Middleburg, Oct. 28, 1880.

Warren County Courts.—The Courts of Warren County are held on the fourth Mondays of February, May, and September, and second Monday of December.

All communications, business letters &c., for this office, to secure prompt attention should be addressed as follows: THE POST, Middleburg, Snyder County, Pa. Advertisements, communications &c. must be handed in by Monday noon, to secure insertion in next issue.

Local News, &c.

Prepare for winter.

More night than day now.

Saukraut is being pickled.

Middleburg horses have the epizooty. Candidates are getting in their best looks.

Come to the mass meeting on next Saturday.

Turkey hunters were out in full force last week.

The best way to make your business prosperous is by advertising.

Republicans, trim up your houses for next Saturday. Show your colors.

The flies are on their last legs. Forces has greatly diminished, and those remaining are stupid and dull.

Republican meeting, Selinsgrove, Friday evening Oct. 29th. Speakers: Hon. E. W. Jackson, Col. W. C. Arnold.

E. Dentz, Jeweler, Selinsgrove, has our thanks and very best wishes because of the presentation of a fine, neat, gold pen-holder.

Pennsylvania's mountains are a beautiful sight at present, clothed as they are in autumn's scarlet, orange and russet-brown tints.

Mrs. Wm. Tippett, Owassa, N. Y. says:—I have worn an improved Elixer Kidney Pad about three weeks and have received great relief from it in the back.—See Adv.

J. N. Bick, of Toledo, Ohio, says:—My father, before wearing the "Only Lung Pad," could not sleep nights on account of his violent coughing, since wearing it he slept soundly every night.—See Adv.

The new law now makes the taking of a newspaper and then refusing to pay for it, the same as theft, and a New York State paper has already commenced criminal prosecution against several persons, who have attempted to swindle the publishers.

Republican Grand Mass Meeting at Middleburg, Saturday, Oct. 31.

Eminent Speakers.

Excellent Music.

Grand Parade of Uniformed Clubs. Delegations from all parts of the country. A grand good time. Let every body come.

There is demand now for all the labor the country can produce on the numerous railroads that are now in the course of construction, and all manufacturers that are in full blast. Any able-bodied man who is running around begging for bread, don't want to work, and he should not be encouraged to lead a vagrant life.

Gabriel Beaver has the "biggest" rail, it measures 26 inches in circumference and weighs 10 pounds. Hard beat.

Mr. B. has also a turnip measuring 24 inches in circumference.

Misses Clementine and Jennie Dorn Millinery and Tailoring Rooms at their residence west end of Main Street, Middleburg, Pa. work neatly, cheaply and promptly done. We bespeak for them a liberal share of public patronage.

A fine lot of Goods just received:

Thomas Rathfon was opening sheaves with a knife, the other day, at the barn of M. K. Schoch. A sheaf thrown from the mow struck his hand holding the knife and drove the blade into his abdomen. The injury is slight, but had the blade penetrated a little further it would have put his life in jeopardy.

The house of William Whitmer of Union township was destroyed by fire on Saturday noon. The fire originated in the roof, and as the family had gone to the fair grounds in the morning what little furniture was saved was removed by the neighbors. The building was covered by an insurance.—Courier.

NEARLY AN ACCIDENT.—Mrs. Mary Barton, of Huntingdon, was visiting friends in Milton. Rev. House was taking Mrs. B. to the R. R. station when the horse frightened, broke an axle, ran at break-neck speed, but fortunately for the occupants of the buggy, was captured by a watchman thus preventing what undoubtedly would have been a serious accident.

McClure, Oct. 25, 1880.

THE POST.—The Republicans of West Beaver are actively engaged in preparing to attend the grand Mass Meeting next Saturday the 30 in Middleburg, if the weather is favorable you can look for a very large delegation from the west end hoping the Republicans throughout the entire county will do likewise. Let us all rally and show the Democrats that we are opposed to Free trade and a solid South

The Mass Meeting delegations should endeavor to be here about 10 o'clock in the forenoon.

"O, Sham Where is Thy Blash?"

Dishonest Conduct.

We are told of a letter containing a $10 bill, pasters on which is printed the name, R. Milton Speer, signed R. Milton Speer and addressed to a Republican in Union township, and we are reliably informed that quite a number of the same kind have been received in other parts of the county.

When man, seeking an honorable position—a man of high trust—stoops so low, mean, insolent manner of procuring votes he deserves to be abandoned by the party to which he belongs. There can be no better evidence of Speer's unfitness for Congress. But the meanest part of this transaction is, the money thus sent out is poor Old Jimmy Walls' money and Salary Grab or Tax-payers'.

PETTERSON'S MAGAZINE is on our table for November, ahead of all others, and as usual more and more popular. It is a wonder how this so-called lady's book can be published at so low a price yet always be getting better, but the secret, I suppose, lies in its enormous circulation. The price of "Petterson's" is but $1 a year, or less than any other first-class magazine, postage free. To club the terms are even lower. Specimens are sent gratis, if written for. Subscribers to nothing until you have seen a copy of "Petterson's." Address Charles J. Peterson, 36 Chestnut Street, Philadelphia, Pa.

Ladies, and all who lead sedentary lives, should use D.L. METTAUR'S HEADACHE AND DYSEPSIA PILLS. Price 25 cents. For sale at all Drug Stores.

SPECIAL EXAMINATIONS.

There will be special examinations held as follows:

One at Salem Monday, Oct. 25, for Middlecreek, Monroe, and Penns districts.

One at Middleburg, Tuesday, Oct. 26, for Adams, West Beaver, and Franklin district.

One at Port Trevorton, Thursday Oct. 28, for Erendale (Ind.) West Perry, Chapman, and Union districts.
