Grand Railroad Excursion.

F. H. Miller, of Soradoville, is the agent in this section for the grandest and cheapest excursion ever planned, to start from all the railroad stations throughout the county, for a trip through Kansas. The trip will be through that State, to the town of Ellis, 340 miles acr oss the State. The fare will be one-half the usual colonist rate, or about one cent per mile, and the tickets will be first class, and good for forty days to return. Special rates for meals at the regular eating stations have b een arranged for all persons holding tickets for the eXcursion. The following are a sample of the rates for the round trip to Ellis and return; Pittsburg, $25; Chicago, $15,50; St. Louis, $12; Cincinnati, $19.50; Indianapolis, $17,50; Rock Island, $12,50.

The rates for shorter or longer distances will be in proportion to the above. This EXcursion is by the Kansas division, Union Pacific Railway, which traverses the most productive, best watered, richest and best develop ed part of Kansas. The day set fo r starting is Tuesday, Nov., 9th. If the purchas e r of an eXcursion ticket should buy 160 acres, or more, of the land in Kansas of the ... company, within 6 0 days from Nov. 9th, the full fare will be ref unded, or half the fare on 80 acres. Any other information will be furnished by Mr. Miller.—LEWISTOWN GAZETTE.

AN UGLY AFFAIR.—Two sons of George Deneen, of Union township, Fulton county, started to take a loaded gun from the house to their father, who was in the woods, for the purpose of shooting a pheasant. While on the road the elder of the two, who was carrying the gun told his brother he was going to shoot him. The little fellow who is but twelve years of age, ran from him, when the elder brother fired the whole load of shot into his body, dangerously wounding him. He is still lying in a precarious situation. Some attribute the affair to viciousness on the part of the lad, while others claim it was an accident.—Repository.

The people do not want a "change."

The approaching cold weather is sure to break up sparking across the front gate, and the young man who is too bashfull to go inside will cease his attentions until the warm weather comes again.

On Monday John Meloy's son a lad of six years, in attempting to get on a wagon with other boys, as it was passing the school house, was thrown down the wheel of the wagon passing over his ear. He is doing well at present.—Juniata Tribune.

A young married woman was found dead in a garret in Scranton with an infant two days old by her side. She died of hunger and neglect. A few days before her death she cut off her hair and sold it to buy food while her husband was carousing in a saloon.

We have received several marriages and death notices from Port Trevorton, but decline publishing them, for the reason that we have been humbugged several times by some parties in that township. The notices may be all right, but we don't know.

REMEDY FOR EPIZOOTY.—Superintendent S. S. Blair gives the following cure for epizooty, to the Tyrone HERALD.

"To those having horses attacked with epizooty, quinsy or sore throat, permit me to say, that in my eXperience with 111 horses and mules 1872, when the disease spread over the country with great rapidity, I used nothing but eXtract of ammonia and sweet oil in the following proportions: One part extract of ammonia and two parts of sweet oil well rubbed on the outside of the throat and glands of the neck every two or three hours, until blistered freely, feeding them on bran mash until they recovered. This treatment was entirely successfull. As the disease is very prostrating do not work the animals if possible to avoid it. Keep your stables clean and well ventilated, and whitewash them frequently. Any neglect of the animals and hard work may bring on the ...

About one o'clock P. M. last Saturday, a terrible and possibly fatal casualty occurred at the Keystone Flouring Mills, in East Buffalo township, about two miles south of this place. The proprietor, A. H. Supplee, Jr., was in the act of raising steam preparatory to starting, and when within five pounds of the desired pressure was obtained, the boiler burst. Mr. S. was struck by the boiler head and thrown upon a couple of no pipes, the blow stunning him so much that he was unable to extricate himself. He was much bruised as well as burned, and it was feared that he could not survive until evening. He rallied, however, and at last accounts there were fair hopes of his recovery, but with a probability of his being maimed for life. Another man Mr. Yeager, was in the boiler room at the same time, but he fortunately escaped without any injury. The boiler house was completely wrecked, and the premises adjacent also suffered some damage.—Lewisburg Chronicle.
