A CARD.

To my Republican friends throughout the country. I thank you for the high compliment you have paid me in making me a Congressional candidate. If upon my candidacy depended success, no personal consideration would stand in the way, but I respectfully decline to be a candidate first, because my professional and private business demand all my time and attention; second, I cannot at this time in this large and uncertain district assume the responsibility of such a contest as will, undoubtedly, be waged this fall. If in the future my services are required I shall endeavor to meet the wishes of my friends.

The experience of past contests in this district—the brilliant record of the present incumbent—the popularity he has won by his manly conduct toward, and untiring efforts in behalf of, his constituency—the almost assured success in case of his candidacy—to shut out the possibility of a Democratic congressman—point unmistakably to Horatio G. Fisher as the candidate, who should lead in the coming battle. I can only say: I have full faith in confidence in the ability, integrity and orthodoxy of our own, Snyder county, candidates, but their inexperience in handling large forces in a hand-to-hand conflict may bring us a disastrous defeat at a time when it is most important that a strong man, a pure, upright statesman should represent us in the halls of Congress.

Believe me sincerely your Republican brother and fellow citizen,

A. M. SMITH.

Guiteau is out with another card, in which he denounces his relatives in numerous terms. "All they all died," he says, "Twenty-five years ago, it would have been a calamity to me." He charges Mr. Scoville with a desire to get control of his (Guiteau's) boot, and says he has already paid Mr. Scoville $275—"which is more than his alleged services are worth." Guiteau claims that his case might have had the benefit of great legal ability if Mr. Scoville had not intercepted letters from lawyers tendering their service, "and thereby elbow'd competent counsel off the case."

While the smallpox has been gradually disappearing from the East and has gone from some points altogether, in some portions of the West it is increasing. In these places it is worse than during the cold months of winter. It is attributed very naturally to weak laws on the subject of prevention, and much alarm has been caused by it.

Guiteau maintains that his residence is in Washington. This is a very safe statement for the gentleman to make. His residence will also remain in Washington until his spirit takes its flight to the great beyond. This latter event will take place, it should be remembered, on the 30th of June.

Preston Gowers, a housepainter of Emporia, Pa., in a drunken frenzy went to the house of Clarence Landley his brother-in-law, and deliberately shot and killed him. Gowers then returned to his own house, cut his wife's throat, nearly severing her head from the body, and then shot himself.

A singular and at the same time terrible accident occurred recently at St. Louis, when a young boy fell from the top of a fence and was impaled upon one of the pickets, which caught under his chin and protruded from his mouth.

President Lincoln's remains, buried at Springfield, Ill., have become completely petrified, his form an every feature being preserved.

A whole settlement at Drew Mills, in Louisiana, consisting of twenty buildings, has been swept away by a flood.

A census table shows that of the population of New York city 198,533 were born in Ireland and 163,463 in Germany.

Three horse thieves were captured near Kirbyville, Mo., and hanged to trees.

Twenty-nine horses were burned to death in a fire in New York.

ANSWER TO MR. MILLER'S CARD.

Two terms, for good reason, was the rule and usage of the party. Six years ago—after I had represented the people of Snyder in the House of Representatives, at Harrisburg, for one term—Mr. Miller and some of his friends made the ONE TERM the issue, and believing him to be sincere, I yielded and was not a candidate. I believed the ONE TERM RULE was to be adopted in good faith, and knowing, too, that there are many men in the county equally and perhaps better qualified to represent the people in the halls of legislation than, either myself, or Mr. Miller, I readily yielded, and turned in and supported Mr. Miller to the best of my energies and ability. At the expiration of his first term, Mr. Miller had forgotten the ONE TERM RULE: disregarded his promises to the people, and especially to gentlemen who were mentioned as candidates for Legislative honors, and totally disregarding what seemed to be the wishes of the party, again presented his claims and was elected to a SECOND TERM. (I desire to say here, that if the names of these gentlemen are requested by Mr. Miller, I will furnish them.)

At February term of Court I had a conversation with Mr. Miller in which I asked him if he was a candidate for the THIRD TERM, at the same time stating, that, if he was, I might not be. He then and there gave me to understand that HE WOULD NOT BE A CANDIDATE. I then said to him, "in order that there may be no misunderstanding, if you should change your mind until next day, you will let me know" to which he replied "that he would not be at court the next day, but the day after at which we would see me—he came to court, but did not come to see me, and thus left me under the impression that he was not a candidate and thereupon announced myself a candidate. In our conversation Mr. Miller admitted that I should have, according to the usages of the party, a second term, if the party is willing to elect me. I have here stated the pure, simple unvarnished truth.

FARMERS LOOK TO YOUR INTERESTS,

and buy your Machinery at

Riehl's Implement Store,
SELINGROVE, PA.

I am offering the largest stock of Farm Machinery ever offered in this county, amongst which are the celebrated which every farmer knows is the most substantial machine before the farming public. Remember there is a good reason why there are over 300 Champions in the county—there is a reason why we sold more Champions last year than all others combined—is there a reason why we got three car-loads of Champions in Snyder county this year—when farmers buy Champions they need not be afraid of not getting repairs at any time—other agents who come around with new machines will tell you there is nothing in that, but don't believe it, for they want to sell and advertise words you must look out for repairs elsewhere. The Champion Company have in use thousands of Reapers & Mowers and have complete repair machinery ample to supply the demand. I also offer the well known

Champion Reapers & Mowers

EMPIRE THRESHER & SEPARATOR,
Hagerstown Clover Huller, Farmers Friend and Monarch Grain Drills, with or without Fertilizers. CULTIVATORS, CORN-PLANTERS, PLOWS, CORN-SHELLERS and anything farmers want and attachments to all machines. I will sell to farmers on any time almost they may desire, except Cropplanters and Repairs for the Champion Reaper are strictly cash. Call and give me a trial.
