

THE NEW CABINET.

President Garfield on Saturday sent to the Senate the following nominations:

James G. Blaine, of Maine, Secretary of State.
William Windom, of Minnesota, Secretary of the Treasury.
Wayne MacVeagh, of Pennsylvania, Attorney-General.

SKETCHES OF THE MEMBERS OF THE NEW CABINET.

James G. Blaine, of Maine, was born in Washington, Pa., on January 31, 1839; was educated at Washington, where he graduated in 1847. He removed to Maine in 1853, and adopted journalism as a profession.

Mr. Windom, of Minnesota, is a native of Ohio, in the prime of manhood, a lawyer by profession, was a representative in Congress for eight years and in 1879 was appointed a Senator to succeed Senator Morton.

Wayne MacVeagh was born in Chester county, April 19, 1833. He was graduated at Yale college in the class of 1853, and adopting the profession of law, was admitted to the bar April 23, 1855.

BATHING IN A CREEK EVERY DAY IN THE YEAR—There is a young man in Danville who takes a bath in Nahoning Creek every evening and remains in the water each time about 10 minutes. He lives and plunges about in the freezing stream, as a boy does in July, and seems to enjoy it as much.

pointed by President Hayes in the management of that important office he has displayed executive ability of such character as to have won the approbation of men of both parties, and if we are to judge from the management of the largest post office of the country, his ability to manage the postal affairs of the nation, the people can rest assured that they will be successfully managed.

Mr. Kirkwood is a native of Ohio, and moved to Iowa in 1855; was elected Governor in 1863 and again in 1867; was in 1868 nominated by President Lincoln and was confirmed as Minister to Denmark, but declined the appointment; was in 1866 elected to the United States Senate to fill the unexpired term of James Harlan.

Robert Lincoln is the eldest son of the late President Lincoln. He is about 33 years of age and a lawyer by profession. He has never held any public position, but has studiously devoted himself to the practice of law in Chicago, where he now lives.

Judge Hunt is a native of South Carolina. He went to Louisiana with his father's family when a boy, in which State he has resided ever since. Previous to the war he was an old line Whig, and during the rebellion he was a staunch Union man.

Coming Along This Way.—Jay Gould having wobbled up pretty much everything in the railroad way toward the West, is reaching out his arm to grasp the railroads in the East.
