The Post

Middleburg, March 16, 1882.

J. CROUSE Editor & Proprietor.

Mormonism has cropped out in Maine, where the Latter Day Saints have established a third church, having three new preachers.

Congress appears inclined to do nothing but pass the appropriation bills. Which is as if a man should conclude to do nothing but spend money.—Press.

A man in Utica won a bet by drinking two quarts of whisky. He might have won another wager by betting that his feat would kill him, as that is what it did.

It is said that both Sherman and Hancock are earnestly in favor of having young men in the army, and of retiring company officers at forty, field officers at fifty-five, and general officers at sixty-five.

It is understood that the Governor under no pretext whatever will call an extra session of the Legislature. He is a sensible man. There is no need of an extra session for any purpose

The Washington monument, in Washington City, is one hundred feet higher than it was in August, 1880. It is believed that during the present year the whole height reached will be 286 feet.

Hon. Benj. S. Bentley died at Williamsport on the 6th instant., after a brief illness. He was formerly president judge of the Twenty ninth Judicial district, and later judge of the Lackawanna district. He was seventy-three years old.

Nearly $10,000,000 of the national debt was extinguished in February, a sum almost equal to the extraordinary rate of reduction that has prevailed recently, but over $2,000,000 short of the reduction reported for February, 1881.

Chairman Barnum, of the National Democratic Committee, having lost interest in politics, as his friends say, is interested in an invention by which crude petroleum is used for making steel, two barrels being sufficent to work a ton of metal. The test is said to have been satisfactory.

One of the provisions of the Anti-Polygamy bill passed by the Senate is that any man living in a State or Territory within the United States who is found cohabiting with more than one woman shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor. The penalty is fixed at $300 fine, or imprisonment for six months or both. The bill farther provides that no polygamist or bigamist shall have the right to vote in any election, or to hold office under the Government, even if he be elected.

Business over the country is booming, manufactories are crowded with orders, railroads are taxed to their utmost to convey freight, money is plenty, real estate is advancing, State and municipal treasuries are filling up—what a contrast with the deplorable condition of things a few years ago. The careful man will now provide for the future, when the evil days shall come, but the thoughtless young man will spend that which he has and let future take care of itself.

Joseph Pancoast, M, D., Professor of Anatomy in Jefferson Medical College, died Mrach 7th, at his residence, in Philadelphia, of pneumonia, in the seventy-seventh year of his age. Dr. Pancoast was one of the most eminent of American surgeons, and although the greater part of the work which distinguished him belonged to a past generation, he was up to the time of his retirement from the profession regarded as one of the best authorities in this country upon all anatomical and surgical questions.

The Mormons are begging lustily to be let alone. Their prayer will be granted on one condition, namely that they abjure polygamy. Though they wish to magnify the movement against this peculiar tenet into a religious persecution, it is no such thing. The crusade is not against Mormonism as a religion but against an abominable practice sanctioned by that religion. The fiat has gone forth that polygamy must and shall be abolished within the limits of the United States. The Mormons must bow to the will of the nation or take the consequences. It is useless to

....Milton continues to improve rapidly.

....The smallpox is receeding from Pittsburg and Johnstown.

....Franklin has a colored baby with red hair and blue eyes.

....A company in Harrisburg will insure children against disease.

....John Lyons, of Mifflintown, shot nine foxes during this month.

....The Erie car works consumed nine million feet of lumber last year.

....John Lippard, of Chester, has become insane since the fire in that locality.

....Ladies in Ashland chew and smoke, and the boys there use more tobacco than do men.

....A witness who failed to appear in the Erie county court last week was fined $20 and costs.

....The Cambria iron worke company has decided to erect a hospital for the use of its employes.

....A proposition for a new county to be formed out of Cambria, Clearfield and Indiana counties is being agitated.

....John Thompson, a drover was met by highwaymen on the road leading to Smethport, last Thursday, and robbed of $700.

....An ewe belonging to James Cochran, of Salem township, Westmoreland county, recently dropped four well developed lambs.

....The mangled body of Lawrence Gillespie, who disappeared from Erie in November last, was found in the lake at that place on Monday.

....Peter Hoffman, of Centre county, killed for other people, during the past winter, seven hundred hogs, slaughtering as many as twenty in one day.

....The West Chester Local News says that in 1851 Henry Scott purchased a tract of land along the Pennsylvania railroad for $1,050. He disposed of it on Thursday last to Charles Paist for $15,000.

....Ephraim Harding, a stone-cutter, married four wives in seven years, one of whom he buried in Ohio, a second one died in Pittsburg, a third became insane in Philadelphia and died, and the fourth died of fright produced by the recent fire at Chester.

....An unknown man was found dead lying on the track of the Reading Railroad, a short distance below Valley Forge, on Saturday last. It is supposed he was struck by a freight train. His body was terribly mangled.

....Guiteau is receiving some very curious presents in the shape of ropes, miniature coffins, small models of a gallows, and other things of a similar character, by which people all over the country are grimly expressing their sentiments to the assassin.

....The smallest steam fire engine in the world has just been completed in Reading. Its weight when fully equipped for duty is 2,700 pounds. A preliminary trial showed that in 4½ minutes 20 pounds of steam were raised, and 218 feet of solid stream and 241 feet of spray were thrown through an inch and an eighth nozzle.

....The will of Charles Albert Reed, lately deceased, of Newtown, Mass., gives $50,000 to the Treasurer of the United States, to be applied to the reduction of the war debt. To the attending physician of the testator $5000 is given on condition expressed as follows: "That my head is severed from my body, as I have a great horror of being buried alive."

... The great walking match in New York came to an end on Saturday last, the score being: Hazael 600 miles and 1 lap; Fitzgerald 577 m, and 1 l.; Noremac 555 m.; Hart 542 m. and 2 l.; Hughes 535 m.; Sullivan 525 m. Total receipts $46,000, $30,000 of which to be divided among the walkers, the rate of division being 50, 20, 12, 8, 6, and 4 per cent, respectively according to score.

....Accounts from Berlin state that emigration to this country is certain to be larger than ever before. The people are not getting to like Bismarck better as he grows older.

....The President on Monday nominated Charles Ewers, of Michigan, to be Consul at Windsor, Ontario, and with-drew the nomination of James F. Swords, of the District of Columbia, to be Consul at Cadiz.

....The treasury department is informed by telegraph of an unsuccessful attempt at smuggling a large quantity of opium, upward of a ton, on the steamship City of Tokio, through the port of San Francisco, and when the offenders were arrested they offered to give the whole quantity of opium and the sum of $10,000 in addition to be released.

The senate of Virginia does honor to be progressive feelings when she appropriates $100,000 of the state funds to establish a normal school within he limits for the education of colored children. This is, indeed, a step in the right direction, showing that the law favors giving every legal advantage to the colored man and his family in a state that was among the most exacting of the slave, and drew the color line in social, political and religious life. So long as the constitution makes the negro a citizen and he is increasing in numbers throughout the states late in rebellion more rapidly than the white, is it not the heighth of wisdom for this element to be educated and made an influence for good rather than grow up in ignorance and serve only as a dead weight, retarding the wheels of progress and fostering a strength that will injure if not benefit? The south, if it grows in political, commercial and social power, must not antagenize the colored population. It is not expected that certain intimacies will exist, such as unite families in blood and society; but a unity that keeps the two races in active accord so far as that relation aids both. God has set certain marks that separate races and individuals, and no law is just that would erase such marks. Let the white element of the south in other states show a like disposition and inclination to elevate the black man, and events will develope that will advance every distincitive measure calculated to place that highly favored section where its productive resources can be made available.

At the nobles' school in Tokio Japan, is a physical map of that country 300 or 400 feet long, in the court behind the school building. This map, or model, is made of turf and rock, and is bordered with pebbles, which look at a little distance so much like water. Every inlet, river, and mountain is reproduced in this model with a fidelity to detail which is simply wonderful. Latitude and longitude are indicated by telegraph wires, and tablets show the position of the cities. Ingenious devices are employed in illustrating botanical studies also. For example, the pine is illustrated by a picture showing the cone, leaf, and dissected flower, set in a frame which shows the bark and longitudinal and transverse sections of the wood.

The Sub Committee of the Ways and Means Committee have agreed upon a measure repealing most of the minor internal taxes and greatly reducing the tax on spirits and tobacco. It seems to be conceded that a reduction in our revenue receipts should be made somewhere, and certainly it can be made nowhere else more easily that in our internal taxes. The relief felt there will be immediate and real, and no home industries imperiled by the change.

What queer rivalries there are in our "best society!" Vanderbilt puts up a $1,000,000 house, and, according to report, "Bonanza" Mackey determines to outdo him under his very nose. Vanderbilt hears of Mackey's bold, bad design, and resolves to build more house for more money and discourage the Bonanza King before he enters the contest. This beats the walking match.

It is useless to deny that the brightest and fairest fall easy victims to consumption, and equally fruitless to ignore the fact that decline has its origin in many cases in neglected catarrh. Sanford's Radical Cure is a pure, sweet balsamic specific. March.

A Smooth Complexion.

Can be had by every lady who will use Parker's Ginger Tonic. Regulating the internal organs and purifying the blood it quickly removes pimples and gives a healthy bloom to the cheek. Read about it in other column.

SAMARITAN NERVINE

SAMARITAN NERVINE

Cures Epileptic Fits, Spasms, Convulsions, St. Vitus Dance, Virtigo, Hysterics, Insanity, Apoplexy, Paralysis, Rheumatism, Neuralgia, and all Nervous Diseases. This infallible remedy will positively eradicate every species of Nervous Derangement and drive them away from whence they com, never to return again. It utterly destroys the germs of disease by neutralizing the hereditary taint or poison in the system, and thoroughly eradicates the disease, and utterly destroys the cause.

SAMARITAN NERVINE

Cures Female Weakness, General Debility, Leucorrhœa or Whites, Painful Menstruation Ulceration of the Uterus Internal Heat, Gravel, Inflammation of the Bladder, Irritability of the Bladder. For Wakefulness at Night, there is no better remedy. During the change of life no Female should be without it. It quiets the Nervous System and gives rest, comfort and nature's sweet sleep.

SAMARITAN NERVINE

Cures Alcoholism, Drunkenness and the habit of Opium Eating. These degrading habits are by far the worst evils that have ever befallen suffering humanity. Thousands die annually from these noxious drugs. The drunkard dies a liquor not because he likes it, but for the pleasure of drinking and treating his friends, little thinking that he is on his road to ruin. Like the Opium Eater, he first uses the drug in small quantities as a hermless antidote. The soothing influence of the drug takes strong hold upon its victim, leading him on to his own destruction. The habits of Opium Eating and Liquor Drinking are precisely what eating is to alimentiveness, as overeating first inflames the stomach, which reduces its cravings until it paralyzes both the stomach and appetite. So every drink of liquor or dose of opium, instead of satisfying only adds to its ferocious fires, until it consumes the vital force and then itself. Like the glutinous tape-worm, it cries "Give, give, give!" but never enough until its own capacity devours itself. Samaritan Nervine gives instant relief in all such cases. It produces sleep, quiets the nerves, builds up the nervous system, and restores body and mind to a healthy condition.

SAMARITAN NERVINE

Cures Nervous Dyspepsia, Palpitation of the Heart, Asthma, Bronchitis, Scrofula, Syphilis, all cases of the Kidneys and all diseases of the urinary organs. Nervous debility, caused by the indiscretions of youth, permanently cured by the use of this invaluable remedy. To you, young, middle-aged and old men, who are covering your sufferings as with a mantle by all means look up, you can be saved by timely efforts, and make ornaments to society, and jewels in the crown of your Maker. If you will, do not keep this a secret longer, call it what you will, and destroys both body and soul. If you are thus afflicted, take in Nervine or Samaritan Nervine. It will restore your shattered nerves arrest premature decay, impart tone and energy to the whole System.

SAMARITAN NERVINE

Is for sale by druggists everywhere, or may be had direct from us. Those who wish to obtain further evidence of the curative properties of Samaritan Nervine will please enclose a 3-cent postage stamp for a copy of our Illustrated Journal of Health, giving hundreds of testimonials of cure from persons who have used the medicine, and also their pictures photographed after their restoration to perfect health.
