HUMOROUS.

Josh Billings on Ghosts.

A ghost is about 5 ft. 7 in. in height, and weighs from 4 oz. to 6 oz. They are of the masculine and femine nature, but principally nature. They ain't afraid ov nothing, and will hang around a graveyard as kareless az a skoolboy will around a horchard in green-apple time. They are like a grate many other things in this world—often heard ov, but seldom seen. I will give 1,500 dols. to see a ghost, and 250 dols. more to own one; but I want one kaught whole and not hurt. Mi friend Quineas T. Barnum will take a whole drove ov them at the same price per ghost, and not quarrel about the gender. Therefore, bring your ghosts. Ghosts allus dress in wite nitegown sort of rig, and are the quickest that have ever been trotted out yet. Their ordinary gait iz a mile a seckund but is said, for a purse, they beat this handy. I would really like to see one go in publik for munny—private time is always suspicious. Whi don't some of our agricultural hoss-trot associashuns offer a ghost puss, free for all ghosts. It would draw like a mustard plaster in the mouth of August

The Fatherless Country

A man recently received a woodcut picture of George Washington and pinned it to the wall near his office door. One day while at work his little girl came into his room, and espying the picture, started the following dialogue:

"Who is that picture of, papa?"

"Washington."

"Who was Washington?"

"Father of this country."

"Why was he called father of his country, papa?"

"Because he fought for its independence, and was a great and good man."

"Is he alive now, papa?"

"No."

"When did he die?"

"December 14, 1799."

"Who is father of this country now, papa?"

"No one; it is fatherless."

The little girl was silent a few moments, and then inquired:

"Was he the little boy that couldn't tell a lie?"

"The same."

"Well, this country will never have another father, will it, papa?"

And the conversation was concluded with the emphatic remark—

"Never! not even a step father."

Power of the Eye.

A story is told of Van Amburgh, the great lion tamer, now dead: On one occasion, while in a bar-room, he was asked how he got his wonderful power over animals. He said: "It is by showing them that I'm not the least afraid of them. I'll give you an example of the power of my eye." Pointing to a loutish fellow who was sitting near by, he said "You see that fellow? He's a regular clown. I'll make him come across the room to me and I won't say word to him." Sitting down, he fixed his keen, steady eye on the man. Presently the fellow straightened himself gradually, got up and came slowly across to the lion tamer. When he got close enough he drew back and struck Van Amburg a tremendous blow under the chin, knocking him clear over the chair, with the remark: "You'll stare at me like that again, won't you."

An Effective Sermon.

A preacher addressed the inmates of a lunatic asylum at Jacksonville Illinois. He watched this patient several Sundays and became convinced that the man was being converted and might even be cured of his insanity thereby. So he sought an interview with the man just after sermon on the way Hindoo women throw their infants into the Ganges as a sacrifice. The patient seemed glad to see him, but the only remark he would make was, "I couldn't help thinking while you were telling the story that it was a great pity your mother didn't knock you into the river when you were a baby."

She had sued for breach of promise, and the verdict of the jury was against her. "Want to poll the jury?" said the Judge, formally. "Want to pole the jury?" she retorted. "Yes, I do. Jes' gimme de pole for two minutes," and she had thrown off her sun-bonnet and expectorated on the palms of her hands before the legal phrase could be explained by her counsel.

"Do you pretend to have as good judgment as I have?" exclaimed a enraged wife to her husband. "Well," he replied, slowly; "our choice of partners for life shows that my judgment is not to be compared with yours."

Superlative in its attributes!

The "WHITE" stands acknowledged King of all Sewing Machines.

Important and Cautionary Notice to all intending purchasers of Sewing Machines.

Office WHITE SEWING MACHINE Co.
CLEVELAND, O., May 27, 1869.

We particularly call your attention to the fact that we stamp a number in plain, distinct figures on the back shuttle-race slide of each machine and keep a record of such numbers. When sold, a WARRANTY FOR FIVE YEARS is given to the purchaser. This warrant bears the name of the agent who purchased the machine from us, as also the date of purchase and a number corresponding to the slide number. The warrant is signed by us, and has the OFFICIAL SEAL of our company stamped upon it. All other warrants in our name are spurious, and parties finding the SLIDE NUMBERS MUTILATED OR DEFACED, and no warranty to correspond with the above description, may know at once that sooner or later the owner will be involved in trouble, with no one to fall back upon.

The GENUINE "White" is to-day the most popular machine upon the market, the cheapest, and the best to own or sell. A larger number of the "White" have been made and sold since they were placed upon the market, than any other make in the same length of time since Sewing Machines were invented. Their lightness, speed, space, beauty, quietness, durability, and price, combine to make them the machine that every family desires to own, and thoroughly satisfied when once they possess the "White."

THE REGULAR AUTHORIZED DEALER FOR Snyder and adjoining counties, is C. C. SEEBOLD Middleburg Pa., and we advise intending purchasers to patronize none other, and thereby get the genuine "White"

Is a compound of the virtues of sarsaparilla, stillingia, mandrake, yellow dock, with the iodide of potash and iron, all powerful blood-making, blood-cleansing, and life-sustaining elements. It is the purest, safest, and in every way the most effectual alterative medicine known or available to the public. The sciences of medicine and chemistry have never produced so valuable a remedy, nor one so potent to cure all diseases resulting from impure blood. It cures Scrofula, and all scrofulous diseases, Erysipelas, Rose, or St. Anthony's Fire, Pimples and Face-grubs, Pustules, Blotches, Boils, Tumors, Tetter, Humors, Salt Rheum, Scald-head, Ringworm, Ulcers, Sores, Rheumatism, Mercurial Disease, Neuralgia, Female Weaknesses and Irregularities, Jaundice, Affections of the Liver, Dyspepsia, Emaciation, and General Debility.

By its searching and cleansing qualities it purges out the foul corruptions which contaminate the blood, and cause derangement and decay. It stimulates and enlivens the vital functions. It promotes energy and strength. It restores and preserves health. It infuses new life and vigor throughout the whole system. No sufferer from any disease whicharises from impurity of the blood need despair, who will give AYER'S SARSAPARILLA a fair trial. Remember, the earlier the trial, the speedier the cure.

Its recipe has been furnished to physicians everywhere; and they, recognizing its superior qualities, administer it in their practice.

For nearly forty years AYER'S SARSAPARILLA has been widely used, and it now possesses the confidence of millions of people who have experienced benefits from its marvellous curative virtues.

THERE IS

A Balm in Gilead!

The success which has marked the introduction of Cream Balm, a Catarrh remedy, prepared by ELY BROS., Owego, N. Y., is indeed marvelous. Many persons in Pittston and vicinity are using it with most satisfactory results. A lady from town is recovering the sense of smell, which she had not enjoyed for seven years, through the use of the Balm. She had given up her case as incurable. Mr. Barber, the druggist, has used it in his family and commends it very highly. In another column a young Tunkhannock lawyer, known to many of our readers, testifies that he was cured of partial deafness. It is certainly a very effectious remedy.—PITTSTON, (Pa.,) GAZETTE, Aug. 18, 1870.

"Merit Must Have Its Just Reward."

Of the many Catarrh and Hay Fever remedies we keep in stock there is none of which our customers speak more highly than of Ely's Cream Balm. A comparatively new discovery but one which, from the many reports and evidence of cures produced, is destined to be a leading article. We have never handled a remedy which has increased as rapidly in sales or that has given such universal satisfaction. Price, 50 cts. C. N. CRITTENTON, 115 Fulton Street, New York.

Lecture To Young Men on the Loss of MANHOOD

A Lecture on the Nature, Treatment, and Radical cure of Seminal Weakness or Spermatorrhœa, induced by Self-Abuse, Involuntary Emissions, Impotency, Nervous Debility, and Impediments to marriage generally; Consumption, Epilepsy and Fits; Mental and physical incapacity, &c.—By ROBERT J. CULVERWELL, M. D., author of the "Green Book," &c.

The world-renowned author, in this admirable Lecture, clearly proves from his own experience that the awful consequences of Self-Abuse may be effectually removed without dangerous surgical operations, bougies, instruments, rings, or cordials, pointing out a mode of cure at once certain and effectual, by which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, privately and radically.

This Lecture will prove a boon to thousands and thousands.
