Henry Shuman and family have gone to Iowa. Harry is a wholesouled gentleman and we wish him many warm friends in his new home. He is a gentleman of integrity and good business qualfications.

We have recived from Wm. Flint & Co., 623 Sansom St., Philadelphia, a copy of The Trial of Guiteau, the Assassin, beautifully bound, superbly illustrated, printed on fine paper in clear, large type. This work is sold by subscription, and should find its way into every family in the lands.

Adamsburg can boast of a number of very fine, substantial residences. Reuben Dreese, I. I. Manbeck and Thomas Keller are about putting the finishing touches on three as beautiful residences as are to be found in the county.

Henry Mechtly has about completed a very fine and substantial dwelling house on High street. Other improvements are making all over the town.

The emigrant, tourist, or traveler bound for the productive mines and fertile prairies of the Great Southwest is unanimous in selecting the via Chicago. Implicit confidence is placed in the Kansas City pioneer line, composed of the C. B. & Q. and old Reliable Hannibal and St. Joseph Railroads. Through fast trains are run by this Line and the equipment is unsurpassed.

That Docket.

Since about 1869 William Mann, of Philadelphia, has furnished Dockets for Snyder county. The bills latterly were made out in the name of the County Commissioners. In 1877 he sent a bill for No. 4 Judgment Docket, Justice docket $8. and two dockets for Register & Recorder's office amounting to about $40. I had ordered a Justice Docket and it was included in this bill—the bill went into the Commissioner's office and was examined, or should have been, passed and paid. At this time I was advertising Mann's card and in payment received blotters paper and envelopes and the Commissioners took to the amount of the $8, and therefore did not charge me with the docket.

But suppose that this bill went into the Com's office and their clerk neglected to charge me, is not the blame his? I am not able to state why this was discovered at this time or how—more than five years have elapsed since this matter transpired.

Even if it was neglected by myself or the Commissioner's clerk it is not such official mismanagement, neglect or want of capacity as to condemn either.

Then again I have, through an oversight, neglected to charge the county One Hundred and Sixteen Dollars for the transmission of Presidential election returns to the secretary of the Commonwealth, and when I called their attention to the oversight, and after they had satisfied themselves, or some of them, that the law allowed it and that it was not charged One of the Commissioners consented it should be paid, two of them said they would not pay but plead the statute of limitation—it is barred by the statute of limitation and cannot recover by legal process.

PERSONAL.

Miss Ella Moatz, of Huntsville, Alabama, is visiting Middleburg relatives.

Miss Anna Hartman, of Centreville, spent Sunday in this place.

Luther A. Mertz, of Vicksburg, Union Co., Sundayed here.

Miss Hattie Rauch, of Selinsgrove visited her parents at this place a few days ago.

A Good Offer.

SIX LECTURES ON LIGHT. By Prof, John Tyndall. (Illustrated.) Price 15 cents. J. Fitzgerald & Co., Publishers, 30 Lafayette Place, New York.

As a popular expositor of science, Professor Tyndall holds the very first place, and the work named above is admittedly his masterprice. A subject of no little difficulty and abstruseness is here treated by him in a style which for clearness of expression and grace of diction challenges the admiration of all lovers of "English undefiled." The work forms a valuable addition to the excellent series of popular scientific books known as the Humboldt Library of Science. For sale by A. K. GIFT.

The remarkable improvements begun in the October American Agriculturist are continued in the November number—New Cover, New Type, New Engravings, New Artists, and additions to the Editorial force—making the November number of this Journal, now in its forty-third year, far superior to any previous issues. The Cover page is unquestionably the handsomest Cover which ever appeared on an American periodical. (Hereafter there is to be a New Cover for each month, appropriate to the season.) There is an unusually large number of Original Engraving in this issue of the paper. The Frontispiece comprises a number of designs combined in one, and entitled "Thanksgiving is coming." A second full page Illustration represents a magnificent Retriever Dog, carrying a rabbit in its mouth. Among the articles are the following: Permanent Meadows; Giving Medicine to Animals; Wheat Ruined by Rain; Potato Experiments; Bee Matters; Tree Planter; Markets and Crops; Plants and Flowers, Treatment of the Grape-vine, etc., The Household and Youths' Departments are full of valuable reading matter, and neat and instructive engravings.

Executive Department.
Office of the Governor.
Harrisburg, Pa., Sept. 19, 1872.

Jeremiah Crouse, Esq., Prothonotary Com. Pleas, Snyder county, Middleburg, Pa.

My Dear Sir:—As Clerk of the Court of Oyer and Terminer, Snyder county, you transmitted to this Department the Record by which it appears that the Writ of Error in Commonwealth vs. Uriah Moyer was non prossed, by a certificate bearing date 12th May 1882. It seems to have been received here in due course of mail. By some inadvertance the date of another letter from a party in the same case, dated 7th August, 1882, has been attributed to your letter of transmittal. There is no connection between the two letters.

In answer to an inquiry as to the reasons of the delay in issuing the "death warrants," in this case, I can only say, that is a matter depending entirely upon my own discretion; and in no way to be controlled by any interference by the District Attorney of your county, or other judicial officer. As a matter of fact, however, I may say, that I await the action of the Board of Pardons, in the application of Israel Erb; when the issue of that case is determined, a final disposition will be made of the judgments in both cases.

Very truly yours,
HENRY M. HOYT.

Executive Department,
Commonwealth of Pennsylvania
Office of the Governor
Harrisburg, Sept. 19, 1882.

To Whom it may Concerne:—I hereby certify that the final records in the case of Uriah Moyer were transmitted to this office in the month of May last.

Centreville, Oct. 10, '82.

J. Crouse,

Esteemed Friend: I unhesitatingly pronounce the statements respecting us, contained in Lumbard's Tribune of October 5, infamously false—a senseless, harmless lie.

Peter Hartman.

Beaver Springs, Oct. 10, '82.

Friend J. Crouse,

Unsolicited, I would say to the public that Lumbard's statement, regarding us, contained in his paper of October, 5th, is a deliberate lie.

Shamokin Dam Oct. 9, '82.

Jere Crouse,

I request that you say to the people of Snyder county that Lumbard's article in his paper of 5th, October so far as it relates to us is wilfully and maliciously false.

George W. Row

Jere Crouse,

We desire, through a sense of justice to say, that for more than a score of years we have been warm personal friends—that your friendship was always worth having—that we have always found you fair, firm, honest, truthful and just.
