"Mamma, is the old hen going to be sent away for the summer?" "No, Charlie, but why do you ask?" "Well, I heard papa tell the new governess that they would have a fine time when he sent the old hen away for the summer." Mamma put little Charlie to bed, after giving him a dose of Sines' Tar, Wild Cherry and Hoarhound for his cold, telling him he would be well in the morning; and then she laid for papa—and only for his having a bottle of Roberts' Embrocation in the house, might have been a cripple for life.

One of the printers on this paper came home the other day and reported that he had visited Oppenheimer's Grand Clothing Depot, in Selinsgrove, and being asked what he saw, said: "I saw a stack of TRUNKS as big as a haystack, embracing every conceivable style, price, size and quality from the tiny satchel to one big enough to put in Barnum's Jumbo elephant. "I saw such a pile of Ready Made Clothing—piled up on the counters, on the shelves, in every corner, in the cellar and on the garret—enough for a complete outfit for every male inhabitant—big and little—in two counties—and when I say complete I mean under-shirts, outside shirts, collars, ties, stockings, gloves, hat or cap, vest, (White or Black) inside coat, over-coat, and a variety of other articles too numerous to mention." Crouds of people were going in and out just like a big show. Pleased—yes every body went away pleased, and Sol. the cleverest man in this or any other world was pleased too.

Davis' Great Western Show!

Will exhibit at MIDDLEBURG, WEDNESDAY MAY 3d, afternoon and evening. We are assured that the proprietor, W. H. Davis, has spared neither time nor money in securing the best Artists in America, and has succeeded in securing the most proficient Gymnasts, Acrobats, Contortionists, Tumblers, Trapeze performers from out of the front ranks of the profession.

Not the least entertaining, amusing and attractive feature of this Grand Exhibition of human skill and endurance is, four Clowns in the ring, at one time—comprising men of intelligence and a full supply of original wit and humor.

The Rexford Brothers; Riches—James and Annie; The Wilson Family; C. H. Sweeney; Prof. Geo. D. Andrews; Miss Pearl Robnet are the same master performers, who delighted and astonished the people of the West last summer and the season previous carried away the people of the Pacific States.

THE STUDY OF WORDS. By Richard Chenevix Trench. Complete in two parts, with full index of words, price 30 cents. J. Fitzgerald & Co., Publishers, 143 4th Avenue, New York.

This well-known and standard work needs no commendation. It is a book that everybody needs—indeed it is about as indispensable as a good dictionary for every one who would use his mother tongue understandingly. For the benefit of those who may be unacquainted with French's valuable treatise, we may add that it is in no sense a "school-book," but rather a series of charming discourses upon the Poetry in Words, the Morality in Words, the Rise of New Words, the Distinction of Words—in short upon every phase of this most attractive study. For sale by A. K. GIFT.

PETERSON'S MAGAZINE, for May, is received: as bright and welcome as May itself. The principal steel engraving, "Comin' Thro' The Rye," is especially beautiful, and illustrates a capital story by Frank Lee Benedict.

The illustrations for fashions, embroideries, and fancy work generally, are as numerous and new in style as ever. There are two colored patterns, a specialty with "Peterson," no other giving these patterns. We do not see how any lady, or even family, can do without this invaluable monthly. The price is but two dollars a year. Address, PETERSON'S MAGAZINE, 306 Chestnut Street, Philadelphia, Pa.
