REPUBLICAN District Meetings!

District Meetings will be held at the following places given below...

By order of SAMUEL GROSS, Chairman. CHAS. E. SAMPSEL, Secretary.

Lies don't thrive. Business is very brisk at our coal yards.

Let every vote be polled on Tuesday next.

The New York Sun has done a big business in "shining your character, sir"...

Vote for J. MERRILL LINV for President Judge.

Jack Frost is a regular mopping visitor now, and his appearance is a strong reminder of the rapidly approaching winter.

Vote for DAVID REICHLI for Sheriff.

Refuse all ten-dollar bills on the First National bank of Detroit. Forty thousand dollars of a new issue were stolen without being signed.

Vote for AARON S. HELFRICH for County Treasurer.

Truth is about the hardest weapon to strike with; yet there are fellows whose brains you might beat out and still accomplish nothing—such are strangers to truth.

Vote for REITZ and MOYER for Commissioners.

How can a single dose of Ayer's Pills cure headache? By removing obstructions from the system—relieving the stomach and giving healthy action to the digestive apparatus.

Vote for DIEFENBACH and SIERER for Auditors.

Venor looks for a continuance of the warm wave on this continent during the approaching winter, broken by waves of low temperature. He disregards the sun or sun-spot theory and predicts an open winter.

Vote for PERCIVAL HERMANN for Coroner.

Reports from different parts of the country say that the grain sowed before the late rains has grown exceedingly well. In many fields the growth covers the ground entirely. The pasture is also looking better and a decline in the price of butter is looked for.

Go to the polls early and work for the success of the whole Republican ticket.

MILLINERY! Surprising the People.

The doctors said my wife had consumption. Tried Lindsey's Blood Purifier, and she has better health than ever. G. H. Hubbard, Hampden, Ohio.

Death of John Bilger, Esq. It becomes our painful duty to record the death of our friend and neighbor John Bilger, which sad event took place at his residence in Franklin, on the 29th, ult. Mr. Bilger was for many years an active politician, and owned and edited The Tribune at Middleburg. He was a vigorous and earnest abolitionist and went with the popular tide into the Republican ranks and never deserted his post. He was Collector of Revenue and faithfully collected and honestly returned the revenues to the Government. He was honest, intelligent and a good citizen.

The public schools at Beavertown opened last Monday with 183 pupils in 4 rooms consisting of same number of grades. The county Supt, accompanied by Sec. A. H. Bowersox and Alfred Specht were present and established the grades. The teachers are J. W. Rarich Gram-Zero Fees Intermediate, Miss W. J. Luyfer, Intermediate, Miss Mollie E. Rothrock Primary. All the rooms are supplied with patent furniture and every school in the District with Monroe's reading charts. Each member of the School Board takes a copy of the Pa. School Journal.

A very beautiful Premium Engraving has been issued by Peterson's Magazine, for 1882, to reward persons for getting up clubs. The plate is large, 20 inches by 16, and would ornament even the most refined parlor; for it is executed in the highest style of art. It is entitled, "Hear! Don't Wake Them," and represents a little girl seated at a bedside, where her two sick dolls are, and she is holding up her finger, warningly, as she speaks. It is really one of the most charming pictures possible; all the little ones, especially, will be delighted with it. Any one can secure this beautiful engraving, gratis, by getting up a club for "Peterson." Only the enormous circulation of the Magazine can explain why the proprietors can afford to give such premiums. "Peterson" is the best and cheapest of the lady's books, the price being but two dollars a year, with great deductions to clubs. Specimens of the Magazine, to assist in getting up clubs, are sent, gratis, if written for. Now is the time to get up clubs for 1882. No one should subscribe any magazine until they have seen a copy of "Peterson," and compared it with others. Address, CHAS. J. PETERSON, 306 Chestnut Street, Philadelphia, Pa.

PETERSON'S MAGAZINE is on our table for November, ahead of all others, and better than ever. It leads off with a charming steel engraving, after Meyer Von Bremen, "Half-Afrail." This is followed by one of those double-size, steel fashion plates, superbly colored, only seen in this unrivaled lady's book. Then comes another engraving, "Lacy Hall," illustrating an exquisitely told love-story; and then some fifty wood-cuts of dresses, patterns in embroidery, &c., &c. There is also a superb colored slipper-pattern, for braiding, in crimson and gold. The tales and novels are even better than usual, and "Peterson," as is known, always gives the best. The price of "Peterson" is but Two Dollars a Year, postage free. Address CHARLES J. PETERSON, 306 Chestnut Street, Philadelphia, Pa.

HOW TO INCREASE YOUR INCOME. Just at this season of the year there are, among our readers, those looking for employment for the next 6 months. We have lately received from L. E. Brown & Co., the well-known manufacturers of specialties for agents to handle, a request to put them in communication with one or more suitable persons in this locality, to act as agents in introducing several of their patent household articles to this community, and after a short time, to take this method to comply with their request. The firm are manufacturers of a large number of household articles, which they introduce to the public by means of agents, having sometimes as many as 1,000 persons in their employ. The particular articles which they seek to introduce here, at this time, are: Brown's Peerless Sifter, generally acknowledged to be the best in the world, of which nearly one million were sold during the last year; the Kitchen Queen, the latest and best invention in Coal Oil Lamps, and the only absolutely Safe Lamp made; the Centennial Cake and Bake Pan, an article which has a national reputation, and is the delight of every housekeeper; the Half Minute Egg Beater, which always sells at sight, and the new Alto Bellow Bronze Profile Cast of JAMES A. GARFIELD, with memorial frame the best selling article ever put into the hands of an agent, the best of all the portraits, chromos or steel engravings that have been offered. It is a truer likeness of the martyred hero than any we have ever seen before, and its price brings it within the reach of all. For this county, Messrs. Brown & Co. desire as many agents as can work advantageously. Any smart, intelligent lady or gentleman can make a good income in this way. The firm will send to any responsible person FREE who will assume the agency here and go to work at once. It is a truer likeness of the amount of five dollars. The reputation of this house is first rate; the good are what they represent them to be. Their terms are liberal, and we advise those looking for gentleness, remuneration and employment, to send them for further information. Their address is—L. E. BROWN & CO., 64 Walnut St., Cincinnati, O. Oct. 27, '81.

Some lady of this place should take the agency for the popular and useful book, "Practical Housekeeping," issued by the Buckeye Publishing Co., Minneapolis, Minn. It sells rapidly on its merits. Every lady who examines it, wants it. Address the publishers for terms. Oct. 27th, 4 w.

"His work is done, he sleeps well. His tired hands are folded now, peacefully upon his breast. For death's rest rests upon his brow, We gaze upon the lifeless form, And know the vital spark has fled, The marble brow, the sunken eyes, Proclaim too well that he is dead."

The memory of the things we did in times that now have passed away, That grived the tender heart now still, Do rankle in our hearts to-day, Oh, let this death a lesson teach, To us, bowed down by grief and pain— If we will let estrangements cease, We will not then have died in vain.

"The tears are streaming from our eyes, As we lay him down alone; To sorrow hearts of stone, Oh, God! within you, brighten-land, Where partings are no more, May all mistakes we made here, Be righted on that shore." E. L. S.

Back Ache POSITIVELY CURED BY Benson's Caprine Perous Plasters. Reasons Why they are Preferred to All Other Perous Plasters or External Remedies.

First. Because they possess all the merit of the strengthening poultice, and contain in addition thereto the highly energetic and powerful and active vegetable combination which sets with increased rapidity in dissolving, softening and counter irritant effects. Second. Because they are perfectly unobtrusive, and so require no attention. Third. Because they are the only plaster that relieve pain at once. Fourth. Because they will positively cure diseases which other remedies will not even palliate. Fifth. Because over 2000 physicians and druggists have voluntarily testified that they are equal to all other plasters or medicines for external use. Sixth. Because the manufacturers have received the only medals ever given for various plasters.
