKEN BOXES.—On Friday evening Mrs. Burd, mother of Mrs. James Millhenny, of this place, met with a serious accident. Mrs. Millhenny had gone out for a few moments, leaving her mother sitting in the room. While she was gone, the old lady took a notion to go up stairs, and when either party, or all the way up, by some means fell, breaking her left arm and two ribs, and badly bruising her face. When found, she was insensible. Her injuries were attended to by Dr. Strickler, and at this time, Mrs. Burd is getting along as well as could be expected.

ROBERT'S HORSE POWDERS were formerly used amongst the farmers and other valuable horses, but now since the Price has been reduced to 25 Cents per Package, all can afford to use them.

We were greatly amused some days since, by seeing one of our venerable citizens, who had been howled down with Rheumatism, throw away his crutches, and declare himself just as young as he used to be, and he is recommending Robert's Emulsion to every old lady in town. Great Indulgent that.
