

THE POST.

Middleburg Feb. 23, 1882. Local News, &c.

Guest commences on Monday next. An enricher of the blood and purifier of the system...

Venor predicts much snow for March. Prof. Tice has no snow on hand for that month.

I. B. Wunderly has removed his law office from the room lately occupied by the Middleburg M. R. Association...

The Concert by Stetler's Grand Band, was a complete success in all respects.

One voice all over the land goes up from mothers, that says, "My daughters are so feeble and sad with no strength, all out of breath and life at the least exertion..."

Rip Van Winkle. This perhaps the most famous, and one of the most charming sketches which American literature has produced...

Death to rats, mice, roaches and ants; PARASITIC EXTERMINATOR. Burns granaries and households cleared in a single night.

Truth and Sol Oppenheimer are twin brothers—and if you doubt it, go and price his goods.

A big lot of Gum Boots and shoes to be sold at bargain prices.

It will pay every body to examine the immense stock of Furniture for sale by the Popular Furniture man W. H. FELIX Lewistown, Pa.

To those that would like to buy a new machine cheap etc., I say buy the "Sawmill."

We invite the attention of our readers to the advertisement of the Buckeye Mfg Co., Marion, Ohio, in another column.

THE AMERICAN AGRICULTURIST, for March 1st, just issued, contains over a hundred longer and shorter articles, giving useful, practical information for the Farm, Garden and Household.

At the present time when there are so many worthless imitations in the market, it would be well to inquire which is the best—this will be found in M. B. Roberts' Celebrated Embracation...

Miss Jones declares she "will not again accompany Mr. Wilson from church on a rainy day, with her new hat on, unless he first procures one of Sol Oppenheimer's Celebrated Gossamer Umbrellas which are the best, cheapest, handiest umbrellas now manufactured."

A lady who went West last week wrote back to a friend, saying "she lost all her fine clothes just because she had purchased a worthless trunk which would not stand the knocks."

Gods to lowest prices. Goods to lowest prices. Goods to lowest prices.
