PICTORIAL ILLUSTRATIONS.—"The usefulness of pictures in a general way is seen by comparing the keenness of observation, the general intelligence, the accuracy of knowledge exhibited by children brought up in the midst of an abundance of wholesome illustrated literature, with the comparative dullness of vision and narrowness of information shown by those who have not been so privileged." The foregoing, which we take from the "Canada School Journal," truthfully applies to the 3000 Illustrations in Webster's Unabridged Dictionary, in which more than 340 words and terms are illustrated and defined under the following twelve words: BEEF, BOILER, CASTLE, COLUMN, EYE, HORSE, MOLDINGS, PHRENOLOGY, RAVELIN, SHIPS, STEAM ENGINE, TIMBERS, as may be seen by examining the Dictionary.

That no person shall be entitled to vote at said election unless his name shall be registered in accordance with the provisions of the act of Assembly of this Commonwealth, approved the 30th day of June, A. D. 1874, and the supplements thereto, nor unless he shall produce a receipt for the payment of all taxes assessed against him, which he may have had an opportunity to pay according to law, at least two years before the election, and within two years a receipt for the payment of all taxes assessed against him, which he may have had an opportunity to pay according to law, at least one year before the election, unless he shall be exempted by law from the payment of taxes, or unless he shall be the son of a person who would be entitled to vote except for age, and who shall produce the receipt of his father for the taxes assessed against the father, or unless he shall be entitled to vote by reason of the provisions of the act of April 7, 1874, relating to persons in the military service of the United States.

That no person shall be entitled to vote at said election who is not a citizen of the United States, and who has not resided in the State one year, (or if having previously been a qualified voter or elector of the State, he shall have removed therefrom and returned, then six months) immediately preceding the election, and who has not resided in the election district where he shall offer to vote at least two months immediately preceding the election.

That no person shall be entitled to vote at said election who has been convicted of bribery at any election, or who has directly or indirectly paid, given or promised to pay or give money or any reward to procure the vote of any elector at any election, or who has made a bet upon the result of any election, or who is under guardianship, or who is in jail or prison at the time of the election.

That no person shall be entitled to vote at said election who has not paid a State tax within two years, which may have been assessed at least two months before the election.

That no person in the military, naval or marine service of the United States shall be deemed to have gained a residence in this State by reason of being stationed therein.

That no person in the actual service of the United States, or of this State, shall be deemed to have acquired a residence in this State by reason of being employed in the service of the United States, or of this State, or of any city or county of this State.

That no person shall be entitled to vote at said election who is not a white freeman.

That no person shall be entitled to vote at said election who has been convicted of any infamous crime, the ninth section of which I refer to as follows:

That no person who shall hereafter be convicted of any infamous crime, shall be entitled to the privilege of an elector, nor unless restored by the pardoning power to the rights of citizenship.

And I do further declare that the act of Assembly so provides that only white freemen shall be entitled to vote at the general or special election of this Commonwealth, and that no person shall be entitled to vote at any general or special election unless his name appears on the list of voters of the district in which he offers to vote, prepared at the last preceding election, and unless he has resided in the district where he offers to vote at least two months next before the election, except that when any citizen of the United States removes into any district more than two months next before the election, he may vote in the district from which he removed, if entitled to vote therein, and that no person shall be entitled to vote at any general or special election in this Commonwealth, unless duly registered, and that the registry of voters in the several districts shall be closed at least two days before every general and special election, and that no names shall be added to the list of voters by the assessors after the day on which they make their return to the prothonotary's office, except those of persons who shall have become of age, or obtained naturalization after the day on which the assessors made their return, and who would have been entitled to vote if they had been of age or naturalized when the assessors were last in the district, and except those of persons who have removed into the district, and except those of persons who have died since the assessors were last in the district.

And I do further declare that the act of Assembly so provides that no person shall be entitled to vote at said election who has not been duly assessed, if an assessment has been required by law, and duly registered according to the provisions of the first section of the act of Assembly of the 30th day of June, 1874, entitled "An act to provide for the registry of the names of electors in the several districts of this Commonwealth," and the supplements to the act providing for the registry of the names of electors in this Commonwealth, and that no person shall be entitled to vote at any general or special election in this Commonwealth.

The said above recited enactments and acts are recited and objected by the assessors, register of voters, election officers, and others, that the rights and privileges guaranteed thereby may be secured to all the citizens of this Commonwealth entitled to the same.

By the 15th section of the act of Assembly of January 30, 1874, it is enacted that as soon as the polls shall close, the officer of election shall proceed to count all the votes cast for each office voted for, and to take a full return of the same in triplicate, with a return sheet in addition, in all of which the votes received by each candidate shall be given after the name, and figures and words be written, and shall then deposit the said ballots and keep the same to answer the call of any court or tribunal authorized to try the merits of an election.

Given under my hand, at my office in Middleburg, this 29th day of September, A. D. 1882, and in the one hundred and seventh year of the independence of the United States of America.
