Acquitted.—Christian Stoffer of Chambersburg, was put on trial at the session of the Court last week, charged with the killing of Robert Allison in his corn field, on Saturday night, the 31st of July. The case was called on Thursday morning, and by noon a jury was secured. He was indicted upon two counts, viz: Murder and Voluntary Manslaughter. After hearing the evidence the case was submitted to the jury on Saturday evening, and about nine o'clock on that night they returned a verdict of "Not Guilty."

From the North's Press of last week: About the 1st of June a man by the name of A. W. Brooks, of Milltown, Juniata county, stopped at the Van Kirk House, at this place, with a horse and sulky. While here he traded his horse on one belonging to Mr. Cox, the proprietor of the hotel, and in the trade received $24. From here he went to New Berlin and traded his horse, sulky and harness on a horse belonging to Simon Weaver, and at Middleburg he sold the last named horse, and cleared out for Baltimore, where he was arrested for horse stealing, and taken to Middleburg, where the owner of the horse he traded to Mr. Cox resides.

The gunning season has opened, and we may expect to hear of the usual number of accidents caused by the careless handling of fire arms. In speaking on this subject an experienced sportsman remarks that the skilled sportsman never risks his own life or that of others by holding or carrying his gun in such a position as to endanger any one by its discharge. He appreciates the dangerous character of his weapon, and is, therefore, careful in handling it. Now that breech-loading arms are so generally used, there is no excuse for keeping them loaded, but whether loaded or not, the muzzle should at all times be kept away from the body. It is just as easy to acquire careful habits in handling guns as to get other habits that place one in constant danger of being self-wounded and perhaps killed.—Ee.

A SAD ACCIDENT.—On Tuesday last, Frank, a 12-year old son of Mr. William McClure of Green Park, accompanied his brother with a load of lumber to Newport. When near the residence of Mr. Everhart, the lad in drawing the load in some way slipped and fell so that the hind wheel passed over his thigh, badly breaking the bones there and fracturing one of the bones at the ankle. The lad was taken into Mr. Everhart's, and Dr. Orris, of Newport, was called in, and his father notified by telegraph to Bloomfield and then by messenger.—The injuries of the lad were attended to and late in the afternoon he was brought carefully to the residence of Mrs. Gotwalt in this borough. The doctor thinks the boy will no doubt recover, though he will require some weeks of careful nursing.—Bloomfield Times.

Boat Sunk. The colored folks of this place, about 30 in number, who were in attendance at the bush meeting near Millerstown on Sunday last, met with a serious accident on the return trip on Monday morning. As they came up through the Narrows, occupying a flat which had been chartered for the occasion, they met a loaded boat, which by some bad management of the flat came in contact with the latter, so disabling the craft that the colored people had only time left to make the shore before it sunk, which was in about three minutes. Quite a number of articles of furniture besides cooking utensils were on the flat, all of which went down.—Some of the unfortunate people came up in the cars, others rode horseback or in wagons, and some were compelled to walk. Most of the goods were recovered during Monday, but all could not be found until the authorities drew the water out of the level, which was done yesterday. Besides other losses on the cruise a good breakfast was about ready for all on board when the flat was struck, which went down with the rest of the cargo. The people consider themselves fortunate in escaping without the loss of life.

In Memoriam. The following preamble and resolutions were adopted by the St. Luke's Sunday School:

Whereas, It has pleased God in His wisdom and goodness to remove from our midst, brought before the eyes of the world, the death of Charles E. Swartz, who has been a most faithful scholar in the Sabbath School, Therefore be it

Resolved, That while we humbly and submissively bow to the will of an Almighty God we acknowledge his removal from our ranks a great loss to the Sunday School.

Resolved, That though we mourn on account of the loss of one so dear, yet we rejoice in the belief that our loss is his eternal gain.

Resolved, That we deeply sympathize with the sorrowing friends in their bereavement and commend them to the father of all mercies and giver of all good, and that a copy of these resolutions be presented to the family.

Resolved, That the preamble and resolutions be published in the various newspapers in this county, and that they also be recorded in the minutes of the St. Luke's Sunday School of Troxville.
