ST. MILL	What is His Creed ?

He lefta ond of anthrasite In front of a poor widow's door When the deepenow, frozen and white, Wrapped street and square, mountain ad moor.

That was his deed : He did it well ; "What was his crosd ?" I cannot tell.

Blessed "in his basket and his store. In sitting down and rising up ; When more he got, he gave the mor Withholding not the crust and cup.

He took the lead In each good task. "What was his creed ?" I did not ask.

His charity was like the snow, Boft white and silent in its fall ; Not like the noisy winds that blow From shivering trees the leaves-s pall

For flower and mead, Dropping below, "What was his creed ?" The poor may know.

He had great faith in loaves of bread For hungry people young and old, And hope inspired, kind words he

To those he sheltered from the cold. For we must feed As well as pray. "What was his creed ?" I cannot may.

In works he did not put his trust. His faith in words he never writ : He loved to share his cup and crust With all mankind who needed it. In time of need A friend was he. What was his creed ?" He told not ine.

He put his trust in Heaven, and he Worked well with hand and head ; And what he gave in charity Sweetened his sleep and daily bread Let us take heed, For life is brief. "What was his creed ?" "What his belief ?"
