Divorces.

Australians.—Divorces have never been sanctioned in Australia.

Jews.—In olden times the Jews had a discretionary power of divorcing their wives.

Japans.—If the wife be dissatisfied she can obtain a divorce by paying a certain sum.

Thibetans.—Divorces are seldom allowed, unless with the consent of both parties, neither of whom can afterward remarry.

Moors.—If the wife does not become the mother of a boy she may be divorced with the consent of the tribe, and she can marry again.

Abyssinians.—No form of marriage is necessary. The connection may be dissolved and renewed as often as the parties think proper.

Siberians.—If the man be dissatisfied with the most trifling acts of his wife, he tears her cap or veil from her head, and this constitutes a divorce.

Corean.—The husband can divorce his wife at pleasure, and leave her the charge of maintaining the children. If she proves unfaithful he can put her to death.

Siamese.—The first wife may be divorced, not sold, as the others may be. She then may claim the first, third and fifth child, and the alternate children are yielded to the husband.

Dens and Tarkans.—Among these people, if a wife asks her husband's permission to go out, and he says "Go," without adding "but come back again," she is divorced. Though both parties desire it, they cannot live together again without being remarried.

Cochin China.—If the parties choose to separate they break a pair of chopsticks or a copper coin in the presence of witnesses, by which action the union is dissolved. The husband must restore to the wife the property belonging to her prior to her marriage.

Americans Indians.—Among some tribes the pieces of sticks given to the witnesses of the marriage are broken as a sign of divorce. Usually new connections are formed without the old ones being dissolved. A man never divorces his wife if she has borne him sons.

Tartars.—The husband may put away his partner and seek another when it pleases him, and the wife may do the same. If she be ill-treated she complains to the magistrate who, attended by the principal people, accompanies her to the house, and pronounces a formal divorce.

Chinese.—Divorces are allowed in all cases of criminality, mutual dislike, jealousy, incompatibility of temper, or too much loquacity on the part of the wife. The husband cannot sell his wife until she leaves him, and becomes a slave to him by action of the law for desertion. A son is bound to divorce his wife if she displeases his parents.

Circassians.—Two kinds of divorce are granted in Circassia—one total, the other provisional. When the first is allowed the parties can immediately marry again; where the second exist the couple agree to separate for a year, and if, at the expiration of that time, the husband does not send for his wife, her relations may demand of him a total divorce.

Grecians.—A settlement was usually given to a wife at marriage for support in case of a divorce. The portion was then restored to her, and the husband required to pay monthly interest for its use during the time he retained it from her. Usually the men could put their wives away on slight occasions. Even the fear of having too large a family sufficed. Divorces scarcely ever occur in modern Greece.

Hindoos.—Either party for a slight cause may leave the other and marry. When both desire it there is not the least trouble. If a man calls his wife "mother," it is considered indelicate to live with her again. Among one tribe; the "Gores," if the wife be unfaithful, the husband cannot obtain a divorce unless he gives her all the property and children. A woman, on the contrary, may leave when she pleased, and marry another man, and convey to him the entire property of her former husband.

Romans.—In olden times a man might divorce his wife if she were unfaithful, if she counterfeited his private keys, or drank without his knowledge. They would divorce their wives when they pleased. Notwithstanding this, 521 years elapsed without one divorce. Afterward a law was passed allowing either sex to make the application. Divorces then became frequent on the slightest pretexts. Seneca says that some woman no longer reckoned the year by the consuls, but by the number of their husbands. St. Jerome speaks of a man who had buried twenty wives, and a woman who had buried twenty-two husbands. The Emperor Augustus endeavored to restrain the license by penalties.

The "WHITE" stands acknowledged King of all Sewing Machines.

Important and Cautionary Notice to all intending purchasers of sewing Machines.

Office WHITE SEWING MACHINE Co.

CLEVELAND, O, May 27, 1880.

We particularly call your attention to the fact that we stamp a number in plain, distinct figures on the back shuttle-race slide of each machine and keep a record of such numbers. When sold, a WARRANTY FOR FIVE YEARS is given to the purchaser. This warrant bears the name of the agent who purchased the machine from us, as also the date of purchase and a number corresponding to the slide number. The warrant is signed by us, and has the OFFICIAL SEAL of our company stamped upon it. All other warrants in our name are spurious, and parties finding the SLIDE NUMBERS MUTILATED OR DEFACED, and no warranty to correspond with the above description, may know at once that sooner or later the owner will be involved in trouble, with no one to fall back upon.

The GENUINE "White" is to-day the most popular machine upon the market, the cheapest, and the best to own or sell. A larger number of the "White" have been made and sold since they were placed upon the market, than any other make in the same length of time since Sewing Machines were invented. Their lightness, speed, space, beauty, quietness, durability, and price, combine to make them the machine that every family desires to own, and thoroughly satisfied when once they possess the "White."

THE REGULAR AUTHORIZED DEALER FOR Snyder and adjoining counties, is O. C. SEEBOLD Middleburg Pa., and we advise intending purchasers to patronize none other, and thereby get the genuine "White"

Rupture

DR. J. A. SHERMAN—AND THE ONLY DR. SHERMAN known to the public for the past 15 years or more for his successful method of treating Rupture without the annoyance and injury trusses inflict, may now be consulted weekly at his New York and Boston offices Dr. Sherman is the discoverer of the only known cure for Rupture by local external treatment.

No man is safe who has a Rupture, no matter how insignificant he may consider it, for every man who has died from it once flattered himself that it was but a trifling ailment; and every man who now suffers from it and the injury of trusses, to such an extent that life has no enjoyments, once regarded it as unworthy special attention. It is not a stand-still affliction: It is steadily progressive, even unto death, and he is wise who takes the necessary steps to be effectually relieved of it before the day of suffering and gloom comes upon him.

Patients from abroad can receive treatment and leave for home same day. During treatment any kind of active exercise or labor can be performed without interfering with the treatment, and with safety from the dangers of strangulated Rupture. HIS BOOK ON RUPTURE gives the most reliable proofs from distinguished professional gentlemen, clergymen, and merchants of his successful practice and popularity therefrom throughout this country and the West Indies. The afflicted should read it and inform themselves.

It is illustrated with photographic likenesses of extremely bad cases before and after cure and mailed to those who send 10 cents. In consequence of the great demand for Dr. Sherman personal services, he will, till further notice, divide his time between his New York and Boston offices as follows: Saturday, Monday, and Tuesday he may be consulted at his New York office and Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday, at his Boston office, each week. Remember writing or calling, the address is

THERE IS

A Balm in Gilead!

The success which has marked the introduction of Cream Balm, a Catarrh remedy, prepared by ELY BROS., Owego, N. Y., is indeed marvelous. Many persons in Pittston and vicinity are using it with most satisfactory results. A lady down town is recovering the sense of smell, which she had not enjoyed for fifteen years, through the use of the Balm. She had given up her case as incurable. Mr. Harper, the druggist, has used it in his family and commends it very highly. In another column a young Tunkhannock lawyer, known to many of our readers, testifies that he was cured of partial deafness. It is certainly a very effectious remedy.—PITTSTON, (Pa.,) GAZETTE, Aug. 18, 1879.

MANHOOD

How Lost. How Restored

Just published, a new edition of Dr. Culverwell's Celebrated Essay on the radical cure (without medicine) of SPERMATORRHŒA or Seminal Weakness, Involuntary Seminal Losses, IMPOTENCY, Mental and Physical Incapacity, Impediments to Marriage, etc.; also, CONSUMPTION, EPILEPSY and FITS, induced by self-indulgence or sexual extravagance, &c.

The celebrated author, in this admirable Essay, clearly demonstrates, from a thirty years' successful practice, that the alarming consequences of self-abuse may be radically cured; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain, and effectual, by means of which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, privately, and RADICALLY.

This Lecture should be in the hands of every youth and every man in the land
