

Remember that Miss C. Mills, at Beaver's Corner, sells Notions and Fancy Goods cheaper than they can be bought elsewhere in Middleburg.

On last Friday night Benjamin Wittenmyer's sorrel mare was stolen. The fact was telegraphed and the operator at Harrisburg caught the news and gave it to Police Officer Silley.

The Harvest Home Picnic at Adamsburg last Saturday was fearfully demoralized on account of the storm. About the time the multitude had arrived in the grove a rain-hail-wind-storm came furiously down on the picnickers and drenched them thoroughly.

Three fellows went to Palas camping to hunt the girls they left behind them and were themselves left behind by the lack-driver. At 4 o'clock in the morning they were seen setting on a log singing "wait for the wagon."

A Sunday School Celebration will be held at Bowersox's church, in Centre township, on next Saturday.

Our old friend Albright Swineford is convalescent and we were gratified to see him out again.

Adam Showers of this place has purchased from Amante Schambach a farm situate in Franklin township.

A Union-Sunday School Picnic will be held in Gross' Grove, Beavertown, on Saturday. The public is invited to participate.

The Physicians' Register will come from the manufactory in a few days—the delay occurred by a misunderstanding of orders.

Two men came to town on Tuesday last to bail the horse-thief for his appearance at next court. They failed, "naturally."

Hall's Vegetable Sicilian Hair Restorer is a universal favorite for restoring gray hair to its original color, and making hair grow out thick.

An exchange speaks of the "new pair of girls." In some parts of the country the girls are satisfied with the old gate, provided the hinges are sound.

The hoop-skirt factories are again running with a full-head of steam. The style calls for small hoops now, but doubtless the balloon arrangement is coming.

The swallows are making arrangements for their "homeward flight." The Falas camping party was largely attended last Sunday. Some folks were so anxious to hear a sermon that they actually drove 15 and 18 miles just to hear the gospel expounded and they don't go to church more than once in a year although they live within 300 yards of a fine, large church which will conveniently and comfortably seat 700 persons—however, that's none of our business.

GET REGISTERED.—The assessors' list of voters have been posted at the polling places of the several districts and all interested should examine them and see that their names are entered, and if not call on the assessor of their district who will attend to placing them on.

The time for shooting squirrel has not been changed, as some suppose, by amendments to the game and fish law, passed by the Legislature at the late session. It is not lawful to kill any gray, black or fox squirrel before the 1st of January and the 1st of September, and hunters will please bear this in mind. The woodcock season began July 4th.

PENNSYLVANIA AHEAD.—The Tobacco Journal of last Saturday has the following to say of our seed-leaf: "We have been able to trace sales of nearly 3,000 cases of '80 Pennsylvania, and nothing else. All other tobaccos, new or old, seem to be forgotten. This indisputable supremacy of '80 Pennsylvania in the market will cause a run on the '81 Pennsylvania such as was never known in connection with any previous crop. The state of our market is without precedent."

KILLED BY LIGHTNING.—On Friday last, while a severe thunder storm passed over the village of Uniontown, Dauphin county, Mrs. Wiest, widow of Jacob Wiest, deceased, aged 55 years, walked to the window in her room and while looking out at the terrific storm was stricken by lightning. She dropped, but was caught by her son, Edward, before she reached the floor, but life was extinct. Medical aid was summoned, but of no avail.—SUNDAY AMERICAN.

THE QUEEN OF THE TURK.—The famous trotter, MAUD S., with a record of 2:10, passed through Sunday, on fast line, on Saturday evening EN ROUTE to Buffalo, New York, where she will attempt to beat her previous record; another horse, No. 80, with a record of 2:18, was also with her. They had a special car, padded stalls, and a half a dozen men in attendance. Her owner is William H. Vanderbilt, the great railroad king and millionaire. He paid $21,000 for her and has since refused to sell her for $100,000. She is docile and kind. One thing noticeable about her is her unusually long ears, though neatly tapered and not marring her beauty. She is a red sorrel mare (fox) 15 hands 3 inches in height, 11 inches higher behind than in front. Her weight is 965 pounds. It is said that she has made 2.08 privately.—SUNDAY DEMOCRAT.

KILLED BY A FALLING TREE.—On Friday last John Fisher, of Maitland, this county, was killed by a falling tree. Mr. F. was cutting wood near his residence, and his wife heard him fell several times, the last one she heard being at about eleven o'clock. She afterwards summoned him to dinner several times, but on his failing to respond she proceeded to the wood and was horrified to find him lying dead at the edge of the creek with a tree across his head, the front part of his skull having been crushed in. Identically the tree had turned in its course and caught him unexpectedly. Help was summoned and his remains were removed to the house.

Fisher was a son of the well-known medicine peddler who died a few years ago, and he was sometimes engaged in the same business himself. He was in poor circumstances, and leaves a wife and sixteen children. Not all the children, however, were living at home.—LEWISTOWN DEMOCRAT & SENTINEL.

A HORSE IN A WELL.—On Tuesday, July 26th, Jacob C. Ulrich living in the vicinity of Kratzerville, lost a horse as follows: The horse broke into the yard at the house, in which is a well 26 feet deep; and when Mr. Ulrich attempted to drive the horse out of the yard, one of them standing near the well made a leap and lit with his forehead on the middle of the floor of the well, which immediately gave way under him. He made few efforts to extricate himself, and succeeded in getting out with his forehead but got in with his hind feet. Mr. Ulrich went to his assistance and took hold of the halter and pulled, but this was of no avail; for as soon as Mr. Ulrich pulled at the halter the horse threw back his head, overbalanced himself, and went to the bottom of the well from which he was taken dead.—SELINGROVE TIMES.

C. G. Seebold sold 37 celebrated White Sewing Machines, 1 Singer and 1 Remington, in the month of July. I well sell any machine a man wants; Davis, St. John, Dauntless, Wancer, Domestic, American, Household, Singer, any Machine you want. The Sewer, latest improved, from $20 to $30, the best. Come and see for yourself and do not be humbugged by agents who tell you that Seebold can not get the above named Machines. I say I can, for I buy all my machines for cash and work for my interest and not for Sewing Machine companies. Come and see my stock of Sewing Machines whenever you come to Middleburg and I will show you any machine you want to see.

MR. Marx is selling his Boots and Shoes at cost. Call, see and convince yourself. July 14th.

PRICES REDUCED—Prices positively knocked down to the very lowest figures to make room for New Goods at Oppenheimer's. Aug. 3.

Eleven years our daughter suffered on a bed of misery under the care of several of the best (and some of the worst) physicians, who gave her disease various names but no relief, and now she is restored to us in good health by as simple a remedy as Hop Bitters, that we had pooled at for two years, before using it. We earnestly hope, pray that no one else will let their sick suffer as we did, on account of prejudice against so good a medicine as Hop Bitters.—The Parents.—TRUCKHORN.

Closing Out at Cost! At Marx's Boot and Shoe Store, Congress Hall, Selingsgrove.

As the season is pretty far advanced and in order to make room for an early Fall trade, I concluded to sell at cost for the next 60 days. No old stock on hand. If you want to buy a good article now is your time as I only keep good goods for the least money. B. MARX.

It will pay every body to examine the immense Stock of Furniture for sale by the Popular Furniture man W. H. FELIX Lewistown Pa.

Women and children take Malt Bitters. "A perfect food medicine." "Not a vile rum bitters." "A perfect renovator of exhausted nature." "Most successful medicine ever compounded." Aug.

Charley Mowery, who for a long time was a popular clerk in W. H. Kern's grocery, has been dangerously ill for a number of days past. When Mr. Kern closed out his grocery business here, Charley went to Pueblo, Colorado, thinking that far off western country a better field for a young man than here. He found a situation in a store at Pueblo, where he was very much liked by his employers, and was doing well. Recently he was attacked with inflammation of the bowels followed by typhoid fever, and for a few days just has been very low and his life despaired of. Monday a dispatch was received by his father, Andrew Mowery, stating that the doctors did not think he would live through the night. Yesterday another dispatch came stating that there was no change, but this morning one was received stating that Charley had rallied slightly but was still very low. There is now some hope that he may recover, which is the sincere wish of all who know him. His parents have the heartfelt sympathy of this community during their dread hours of suspense while waiting and hoping almost against hope to hear of a change for the better.—Bellevue (Ohio) Gazette, August 3, 1881.
