Sergt. Mason's Severe Sentence.
The finding of the court-martial in the case of Sergeant Mason, who shot at Guiteau last September, has been made public by an order issued by General Hancock from the Headquarters of the Department of the East, at Governor's Island. The court finds him guilty and pronounces sentence as follows: "To be dishonorably discharged from the service of the United States, with the loss of all pay and allowances now or to become due to him, and then to be confined at hard labor in such penitentiary as the proper authority may direct for eight years."

The Harrisburg Telegraph says it cannot be disguised that there is a growing sentiment against capital punishment, that it does not answer the end for which it is maintained the decrease of murder, and that Pennsylvania is an example of this. It is said that the counsel of Sergeant Mason will raise the point that there was a fatal error in the Court-martial proceedings which will vitiate the whole trial. The error claimed is that the Court and Judge Advocate were sworn before the prisoner was brought into Court.

It is hard to suit some people. When Conkling's name was mentioned for a supreme court judge, it was made a pretext for a general assault all along the line. Arthur and the ex-senator receiving exceedingly rough treatment. Now, when the office is declined, with thanks, the same spirit keeps at work, and Mr. Conkling is abused for not accepting.

This State will have no vacancy in the U. S.
