

A SENATOR AT LAST.

Hon. John I. Mitchell the Man.

There was no change in the situation at Harrisburg until last Thursday, when it was agreed by both factions that each side select twelve men who were to endeavor to compromise on some man for Senator, who would be acceptable to both factions. The committees were selected, and on Friday night the twenty-four met and continued in session until far in the night, but with no result. Several other conferences were had and many ballots taken, but the Boyer and Bayne men were no nearer a solution of the vexed question than when they began, until Tuesday night, when Boyer and Bayne were dropped, and after a short consultation by the committees, a solid vote was cast for Hon. John I. Mitchell, of Tioga county, and he was declared the nominee of all the Republicans for United States Senator. In joint convention yesterday the action of the committee of compromise was ratified by the election of Mr. Mitchell to be United States Senator for six years from the 4th of March, to succeed Senator Wallace. We are glad that the protracted struggle is ended, and that we have secured a Senator of whom all speak so well. Those who know Mr. Mitchell speak highly of him. He was a good soldier, a good lawyer, a good legislator and a good Congressman, which fully justifies the belief that he will make a good Senator. The breaking of the dead lock is a source of gratification to everybody, and the selection of Mr. Mitchell gives universal satisfaction.

The Republican members held a love feast and general rejoicing over the happy termination of the long and bitter struggle. Following is a brief sketch of the career of the new Senator:

Hon. John I. Mitchell is a member of the present Congress. He resides in Wellboro, Tioga county. He was born in Tioga county July 28, 1838. He spent his boyhood upon his father's farm. He received a common school education and private instruction, and passed some time at the University of Lewisburg, Pa., in 1857 to 1859, but did not graduate. He taught school for a while, and when the war broke out he entered the service, serving first as Lieutenant and afterward as Captain in the 136th Regiment, under Col. Thos. M. Bayne, and made a record worthy of a soldier.

He was admitted to the bar of his native county in 1864 and has since been one of its leading members, being interested in most of the important cases. He was elected District Attorney of the county in 1868, serving three years. He edited the Tioga County Agitator during the year 1870. He was a member of the State House of Representatives five years, from 1872 to 1876, inclusive, served as Chairman of the Judiciary General and Ways and Means Committees. His abilities made him the leader of the House whilst he served in that body.

When he was elected District Attorney he succeeded Mr. Niles, and when he was elected to the Legislature he also succeeded that gentleman, who is now among his most ardent supporters and warmest personal and political friends. During his career in the Legislature he was prominently named for the Speakership, but modestly gave way for others.

In 1876, when he was still in the Legislature, and without any solicitation on his part, he was elected to Congress from his district—the Sixth. He had been put up by the citizens, irrespective of party, and was elected without opposition. In 1878 he was unanimously re-nominated, and re-elected, the vote being 11,133 for him against 5,849 for Smith, a Democrat, and 9,954 votes for Davis, a Greenbacker. In 1880 he wrote a letter, copied all over the State, saying he was too poor to stand the expense of a third term, and his declination was reluctantly accepted—so that his membership in the lower House ceases on March 3. He will now, all unsuspected by himself, be elevated to a higher seat, and will doubtless sustain as a Senator the record he has made in other positions.

Personally, he is said to be a man of very high character, and one whose social relations are of the happiest nature. — Huntingdon Globe.

General Grant has unexpectedly shown his liberality by authorizing

They have fair hunting in California. A party of hunters in Sacramento county in a single day, on one sheep rancho, with four good foxhounds, succeeded in killing seven enormous wildcats, five foxes and an eagle.

By the destruction of Congressman Pierce's splendid hotel in Buffalo by fire, that city loses one of its most attractive ornaments, and the liberal doctor and lawmaker a large sum of money.

In Nebraska, at the late election, a Winnebago Indian was refused the right to vote. The Indian has put in a claim for $6,000 damages, and the state courts will now have to determine whether, under the fourteenth amendment, Indians have the right to vote or not.

Ingersoll has been paying his respects to Delaware aprons of the recent proposition to indict him for blasphemy. He says that oysters were originally made with legs and that Providence took them off knowing that the people of Delaware would starve to death before they would run to catch anything.

General Hancock's acceptance of the invitation to be present at the coming inauguration has recalled the fact that when Lincoln was first inaugurated his defeated rival, Stephen A. Douglas, not only attended the ceremony, but escorted Mrs. Lincoln to the grand ball in the evening.

One million five hundred thousand feet of logs, which escaped from the boom at Williamsport during the recent flood, have been recovered between that city and Harrisburg. It is estimated that 300,000,000 feet of pine and hemlock logs will be floated into the boom this spring for manufacturing purposes.

Two brothers died under rather peculiar circumstances, in this county, last week. It seems there had been a disagreement between them respecting some property, and they had not been on speaking terms for a long time. The older brother, lately expressed a wish to see the younger. The latter on being requested to call on his brother, replied that "he would see him in—first. The elder one was buried last Friday, and the younger died on the day of the funeral.—Was it judgment? — Waynes N. J. Democrat.

William H. Vanderbilt receives four times per annum a check for $476,000 interest on the United States bonds he holds (enough to keep a man from want), and yet it is but a tithe of his enormous wealth. It is certain that he is the richest man now living, and it is probable that he is worth more than any two men who ever lived, the most of it made within past twenty-five years. He is believed to own more than $100,000,000 of railroad securities, besides his Government bonds paying him $1,894,000 per annum.

The losses of cattle-raisers in Nebraska, Colorado, Dakota, Kansas, Idaho, Montana and Oregon, and in northeastern New Mexico, owing to the severity of the winter and the deep snows, are believed to be very large, but the estimates in the various districts range all the way from 10 to 75 per cent. It will not be possible to get actual figures until the snows have all disappeared. One cattle raiser in Nebraska, William Parton, estimates his loss of cattle at 5000 to 7000 head, valued at over $100,000; another, J. N. McShane, estimates his loss at 10,000 head. Both gentlemen are members of the Nebraska Legislature.

The indictment of Brigham Young's son by a Salt Lake City grand jury upon a charge of bigamy will gratify those who feel that something ought to be done for the suppression of the revolting practices of Mormonism, and there will be a hope that Young will be convicted and punished. But the punishment of this one individual, though he is a representative Mormon, will not be enough. He will simply be regarded by his followers as a martyr, and his fate will not have a large influence in deterring other Mormons from marrying more than once. Polygamy in Utah will be suppressed only when there is relentless application of the penalties to every offender; and this promises to be a task of very formidable proportions. It is, however, a task that should be undertaken by one means or another. The Mormon power is growing rapidly. It is already nearly supreme in Utah, and it is menacing two or three of the adjacent states seriously. If it is not crushed now the work of Paul Boyton, the celebrated swimmer and inventor of the rubber life-preserving suit is believed to have fallen a victim in the war between Peru and Chili. Last fall he entered into a contract with the government of Peru to superintend a torpedo service, for which he received a magnificent remuneration. Nothing has been heard from him since Christmas, although previous to that time he wrote weekly to an intimate friend in Pittsburgh. In his last letter he enclosed his will and stated that the enemy were advancing and that he believed he would not survive the impending battle. The long silence has shed a gloom upon his friends. He is believed to have been killed by a shell.

Answer This. Did you ever know any person to be ill, without invasion of the stomach, liver or kidneys, or did you ever know one who was well when either was attacked or treated?
