The Post

Middleburg, JAN. 5, 1882.

I. CROUSE Editor & Proprietor.

Altoona is becoming a very prominent business point on the railroad, it requiring two hundred thousand dollars to satisfy the pay roll for November.

Hon. Simon Cameron designs visiting the city of Mexico, where he will remain until the return of mild weather. He is of the opinion that such a change will benefit his health.

The colored juror in the Guiteau case, not accustomed to the highly seasoned food of a first class hotel as regular diet, complains of dyspepsia. If he could exercise behind a dray horse each day and eat ordinary food it would suit his case much better.

Reports come from the south stating that the emissaries from Mormon land are quite active in the mountain and cotton districts where the people are unenlightened and easily persuaded in adopting new views and opinions. Such an evil as this manifest in its development in Utah, should make the law of the ... to indict such ... bers of the ... with as ... the law.

... re ... rank ... e, now ... udies, and ... as to start ... a half century ... start at their ma... at state any person de... education can enter the ... schools regardless of age.

After more than twenty-one years of uninterrupted official relations with the government, Secretary Blaine is now a high private in the ranks. A person so aggressive and demonstrative in his views could not fail in that length of time to stamp his name indelibly upon the history of his country. Private as he is, there is an influence and force that makes him a power behind the throne that may in the near future become greater than the throne itself. Although possessing all the requisite and prominent abilities that command confidence and respect, like Henry Clay and Daniel Webster, it is extremely doubtful whether he can ever attain the position that has animated his mind and impressed upon him the thought that he would officiate as chief executive of this nation.

The ample provisions made for the observance of Christmas throughout the city, were such that no change in the weather even for the worse, could apparently mar the enjoyment. The boys forgot that there was no use for skates or sleds in speaking of the enjoyments and anticipations in ... while the girls could readily forego the pleasure of sleighing parties and social gatherings at other homes and in other localities. From the accounts already reaching us the same ample preparations were made in city, town and country, making the day noted for its social enjoyments and pleasures, even when compared with former anniversary days in observance of the same event, as well as that of the Fourth of July or Thanksgiving. The amount of money expended for Christmas gifts was never more liberal or appropiated to better advantage. Anticipating the increased demand for articles of a permanent character particularly adapted for such a purpose, the toy, fancy and bric-a-brac ... were more extensive, artisans, mechanics and designers having found ample opportunity to test their skill at handy work during the past twelve months.

The State Normal School

of this district, at Bloomsburg, Pa., will begin the winter term on Tuesday, January 3d, 1882. Graduates of this school are in demand. A beautiful location, comfortable rooms, satisfactory board, reasonable terms thorough instruction and a State Diploma are among the attractions. The last class numbered forty-one. The attendance in the Fall was never as large as now. Large additions to apparatus and extensive improvements have been made. Send for a Catalogue.

Teacher's Meeting.

At the late annual session of the teachers' county institute that convened at Middleburg the following resolutions were adopted and received by the teachers:—

Resolved, That since the directors generally do not employ teachers for their intellectual worth, but often simply to fill the schools, even with those who are too often incompetent; therefore,

Resolved, That our county superintendent at the annual examinations of teachers, raise the standard so as to protect the professional teacher.

Resolved, That the county superintendent, in his examinations, exercise vigilence so as positively not to admit to the profession any one who is not morally or intellectually qualified,

Resolved, That the teachers of Snyder county establish a teachers' county convention in Middleburg to meet annually, at nine o'clock A. M. on the last Saturday in April,

Resolved, That each district in the county appoint a secretary to correspond with the secretary of this organization,

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be sent for publication, with the minutes of the county institute.

By the committee.
