

THE POST.

Middleburg, March 31, 1891.

Local News, &c.

SALE REGISTER. Friday, April 8, G. J. Crouse will sell Horses, Cows, Farm Implements &c., in Richfield Juniata Co., Pa.

Trim your trees. Seedmen are busy. Black birds are here. Clean away your rubbish.

The picnic season will soon be here. The farmers in Centre county are being swindled by a seed peddler.

It is illegal to catch bass, pike or salmon in any way until the first of June.

Don't permit your property to run down for the want of a little needful repairing.

Very wide ribbon and an excess of feathers and flowers will be used to trim early spring bonnets.

Wives will soon take to house cleaning, and husbands, in consequence thereof, will take to drink.

The Carlisle Indian school now numbers two hundred and eighty-eight pupils, eighty-eight of whom are girls. The pupils are mostly children of chiefs and head men.

Prof. Kurzenkne's Vocal class numbers fifty one members. The Professor is a ripe musical scholar and the author of several very popular and meritorious books. He is a polished gentleman.

Forty years experience has stamped public approval on Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, as the most reliable of all remedies for Throat or Chest diseases.

Its continued and increasing popularity is conclusive evidence of its superior curative qualities.

Ed. Post.—I send you the following item, not so much as a matter of public interest, but as a pattern of thrift and industry which many of our young men may follow with profit and good results commensurate with their lives.

Frank Stone, of Centreville, has been in the employ of Schoch & Bros. about two years. He is a Cooper by trade and a first class workman.

The man who is accused unjustly can afford to maintain silence, but the man who is justly accused must make as great a pother as possible in order to throw people off the track.—Selinsgrove Times of last week.

ATTEMPTED BURGLARY.—On Friday night last, about 12 o'clock, G. Alfred Shoch heard an unusual noise about the house. He awakened the other members of the family, viz; his father Emanuel Shoch, his mother, and wife. They hoisted the window, called Mr. Seebold, who lives on the opposite side of the street.

The burglar had opened the window shutters and removed the flower-pots and was ready to enter the building. There were unmistakable evidences about the premises that several persons were engaged in the work. But for the timely discovery it is impossible to tell what the result might have been.

The State Normal School of this district at Bloomsburg, Pa., will begin the Spring term, Monday April 4th, 1891. The school aims to meet the growing demand on every hand for teachers trained for their profession.

The steady increase in numbers continues. The last class was the largest ever graduated from the school and this one is twenty-five per cent larger.

The attractiveness of the location, the beauty of the location, the attractiveness of the buildings and grounds.—Our students.

A Monument for Gov. Snyder. Senate bill No. 21, An act appropriating three thousand dollars for the erection of a monument over the grave of Governor Simon Snyder, was next taken up on final passage.

The manufacture of maple syrup is quite an industry in this section of Ohio. Not less than sixty thousand gallons were manufactured last season within a radius of seven miles of the town.—Business took me to the office of the Central Ohio Mutual Relief Association. The officers of this popular co-operative association are men of the highest business and social standing.

The president is W. D. Sibbey Esq. who is also president of the North Lewisburg Bank and one of the commissioners of Champlain County, N. Y.

Fee of Doctors. The fee of doctors is an item that many are interested in. It is a matter of course that the fee should be reasonable and that the doctor should be paid for his services.

A TRIP TO OHIO.

We left Lewistown Junction on the 9th inst. at 5:40 P. M. and reached Pittsburg soon after midnight. All went well on the "Pan-handle" until reaching Burgettstown, twenty seven miles west of Pittsburg, where we were delayed till nearly ten o'clock the next forenoon.

After many impatient inquiries we at length learned that a land-slide just at the entrance to the tunnel two miles farther west was doing the mischief. It took over eight hours to clear the track of the obstruction.

The Burgettstowners seemed totally indifferent to the inner workings of through passengers, so break-fast was pulled out, only to be delayed another half hour at the mouth of the tunnel. A part of the rocks and dirt had fallen back again and obstructed the track.

After this new delay, each passenger felt safer as his car passed the almost overhanging rocks and entered tunnel, but equilibrium was fully restored only as the train emerged into daylight from the western end. Travel on the pan-handle with its single track and frequent land-slides is certainly not entirely safe at this time of year.

A freer use of the pick would surely lessen much of the inconvenience of travel on this route. Through Central Ohio the fields were already almost entirely bare of snow and mud was abundant everywhere.

At Xenia occurred the only change of cars on our route—from this point we ran north east to Dayton which we reached about seven o'clock on the evening of the tenth. Dayton lies on the east side of the Miami River and is a city of about forty thousand inhabitants.

It is not only one of the most handsome, but for its size, one of the most enterprising cities of the near west. The National Soldier's Home, the finest institution of the kind in the world, lies within one and a half miles of the city limits.

It covers over six hundred acres of ground mostly level, in some places slightly rolling. There are twenty eight barracks for disabled soldiers. These are regularly laid out and intersected with wide shaded streets, so as in appearance, to form a town larger in size than Lewisburg.

The sick and totally disabled are well cared for in the hospital. While in this building many of the soldiers earn a pittance by the manufacture of bead-work, fancy wood work, &c.

An inmate informed me that a death occurred almost daily in the hospital, but on this day the flag had not yet been seen at half mast. Nevertheless the pinched and pallid face and the ominous rattle in the throat of one of the inmates of the "third ward" told too plainly that not many hours would elapse until another of the Nation's Defenders would sleep the long sleep in the beautiful cemetery on the grounds, already dotted with hundreds of graves.

More recently a separate hospital for the insane has been erected. There is a large library building on the grounds, containing reading matter suited to all tastes—a large building with kitchen and dining-hall, the latter with tables for seating eleven-hundred persons—an elegant and well kept restaurant where a cup of the best Java coffee can be had—a general store—a residence of the chaplain—a handsome chapel or church capable of seating about four hundred.

A fine theatre of pressed brick is also in process of erection, the old frame theatre having been burned by an incendiary fire. There are two large natural lakes on the grounds and several fine springs, one of them strongly impregnated with iron.

In some of these springs are to be seen thousands of gold fishes tame and of large size. There is a deer-park with a herd of about twenty five deer, tame as sheep. Elk, buffalo, bear and other animals are also kept within the park.

On the grounds near the lakes, are four or five elegantly kept green-houses, where may be seen plants and flowers from every latitude. Pot plants, flowers and seeds of the best quality may be purchased here or can be had by writing to the Home.

There are about four thousand six hundred soldiers, at present entitled to the privileges of the Home, about eight hundred of whom are absent on furloughs the privileges of the Home are free to the inmates, and those not drawing pensions receive in addition, their clothing and tobacco.

All the work within the grounds is done by the inmates who receive thirty cents per day in compensation.—Leaving Dayton at 11:50 P. M. on the C. O. and P. R. R. late the Atlantic and Great Western, your correspondent reached North Lewisburg about two o'clock, and after a careful looking for signs found "the Partridge House" a good bed, a clever landlady and best of all, buckwheat cakes and maple syrup for breakfast.

Kind Captain, I've important information, Sing hey! the gallant captain that you are, About a very certain inclination, Of all who have a cold to buy Sines' Tar, Wild Cherry and Hoarhound.

Kind Captain, your young lady is a sighing, Sing hey! the gallant Captain that you are, This very night she's been loudly crying, For a 25c. bottle of Sines' Tar—Wild Cherry and Hoarhound—Later and more compact—tar secured—Cold cured.

Every one is acquainted with the old nursery story about the hen that hatched the ducks, and how one fine day they went swimming in the pond near by, and the inducements she offered them to keep out of the water; but it may not be generally known that whenever poultry has anything to talk about in these later and more enlightened days, their conversation always turns to the benefits of Sines' Tar, Wild Cherry and Hoarhound.

We were greatly amused some days since by seeing one of our venerable citizens, who had been bowed down by rheumatism, throw away his crutches and declare himself just as young as he used to be, and he is recommending Roberts' Embrocation to every old lady in town. Good Remedy that.

Englishmen formerly supposed that American running horses were very inferior to theirs, but during the last two years Parole, Wallenstein and other fast ones that were sent from this country to England, have won hundreds of thousands of dollars for such Americans as the Messrs. Lorrillard, James Gordon Bennett, &c. The Englishmen, have investigated the reason for the great success of American horses, and find that they are kept in such fine condition by the constant use of M. B. Roberts' Horse Powder.—SPORTING TIMES.

ANOTHER ATTEMPTED BURGLARY.—On Friday night last burglars attempted to break into the dwelling house of Capt. Lewis Miller, but were frightened by the captain's hunt for his rifle. If we are not seriously mistaken, the shape was "too thin" for the Captain, or, in dwelling, without his permission, in the night time, with intent to commit a felony, had better be prepared for arrest.

AND STILL ANOTHER.—As we write we are informed that thieves tried to break in and steal at the residence of Philip Amtz, in Franklin township. Mr. Amtz had public sale of his personal property, and he had no doubt had considerable safe money and that is what the sound rye were after. Just now this thimble-rick is pretty well awake at night and the result will be, as it ought, a dead burglar or two.

Moving TIME.—What there is considerable changing about in our ancient Borough this spring, it is manifest that there are a few who ought to move, permanently, about one thousand miles off—and the reason why is, they are always denouncing the town and the people—throwing mud—and turning up their noses, and "putting out" signs, pretending to be somebody when in truth and in fact they are counting, non-producing, dependent, idle, babbling nothings.

Court convened on Tuesday morning, pursuant to adjournment, for the Herman-Bonfer trial, and Argument.

Robins have put in their appearance, and the snow-birds and it appears too long it will be a Blue-bird.

The grain fields, in this vicinity look as if they had a coat of yellow ochre.

W. I. Simonton purchased the Fairmount House in Franklin.

Horse flesh is commanding a high price in Snyder county.

The Newport Ledger learns that a farmer in Platts Valley is so deeply interested in the insurance speculation that his assessments amount to about eighty dollars per week. People go into this insurance business with their eyes open, and if they are robbed they have no one to blame but themselves. [This business will yet lead to the murder of old people so insured.]
