Middleburg, FEB. 23, 1882.

J. CROUSE Editor & Proprietor.

Cheek is something which the Mormons are apparently well supplied with. This fact needs no other proof than is afforded by their legislature in passing and forwarding to congress a resolution reciting that there are now pending in the senate and house of representatives of the United States bills having in view the disfranchisement of certain citizens of Utah and the appointment of a commission irresponsible to the people but empowered to control the affairs of the territory, asking congress in the name of the declaration of rights, which cost so much precious blood; the grand provisions of the constitution and the stars and stripes, which have been so often baptized in gore, to pause and reflect and investigate before responding to the wild, unreasoning pressure of public opinion wrought up by misguided and misinformed religious influence, the promoters of which desire to rivet on the limbs of the citizens of Utah territory the chains of slavery, and praying congress not to resort to any extreme measures hurtful in their application, but to appoint a commission of honorable gentlemen to go to Utah to investigate the affairs of that territory, with power to send for persons and papers. Could anything be more refreshing!

Disasters never come singly. Colonel Hyatt's military school at Chester, was totally destroyed by fire Thursday evening, involving a heavy loss. And no Friday Colonel Jackson's pyrotechnic works at the same place, were totally destroyed by an explosion, and fifteen or twenty lives lost. Verily Chester has had her share of calamities inside of two days.

Happy are the members of the legislature. They find themselves five hundred dollars better off than they were, the supreme court having decided in their favor on the salary question. The ruling of the Dauphin county court cutting off the $500 for the extra fifty days is reversed by the supreme court, and the $500 will be allowed.

Bob. Ingersoll is alarmed least somebody shall say he recanted of his infidelity when he shall die, and has instructed his private secretary, who writes short-hand, to put in black and white his dying declarations. It strikes us as though the Colonel is taking unnecessary precaution. No one cares a very great deal what he may mutter in his death-throes.

Recently a child of R. B. Morse, Irvineton, died of scarlet fever, and the funeral cortege had hardly got out of sight of the house ere another died. Since that time a third has died and a fourth is now convalescent from the same disease.

Congressman Fisher, of this district, has been appointed by President Arthur a member of the assay commission, whose work began at the Philadelphia U. S. mint last week.

A prospective bridegroom, on his way to Pittsburg to get married, fell asleep on the cars and was robbed of all his money. He is still single.

At a poultry show at Washington Pa., the smallest fowl weighed several ounces and the largest weighed forty pounds.

Lewisburg has six newspapers now, and there is talk of starting the seventh—a Stalwart Republican organ.

Reading amuses itself by arresting and prosecuting the officers of marriage insurance swindles.

One hundred and twenty three physicians, eight of whom are females, are registered in Erie county.

It cost McKean county $6,459 for the destruction of foxes last year.

Typhoid fever is raging in Pottstown.

LONE JACK, Mo., Sept. 14, 1879
I have been using Hop Bitters, and have received great benefit from them for liver complaint and malarial fever. They are superior to all other medicines.
