A Snyder County-Buckeye Pic Nic.

We clip the following from the FREEBURG COURIER of the 10th from the pen of Ed. Berry, dated at Brittain, Summit Co., Ohio.

On the 26th of July the writer with his wife and daughter had the pleasure of forming a part of a number of Pennsylvanians — more particularly Snyder county people—who held a picnic at Turkey Foot Lake, or Reservoir, on the farm of Elias Thornton, a son of David Thornton, formerly of Chapman township, Snyder Co. We met quite a number of former Snyder county folks, who you will well remember: Levi S. Herrold, wife and daughter Martha, who came here 17 years ago; Joseph Sieber, wife and son George, who have been here a long time; John Benner and wife, formerly a Miss Sieber, also from your county; Mrs. Daniel Swartz, who came to Akron in '65, Mrs. Carrie Markle, daughter of Mr. Daniel Swartz, Henry Moatz, wife and children; John Moatz and family; Fred. Glass, the popular restaurantor, who came in '65, was there in all his glory; Miss Ellen C. Moatz, daughter of George Moatz, formerly of Middleburg, and William Moatz, wife and children. We also met here Henry Knettz, who came here from Chapman township about 38 years ago who is farming near the Lake. In the afternoon, Kate, wife of Dr. Charles Reichenbach and son, also made their appearance, she was a Miss Arbogast and left Freeburg in 1854, now resides at Adaline, Ogle county, Illinois. The heavy man of the day was H. H. Mauberbach, proprietor of the "Eagle Hotel," Philadelphia, who is well known to some of your citizens and his wife, who are on a visit to relatives and friends and seems to enjoy it. What I mean by the heavy man is Mr. M. and Henry Moatz put in part of the time fishing and their heft capsized the boat, and both men, at least, had a good cleaning. Mr. Moatz was then led out into Mr. Thornton's oats field which was converted into a trotting park for him to exercise in until his "fixings" were again dried—Henry showed good speed and will make a good trotter in time with careful training.

Among the amusement of the day was boat riding and I noticed that Miss Herrold, Miss Moatz and our mutual friend Fred. Glass seemed to enjoy it. There were swings for the children and the older ones. The most exciting scene was a horse shoe pitching contest between the writer and Mr. J. Mauderbach—Snyder county vs. Lancaster county for the championship of counties, which was easily won by Snyder county, I, as referee and umpire. Folks all well. Rain sets in all. Weather very hot, with consolable rain.

Richfield Item.

Dr. J. M. Wallis has remodeled, repainted, repapered, frescoed and otherwise improved his brick residence so as to insure comfort and convenience. The grounds round about have been scalped and laid out in fine walks Gentle hands have planted delicate flowers of rarest beauty, and everything bespeaks happiness, comfort, good cheer, culture and refinement. But, by the way, it often transpires that when peace and prosperity sway their scepters—at the moment of supreme happiness, disaster comes. We are not able, however, to say whether it was a young conflagration or a bear fight—but, Captain O'Rourke's Hook and Ladder company, of Philadelphia, went to the Doctor's house, one night last week, threw up their ladders, dashed open the shutters, threw up the windows and let in a Flood to extinguish the fire, kill the bear, quell the riot, or whatever the matter may have been—gentle Mary cried, oh! Dearie what's all this rampus about—ghosts, I'm sure—See! see!! flitting about the Wall(s) girls, like apparitions, with snow white robes —The house is haunted sure!

* * * * *

The night air being chilly the apparitions, after diligent search for bed clothing, retired, and the Heskies "laid down on their arms."

That shapes these monstrous apparitions."

Some sixty join in the reading of the Scripture and Singing—Inviting the friends of education to call and see. A proper training of young Men and Ladies.

PETERSON'S MAGAZINE, for September, opens with a charming steel-engraving, from a picture in the last Paris SALON; which is followed by a beautiful double-size, colored steel fashion-plate; and this by nearly fifty wood-engravings, including a colored pattern for a "Tidy on Java Canvas." The stories of the number more than maintain the high merit of this well-known and popular monthly. No other lady's book combines so many qualities, and has such sustained merit in every department. The price is but two dollars a year. Certainly, everybody ought to take this magazine. Address, CHAS. J. PETERSON, 306 Chestnut Street, Philadelphia, Pa.

CURE FOR SUNSTROKE.—As soon as you reach your patient take hold of him or her and carry or drag him to the shade. Place the body in a sitting posture, the back against a wall, with the feet and legs resting upon the side walk and extended in front of the body. Get ice water and also a bottle of strong essence of ginger. Pour the ice water over the head copiously—do not mind the clothes. Then put two or three tablespoonfuls of ginger in about half tumbler of water and make the patient swallow it quickly. Keep the head cool by using a little of the ice water, and in case there is not much of a glow upon the body give more ginger. If this recipe is used promptly and fully carried out there never will be a case of death to report from this cause.
