George Eliot's Romola.

A timely interest is given, by the death of the author, to the new edition of her masterpiece, "Romola," just issued by the American Book Exchange, New York. It shows her work at its best and strongest, and at the same time gives the reader the opportunity to acquire a lasting familiarity with the scenes and society of medieval Italy. It is one of the few really great historical novels of the world. It is issued in handy and beautiful form, extra cloth binding, simple but rare elegance and taste in design, and like the other works of the "Literary Revolution" its cost is almost nominal, viz. 35 cents. It is one of a series intended to form a library of classic fiction, which will include our representative and characteristic work of each of the great authors who have won lasting fame in the realm of fiction. Life is too short and too full of work to permit the reading of all that is beautiful and valuable in these creations of the imagination, but even very busy people can find time to read one book by each of the scores of authors who have won immortal fame and place in the affections of the people. Not to be acquainted with them is to be ignorant of much that is most important and most interesting in the history of nations and of man.

Teacher's Institute.

The Normal Institute held its fourth meeting at the regular place on Saturday Jan. 9th. The following subjects were discussed during the day.

Bobol government, Arithmetic, History and penmanship. While the subject of school-management was being discussed, one of the teachers explained a case of misbehavior, upon which the Pres. pronounced the severest punishment, as it was a desperate case, (he said). The next subject treated a prolonged absence of a teacher and another from the same source.

New Discovery!

How to tell a kicking and runaway horse. Narrow escape of a Judge.

Some time since a prominent citizen of Sunbury who has the honorable title of Judge and is largely interested in the lumber business, had occasion to visit the enterprising village of Centerville in this county, for the purpose of inspecting some lumber tracts, incidentally engaged "Mueckel" Snyder a well known citizen of that place to take him to the locality. They procured a horse from a neighbor and hitched him in Mueckel's sleigh (an old fashioned "Yankee jumper" which has already attained the age of the famous "one horse shay") and proceeded on their way. For a time all went merrily as a "marriage bell," until they came to an uneven place in the road and both were dumped out in the snow and the horse ran away, he was captured before he got very far and held until "Mueckel" and the Judge came up, they then got into the sleigh and proceeded until they came to the brow of a small hill, where "Mueckel" remarked, this horse "kicks and I don't like to drive him down this hill as I do not wish to have my sleigh broken," when Judge Witmer inquired, "How do you know he will kick," to which Mueckel replied, "I can see it by the way he holds his tail" after some consultation as to what was best to be done, it was solemnly and judicially decided that the animal should be finished, which was done—"Mueckel" taking charge of the horse and the handsome Judge laying aside his dignity demurely proceeded to take the place of the horse and pulled the sleigh down the hill when about half way down, owing to the slippery condition of the road and the impetus of the sleigh another sad catastrophe happened the disabed Judge, he being on several occasions in the position of a celebrated prophet of old who, scripture says, was in the habit of riding his "circlet" on an ancestor of the mule.

Nothing more serious however occurred than would happen any one whose habits of life are sedentary and who occasionally shows the door before the hinder part of his coat is altogether through. In this condition they reached the fact of the fall where another council was called. The Judge was for proceeding on the way but "Mueckel" objected saying that "the horse would run away" and he was for "kicking him out of the saddle" when the Judge inquired how you "knew that the horse would run away" to which Mueckel replied, "I can see that from the way he carries his ears" it was then decided that the "Judge" should take the horse out to Centerville and procure another horse and return for the sick and "Mueckel" in pursuance of this conclusion proceeded to take the horse leaving the Judge and his sleigh in the lurch.

The sleigh and a horse (hatched) were found in the snow on the brow of a hill, a short distance from the town, in a certain, while on his way out "Judge" was accompanied by the Judge of the county and a crowd of the friends and towns. The Judge of the county then remarked that "the horse would run away" and he was for "kicking him out of the saddle" when the Judge inquired how you "knew that the horse would run away" to which Mueckel replied, "I can see that from the way he carries his ears" it was then decided that the "Judge" should take the horse out to Centerville and procure another horse and return for the sick and "Mueckel" in pursuance of this conclusion proceeded to take the horse leaving the Judge and his sleigh in the lurch.

Jan. 8, near Paxtonville, of dropsy, deceased, aged 80 years and 6 months.

There are few cities in the United States or the Canada, which have not several well known residents, who have been materially benefited by the use of Ayer's Hair Vigor.

The original youthful and blacked locks, held spots have been recovered, or brassy, dry and wire hair has been brought to a smooth gloss.

Read the following plain statement, every word of which is true!

Mrs. Oliver Davis, of Williams town, Vt., and 59 years old, lost her hair 33 years ago, by a disease of the scalp, presumably, as she had no skin on her head. For 35 years she tried many "restorers," &c., with no effect. A year ago last May, coming by chance, in possession of a part of a bottle of "Ayer's Hair Vigor," she applied it and a downy growth of hair began to cover her head. She has since used three bottles and about a half, and at this time her hair is twelve inches in length, brown in color, not at all gray, and covering her head with the exception of a spot on top, and has a downy growth starting upon it which she thinks a persistent use of the Vigor will bring out in time like the rest.

Oct. 22, 1880. The particulars of this case can be verified by the Postmaster and other prominent citizens; also, by the editor of the North-Ad. Vt. News.

The Hair Vigor is prepared by Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass., and sold by druggists in all towns.

Adamsburg Items.

There are shipped from this station about 23 to 25 cars loads of ore, making an aggregate, reckoning 13 tons to the car, 325 tons per week.

Our schools are being taught by Spiro Smith and Miss Ida Hecken-dorn. These schools are well attended, well disciplined and governed. The citizens of the town can well be proud of them—being surpassed by none, in the county, in the art of teaching.

The young folks were going to take a sleigh ride last Tuesday night but the ladies did not accompany them; so the boys remained at home. Reader you can infer from this that the Adamsburg ladies are somewhat toady.

The Adamsburg Corn Band, which is being instructed by Prof. J. H. E. Stetler, is doing real well. They play a goodly number of tunes which are pretty well executed. Stick it, boys; you will make good musicians if you will not become negligent.

Some of the citizens of this place organized a life insurance company about a week since. We trust they will do an honest business.

"I'm drawing a conclusion," remarked a localite as he pulled the city rail—"I'll advise you and 'I'm besting the Doctor' remarked another, as she took a dose of Dr. Sizer's Syrup of Tar, Wild Cherry and Horehound for her cough. A 10 Cent Bottle does the business—For Sale by all Druggists.

"Oh why don't you get the spirit of the people?" We see it up there, when we see a man driving a "reel" splinted team we unhesitatingly remark—"That man has M. B. Rogers's Horse Power—25 Cents at all Drug Stores.

If you are, here, or healy yourself, there is nothing so well as quickly and generally get your cold, or any application of M. B. Rogers's Horse Power. It is during the extreme cold weather, when you have frozen your feet or hands, and you have something to do, or you are not satisfied that it is worth your time, what if you get your cold, or any application of M. B. Rogers's Horse Power. It is during the extreme cold weather, when you have frozen your feet or hands, and you have something to do, or you are not satisfied that it is worth your time, what if you get your cold, or any application of M. B. Rogers's Horse Power.

There is no use talking, no use talking. To cure your cough or cold—Without much trouble or extraordinary expense.

You must use Sizer's Syrup of Tar—Wild Cherry and Horehound. Some may be inclined to criticize our motto, but the idea we want to impress upon your mind is, that Sizer's Tar &c., will cure any Cough and Lung affection quicker, than any other drug, recently sold in the United States or Canada.

The other day, as two friends were talking together, the street, a donkey began to bray and wheeze and cough in a distressing manner. "What a cold that donkey has!" said one of the men. "And by the way, that puts me in mind—how is your cough?" "I say not quite so much of a donkey, as you think I am—my cough is all right—and my knowledge that Sizer's Syrup of Tar, Wild Cherry and Horehound, is the best Cough or Cold Remedy known in the world. If you had been as wise, you would not now be a widower—moral use Sizer's Tar &c."

Mrs. Brown—What are your Eggs a Dozen? Mrs. Schenckhorn—45 Cents, madam. Mrs. Brown—4 Cents? Why how is that? Mrs. Schenckhorn—Scarcity—Scarcity—Scarcity.

Mrs. Brown—How is it that you bring in such a nice lot of fresh ones every day? Mrs. Schenckhorn—I give my fowls M. B. Rogers's Poultry Powders—three times a week.

Mrs. Abner Howell fell and injured her back seriously.

Peterson's Magazine has some new feature every month it is always progressive and in the advance. The February number is now before us, and its new feature is a colored pattern for embroidery on net, the last "new thing" in art needlework. Every lady ought to have the number, if only to get this new pattern. The stories are unusually fine.

The principal establishment is a steel-plate, "The Lost Babe in the Wood," one of the most charming that we have seen. The patterns for fashions, for the work-table, etc., are almost countless. It is impossible to conceive how a lady's book could be better. "Peterson" is undoubtedly, as it claims to be, the cheapest and best of its kind. The terms are but two dollars a year, with great reductions to clubs, and beautiful premiums to the person getting up a club. Now is the time to get up clubs. Specimens are sent gratis for this purpose.

A New Health Almanac.

We have just received from the well-known Publishing House of Fowler & Wells, their Illustrated Annual of Physiology and Health Almanac for 1881, 72 octavo pages, price 10 cents. This publication, which has been issued regularly for a number of years, has become a necessity in many well-regulated families, and well it should, for its suggestions relating to Health, Hygienic Diet, Physiology, Pyschology, etc., render it very valuable. The Number before us, in addition to the usual astronomical notes, monthly calendars, etc., contains a Monthly Sanitarium, with special hints in regard to the care of the health during the changes in the month from month to month, also Hints of Fare for each month, which would be very suggestive to our housewives who do not know what to get for dinner. There is also a life-like portrait of Prof. O. S. Fowler, the veteran Physiologist, &c., &c. Sent by mail for only ten cents. It will certainly have a large circulation, and we would say to our readers, send ten cents in postage stamps at once to Fowler & Wells, Publishers, 755 Broadway, New York.
