Thirty-five years ago, when Capt. Stone made Moundville, W. Va., his home he planted two seeds, informing his family that he would like to raise wood for his coffin. Only one seed sprouted, and in the course of thirty years became a fine tree. During a severe wind storm eighteen months ago the tree fell. It was sent to a Pittsburg firm to be cut into lumber, and in due time returned to the Captain in the shape of a handsome coffin; and now to complete the story, its owner has just been buried in it.

The Welsh mountain gang of thieves, ranging in age from 19 to 70, have been quietly arrested by twoes and threes within a few weeks and placed in the Berks and Lebanon jails, on the charge of being concerned in plundering stores, railway stations, freight depots and farm houses. The entire gang was oathbound, and lived in the forest country near the Blue mountains. They met in Ghost Hollow. Their theatre of operations was in Berks, Chester and Lancaster counties.

For Christmas decorations this year the citizens of Philadelphia used 15,00 trees, 500,000 yards of laurel and other wreaths, and 1,000 barrels of moss, costing in the aggregate about $53,000, to say nothing of the vast stores of holly and flowers. The trees came principally from Maine, and the laurel and moss from the swamps of New Jersey.

A Pottstown man who wanted to butcher a steer fired eleven buckshot into the beast's head. The steer broke away and ran into the woods, where he was killed two days later. Examination showed that some of the shot had entered the animal's brain, and yet so remarkable was his vitality, that, if left alone, he probably would have lived for weeks.

There is a cigar manufactory in New York city which employs fifteen hundred hands, turns out nearly five million cigars each month, pays monthly wages amounting to $64,000, and yet has but sixty customers all told. What is more, it declines all additional patronage as it has all it can do to supply its present patrons.

Three young misses of West Chester have taken the name of James A. Garfield, President-elect, and are trying to see how many words they can make out of the letters therein contained. They have thus far succeeded in spelling out over 300 words, and think they can make as many mare.

The boiler in Baker's car works at Latrobe, Pa., exploded on Tuesday. Two young men named Campbell and Williams were badly scalded. They walked half a mile to the office of a surgeon, where, after having their injuries attended to they died in half an hour.

The two new cables contracted for by the American Union Telegraph Company are to be finished and laid from Europe to the United States so that communication may be had through them by the 1st of September, 1881.

A one-year old baby was taken from its cradle by a wolf, during the absence from the house of its parents, who reside on the mountain near Clintonville, Cambria county, and no traces of the body or any portion of it have ever been found.

Gov. Hoyt has issued a proclamation announcing the payment, cancellation, extinguishment and final discharge of $628,679.21 of the principal of the public debt of this Commonwealth during the past year.

ADAM WAGNER,

Is a compound of the virtues of sarsaparilla, stillingia, mandrake, yellow dock, with the iodide of potash and iron, all powerful blood-making, blood-cleansing, and life-sustaining elements. It is the purest, safest, and in every way the most effectual alterative medicine known or available to the public. The sciences of medicine and chemistry have never produced so valuable a remedy, nor one so potent to cure all diseases resulting from impure blood. It cures Scrofula, and all scrofulous diseases, Erysipelas, Rose, or St. Anthony's Fire, Pimples and Face-grubs, Pustules, Blotches, Boils, Tumors, Tetter, Humors, Salt Rheum, Scald-head, Ringworm, Ulcers, Sores, Rheumatism, Mercurial Disease, Neuralgia, Female Weaknesses and Irregularities, Jaundice, Affections of the Liver, Dyspepsia, Emaciation, and General Debility.

By its searching and cleansing qualities it purges out the foul corruptions which contaminate the blood, and cause derangement and decay. It stimulates and enlivens the vital functions. It promotes energy and strength. It restores and preserves health. It infuses new life and vigor throughout the whole system. No sufferer from any disease which arises from impurity of the blood need despair, who will give AYER'S SARSAPARILLA a fair trial. Remember, the earlier the trial, the speedier the cure.

Its recipe has been furnished to physicians everywhere; and they, recognizing its superior qualities, administer it in their practice.

For nearly forty years AYER'S SARSAPARILLA has been widely used, and it now possesses the confidence of millions of people who have experienced benefits from its marvellous curative virtues.
