

THE POST. Middleburg, June 2, 1881. Local News, &c.

BYRON COUNTY COURTS.—The Courts of Snyder County are held on the fourth Monday of February, May, and September, and second Monday of December.

—All communications, business letters &c., for this office, to secure prompt attention should be addressed as follows: THE POST, Middleburg, Snyder County, Pa. Advertisements, communications &c. must be handed in by Monday noon, to secure insertion in next issue.

Committee Men. The following named gentlemen compose the standing committee of Snyder county for the ensuing year: Adams—J. E. Fetterolf, J. W. Shrader, Beaver—L. D. Conrad, S. J. Gundrum, Beaver—Wilson H. Ush, P. H. Knapp.

There will be regular, daily sessions of the Industrial Men's Association between 11 and 12 in the forenoon and 2 and 3 in the afternoon, from to-day until the 1st day of September, at Head Quarters, near the Depot. New members initiated every afternoon—persons with dirty shirts, dirty feet and long toe-nails need not apply.

Do's't do it.—Throwing filth and rubbish from your back yards into the public alleys is a very convenient method of getting rid of them; but, then, it doesn't add materially to the health of the general public, and still less to the cleanly appearance of the town.

J. L. Riehl, General agent for the Champion Reaper and Mower, was on hand last week—court-week—and drove a thriving business. Mr. Riehl has the decided advantage of being a practical farmer, and having a large experience in farm machinery. Besides this he is a reliable and safe man to transact business with.

Out of the many machines offered the public he has selected the Champion as the very best. COMMENCEMENT—UNION SEMINARY—NEW BERLIN, PA.—The following is the programme of the Closing Exercises of Union Seminary for the school year 1880-81:

Tuesday, June 7—Examinations begin, Friday Evening, June 10—Anniversary of the Excelsior Literary Society. Saturday Evening, June 11—Anniversary of the Neocosmian Literary Society.

Sunday Evening, June 12—Annual Sermon before the Students, by Rev. O. L. Saylor, of Pottsville, Penna. Monday Evening, June 13—Address before the Literary Societies, by Rev. P. W. Riddaugh, of York, Penna.

Tuesday, June 14—Meeting of the Board of Trustees, at 2 P. M. All are cordially invited to attend these exercises. Persons coming from a distance will be furnished with orders for excursion tickets over the N. C. and P. & E. Divisions of the Pennsylvania Railroad, by writing to the Principal, A. E. GOBBLE.

Sad Accident—Run Over by 13 Cars. On Friday evening last, Branard Heimbach, a conductor on a freight train on the Shamokin road, about 3 miles below Saydortown, was run over by 13 cars and his body terribly mangled. Mr. Heimbach was in the act of coupling cars, when the link attached to the coupler broke, throwing him under the train.

Mr. H. was a son of John Heimbach, of New Berlin, Pa., and had been railroad for the past ten years. His remains were taken to New Berlin where they were interred on Sunday last.

DECORATION DAY.—Decoration Day passed off here as usual. At 5 o'clock P. M. the procession was formed, headed by Stetler's Cornet Band, followed by the Sunday Schools and citizens carrying flags, wreaths and flowers. After some parading the procession moved to the graveyard where prayer was made by Rev. Irvine. After decorating the graves of our dead heroes a short address was delivered by Dr. J. Y. Shindel; some music and the decorating ceremonies were concluded.

Carlisle had a shooting excitement the other day. A desperate character, Charles Miller, a recent inmate of the penitentiary, shot at a colored man in court house square and then at officer Bantz. Fortunately nobody was hurt and the offender arrested. He threatened to kill Judge Herman, Congressman Beltzhoover and Ex-District Attorney Eniger.

If some of the parents whose boys take long walks on pretty Sunday afternoons are curious to know how the young gentlemen spend the hours of their absence let them turn their steps to some of the adjacent groves, keeping both eyes open in the meantime.

There is a husband and wife living in Perry county that have been married a little over three years and have five children. In the number are two set of twins. The children are all living.

Our tobacco farmers are busy preparing their soil, and some have already been planting. Quite a large acreage will again be planted in this vicinity this season.

Professor Kurzenkabe ended his professional relations with this people for the present and has gone to another field. We wish him the success he so much merits wherever he goes.

If the old adage that a "profusion of Locust Blossoms is a forerunner of a huge corn crop" be correct, then we may look for plenty of corn the present season. The locust is laden with blossoms.

One of Franklin townships oldest citizens, Mr. Jacob Erb, who has been confined to the house for nine months past last week made his appearance upon our streets again, looking not much the worse of his long confinement.

Newly elected school directors must be sworn in and the new boards organized within ten days after June 1st.

A few tramps are still around, though, why, no one knows, for there is no excuse for tramping now. It is no charity to feed them.

Give Them a Newspaper. When a child begins to read it becomes delighted with a newspaper because it reads of names and things that are familiar, and it progresses accordingly. A newspaper in one year is worth a quarter's schooling to a child. Every father must consider that information is connected with advancement. The mother of a family, being one of its heads, and having a more immediate charge of the children, should herself be instructed. A mind occupied becomes fortified against the ill of life, and is braced for any emergency. Children amused by reading or study, are of course more considerate, and more easily managed.

The Greatest Blessing. A simple, pure, harmless remedy, that cures every time, and prevents disease by keeping the blood pure, stomach regular, kidneys and liver active, is the greatest blessing ever conferred upon man. Hop Bitters is that remedy, and its proprietors are being blessed by thousands who have been saved and cured by it. Will you try it? See another column.—Eggle.

Court Proceedings. Hon. J. C. Bucher, President, Judge; Hon. Hiram O'Neil and S. H. Yoder, associates present. Tipstaves—Irvin S. Graybill, John Mohr, E. L. Balfour, John Dorn. IN THE ORPHANS COURT.

The business of the Orphans' Court was limited and of the usual order. IN THE COMMON PLACAS. Several cases were settled and a like number continued on account of sickness and absence of attorneys.

The case of Mrs. Sarah Fisher against Wm. A. Fisher administrator of Jacob Fisher, deceased, was the only one of importance tried. Verdict for PIF for $1288.48. QUARTER SESSIONS.

In the Quarter Sessions, Tavern Licenses were granted to all the petitioners. Malinda Shamory, indicted for arson was acquitted on the ground of insanity. The Court sentenced her to Harrisburg Asylum. Court adjourned to Aug 4th.

Will Worth Its Price. The Illustrated Scientific News has again reached our editorial table, and right glad we are to welcome the June number which is unusually full of handsome engravings and interesting and valuable reading matter.

Under the management of its new publishers—Messrs. Mann & Co.—the Illustrated Scientific News has risen to the front rank of illustrated journals published in this country, and being issued at a very low price, it is within reach of all who are interested in novelties, science, the useful arts and natural history.

The June number contains handsomely illustrated articles on The Chimpanzee and Gorilla, Ostreich Farming, New Wireless Locomotive, The Maxim Fire Boat, Perfumating Machine, a new and novel Embroidering Frame, the new Electric Milling Machine, and a number of other handsome illustrations, besides a large number of interesting articles not accompanied by engravings.

The subscription price of this handsome paper is $1.50 per annum, or 15 cents per copy, and can be had of all newsmen and from publishers, Messrs. Mann & Co., 37 Park Row, New York.

The American Revised New Testament. The Literary Revolution is prompt with its edition of the Revised Testament. The British monopolists "unchained" their edition on the morning of May 24th, and at 8:30 p. m., the same day, the American edition was all in type, and of the various editions of the entire Testament and the Gospels published separately as many as 50,000 copies a day will be manufactured till the demand is met. The prices for the very handsome editions, in type nearly double the size of the British edition, are as follows:

The New Testament complete for 10 cents. The Gospels complete for 7 cents. The Gospels separately, each for 2 cents. And in various forms and styles, up to full Turkey Morocco, gilt edges, for the new and old versions on pages facing for $1.50.

This edition is for sale by the leading booksellers of the United States, or they will be sent by mail on receipt of price. Liberal terms are allowed to clubs. Address, American Book Exchange, 765 Broadway, New York.

A subscriber of the Lewistown DEMOCRAT AND SENTINEL asks the editor of that paper the following question: "Who or what the 'Cooney' so often mentioned in your paper. Give us his personality."

To the above question "Cooney" of the McVeetytown JOURNAL answers as follows: "We shall endeavor to enlighten the curious individual: Our name is Conrad, surname Edmund, 'Cooney' for short. We were born in Lebanon, Pa., A. D. 1840, of German parentage; had one father and one mother, and have a number of sisters, cousins and aunts; have one wife and two children; we are about five feet five inches in height, when in fighting condition weigh probably 100 pounds; own and run the JOURNAL with the assistance of a local and devil; own a house and lot, two cats and a number of other domestic animals; am the proprietor of the Pilgrims Rest and soda fountain therein; travel occasionally for our health; upon the advice of a regularly graduated M. An exchange aptly remarks: This is the time of the year when the oily-tongued sharper gets around among farmers, who never take a paper, and succeeds in selling them a lot of trash, at exorbitant prices, under high-sounding names. When the crop is ready for the reaper the smart farmer, who knows enough without reading the papers, curses the lying agent. So the world moves, and, probably, always will.

The hens are preparing for Easter laying for it, so to speak. SOMERSET HIRAZLE. The only objection we have to them is they do not meet it surely. They go at it in a kind of round (about) way; but we are of the opinion that this could be remedied to a certain extent by the use of M. B. Roberts' POTTERY POWDER, for it makes the hens set "on the square" by laying double-yolked eggs. She went to the place of "colicite." And hear an open window she set, And by so doing she there met The fate of all who rashly get So imprudent.

She saw a notice in the weekly STAR, "To Cure Cold—Use SIMON'S SYRUP OF P." So she went to her druggist, and then invested with a single quarter In the article.

Now if you only have occasion to see, How earnest and vehement she be when telling how quickly and emphatically she was cured of the cold, caught on said setting. 'Twill surprise you.

It is said that there is only one thing in the world that is sure, namely death; we can now add another sure thing—SIMON'S SYRUP OF P. Its sure to cure a Cough or Cold.

A promising young horse has been named Dr. Tanner in hopes that it will make him fast. EXCHANGE. That might do for some horses; but we had rather see our change of a package of M. B. Roberts' Horse Powders, as they guarantee a healthy and vigorous constitution, which is essential for any horse speed and endurance.

"Of all said words of tongue or pen The saddest are these; it might have been." The above question was forcibly brought to mind the other day by hearing a young lady remark that she would not now be dying with Consumption, if she had taken SIMON'S SYRUP OF P. IN NOVEMBER last, and she did her soul, as a friend of hers did.

We understand that all the farmers' horses in this section, that are given M. B. Roberts' Horse Powders are able to plough from one third to one half more acres per day than those that are given any other, owing to their laxative, tonic, and purifying qualities. We advise all those that have not used them to do so. They are not at all injurious to the horse, and sold by the pound, but are put up in neat packages from pure drugs and sold for 25 cents by all drug stores.
