

THE POST.

Middleburg, NOV. 17, 1881. Local News, &c.

THIS PAPER may be found in NEW YORK.

NEW YORK ADVERTISERS BEWARE OF THE NEW YORK.

Advertisements, business letters, communications &c. must be handed in by Monday noon, to secure insertion in next issue.

Send us the news.

Hog killing has already commenced.

Christmas will come on Sunday this year.

Baking soda put into feed for chickens, will cure the cholera.

The next public holiday will be Thanksgiving Day, Thursday Nov. 24th.

In a few weeks the Thanksgiving turkey will hang from the back window.

Wheat fields are reported promising in appearance in all directions throughout the State.

Have you visited the schools to see how your children are learning and deporting themselves?

Star gazers are nightly looking for the appearance of the Star of Bethlehem, which was last seen in 1573.

Some farmers are holding back their potatoes for better prices, but the indications are that they will not be gratified.

Pretty soon turkeys will be looked after with some interest. Thanksgiving is near and they are a necessary article at that particular time.

It is said that two-thirds of the bees will die the coming winter on account of the dry season, and owners are already making preparations to feed them, and if possible save some of their investment.

Judgments cease to be liens on real estate unless revived within five years from their dates. An erroneous impression prevails with many persons that their judgments are kept alive by the payment of interest.

An exchange says that soot falling on the carpet from open chimneys or from carelessly handled stoves, if covered thickly with salt can be brushed up without damage to the carpet.

Have you heard whether there is a regular hog committee on duty this year or not. From the appearance of things we infer that every fellow will be obliged to "judge" his own hogs. But whether that system will lessen the strife and contention as to who has the biggest porker, time must tell.

People will now take care now as to how they detach their postage stamps, for the post office department has just ruled that postage stamps with any fraction of them torn off will no longer be accepted as prepayment of postage on the matter to which they are attached.

LOOK OUT.—Several of our exchanges are cautioning their readers against a mackerel swindler who is in the round selling his mackerel at a very low figure. He offers to sell different farmers mackerel in half barrels filled with rubbish covered with this layer of fish on top. The best and safest plan is to buy of your home dealers.

Committed Suicide by Hanging.

W. H. Bickel of Georgetown, of the firm of W. H. & H. M. Bickel, proprietors of a general store at Georgetown, and a brother of P. S. Bickel, a well-known business man of the same place, hung himself in the loft of his barn about 9 o'clock on Tuesday morning last. He was first discovered by his wife while on her way to the store to call him to dinner. Mr. Bickel has been falling in mind and health for some time past, and for the past two or three months he has been unable to attend to his duties at the store.—Sunbury News.

ABURNHAM, Mass., Jan. 14, 1880. I have been very sick over two years, they all gave me up as past cure. I tried the most skillful physicians, but they did not reach the worst part. The liver and heart would fill up every night and distress me, and my throat was very bad. I told my children I never should die in peace until I had tried Hop Bitters. I have taken two bottles. They have helped me very much indeed. I am now well. There was a lot of sick folks here who have seen how they helped me, and they used them and are cured, and feel as thankful as I do that there is so valuable a medicine made.

Another of our oldest and most esteemed citizens was called suddenly to the spirit world, last Sunday. Mr. Charles D. Kline, after partaking of a hearty breakfast, sat down to read, as was his custom. He was almost immediately stricken with paralysis, and sank painlessly into the arms of death. So quietly was the final change wrought that the family was not aware of it until he had passed away. Mr. K. was about 81 years of age, and had resided in Lewisburg the greater part of his long life. For many years he was proprietor of the popular "Kline Hotel," and bore the reputation of being most excellent landlord. About a score of years ago he sold the hotel to R. G. Hetzel, and retired from active business. He will be greatly missed from his home circle and the neighborhood, in which he was highly esteemed for his gentle, unassuming kindness to all.—Lewisburg Chronicle.

BEAVER SPRINGS, Nov. 14, '81.

MR. EDITOR.—Allow me through the columns of your paper to tender my thanks to the many voters of our county who have seen fit to cast their votes to elect me to the office of county Treasurer. In as much as I feel very thankful to those—I do not in the least feel ungrateful or prejudiced to those who for a reasonable cause have not supported me. Let me assure you, friends, that you will find in me a friend who will by all reasonable means try to favor you in time of need. As it is an utter impossibility to know who has or who has not supported me, I can do no more than represent all as their man—and with a view to do the utmost for our future good. Let us lay aside all prejudice, ill-feeling, and the like, if any have been created, and work together as of one mind—doing right in the sight of all men as well as in the sight of Him who doeth all things well. Feeling that I have been the people's choice, and knowing that I can fill the office without inconvenience to myself, I will endeavor to honor our county, to fill the office with honesty, fidelity and credit to all men.

Allow me to subscribe myself to all, Your friend,

A. S. HELFRICH.

BEAVER SPRINGS, Nov. 14, '81.

On Thursday evening, Nov. 11th, our newly elected Treasurer, A. S. Helfrich, was coronated by the Adamsburg Brass Band. After the address made by Mr. Helfrich, which was a short but a very appropriate speech, which he addressed to the citizens of this county, he partook of refreshments and treated prepared by his wife.

A very appropriate name for Market Street, would be "White Street," in acknowledgment of the newly painted houses—all of which are white.

The Adamsburg schools opened on Monday, Oct. 31st, with Adam Smith and A. Ida Hegendorff as teachers, having over one hundred pupils the first day. Prepare for a new school house for next year!

The Liberty Mutual Aid Association for unmarried persons, of Adamsburg, Snyder county, Pa., is doing a thriving business.

They thieves are again making their usual Fall visits to our citizens who have laid up a supply of meat. They should be ashamed to eat of those dead hogs and especially to steal it from a minister of the Gospel. Remember this, you are known! Several such outrages have been committed and the citizens are on a close look out for you.

SECTIONS.—Our citizens were hooked on Saturday afternoon on learning of the suicide of William Wise, merchant tailor of this place. Mr. Wise has been a resident of Sunbury for a number of years, carrying on the tailoring business, and for several years was employed in the tailoring department of Messrs. Whitmer & Forster as cutter. During the last year he left that establishment and commenced business for himself in the Masonic building, above Dr. C. M. Martin's drug store. For some time it was noticed that he was in a melancholy mood, but gave no reasons for his strange actions. He was a quiet and unobtrusive disposition, and on several occasions left home and traveled about for a day or two without leaving his family know of his whereabouts. Last week his wife was called to Harrisburg to attend a sick daughter. During her absence he expressed himself several times as feeling lonely. On Thursday he started to visit her, but did not reach Harrisburg, having wandered about Selinsgrove and Georgetown until Saturday morning, when he arrived in the early train and went to his shop. About 10 o'clock Mr. W. C. Lyons went to the shop and found the door locked. He looked over the transom and saw the deceased lying on the table, and, supposing he was sleeping, he went away. About 2 o'clock he again went to his shop, and found him lying in the same position. Mr. Lyons told some gentlemen that there must be something wrong. They proceeded to the room, and one of the party climbed through the transom and unfastened the door, when they went in and found Mr. Wise cold in death, having shot himself in the head with a small pistol, which was dropped from his hand on the floor. An inquest was held by Equire Parcel, and the jury rendered a verdict of death by his own hands. His remains were then conveyed to his residence on Third street, and were interred in the cemetery at this place on Monday afternoon at 4 o'clock.—Sunbury American.

UNPARALLELED VICTORY OF THE PEOPLE—2,000 R. O. RITY.

We send greeting to our readers today—tidings of great joy. Judge Bucher has been endorsed by the people without distinction of party. The endorsement is most complete, and without a parallel in the annals of political history. He carries every county in the district, Union, Snyder and Millin, by the magnificent majority of almost 2,000 votes. It is not a victory for the Democracy. True he was one of the trusted leaders of the party before his elevation to the bench, but since his first election his judicial garments have been free from political stains. This was manifested by his appointments, as well as by all other official acts. The Republicans appreciated this yesterday. They joined hands with the non-heated Democracy who stood around him like a stone wall and re-elected him. The power of the people is omnipotent. We are glad that a faithful judge has been re-elected in such an unimpaired manner, and we speak for him faithful service in his high office. Let us all rejoice and be glad.

We clip the above from the Lewisburg JOURNAL. It will be seen from the reading that brother Whitman is delighted over the election of Judge Bucher. He is such a strong Democrat that we thought him incapable of giving the Republicans credit for voting for Judge Bucher. We are glad that he has softened his political aspirations and has not the hardihood to claim Judge Bucher's election as a Democratic victory.

We print Whitman's article simply for the purpose of showing how a Democrat talks when he feels good.

A son of W. H. Ripka residing in Middlebrook township was severely bitten in the face and other parts of the body by a dog. The father was also bitten in the arm while taking the dog from his son.

Mr. Isaac Meek, for many years a prominent and highly respected citizen of Liverpool, Perry county, died suddenly in that place, of heart disease, on Friday night the 4th inst., in the 73d year of his age.

We invite the attention of our readers to the advertisement of the Buckeye Mfg Co., Marion, Ohio, in another column. They offer real inducements to earn a honest living.

HOW TO INCREASE YOUR INCOME.

Just at this season of the year there are, among our readers, those looking for employment for the next 6 months. We have lately received from L. E. Brown & Co., of Adamsburg, Pa., a number of specialties for agents to handle, a request to put them in communication with one or more suitable persons in this locality, to act as agents in introducing several of their patent household articles to this community, and after consideration, we take this method to comply with their request. The firm are manufacturers of a large number of household articles, which they introduce to the public by means of agents, having sometimes as many as 1,000 persons in their employ. The particular articles which they seek to introduce here, at this time, are: Brown's Peerless Sifter, generally acknowledged to be the best in the world, of which nearly one million were sold during the last year; the Kitchen Queen, the latest and best invention in Coal Oil Lamps, and the only absolutely safe Lamp made; the Centennial Cuke and Bake Pan, an article which has a national reputation, and is the delight of every housekeeper; the Half Minute Egg Beater, which always sells at sight, and the new Alto Relievo Bronze Profile Cast JAMES A. GARFIELD, with memorial frame the best selling article ever put into the hands of an agent; the best of all the portraits, engravings or steel engravings that have been offered. It is a truer likeness of the martyred hero than any we have ever seen before, and its price brings it within the reach of all. For this purpose, Messrs. Brown & Co. desire as many agents as can work advantageously. Any smart, intelligent lady or gentleman can make a fine income in this way. The firm will send to any responsible person FREE and without cost the best of all the portraits, engravings or steel engravings that have been offered.
