The celebrated author, in this admirable Essay, clearly demonstrates, from a thirty years' successful practice, that the alarming consequences of self-abuse may be radically cured; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain, and effectual, by means of which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, privately, and radically.

SIFTED THEM OUT

Winnowing the Wheat from the Tares —A Problem easily Simplified.

"My friend," said the druggist, "you have a same lark, you say, and want a plaster to put on it. Once I could have shown a large assortment to choose from. Now I keep only a few and sell most of BENSON'S CAPCINE POROUS PLASTER. Why? Because they are the best. I have Allcock's, the Capcinum and some others. They are harmless and slow. Business is business, and I gradually ceased to deal in them to any great extent."

"All right, do me up a Capcine, without any more talk, for my back aches as though I had to go working my passage in a baggage car."

"Here you are," said the druggist, "With the wonderful CAPCINE cut in the middle of the middle of the plaster, proving it to be genuine."

"And here's your twenty-five cents," said the lame backed man, walking slowly away.

An Only Daughter Cured of Consumption

When death was hourly expected, all remedies having failed, and Dr. H. James was experimenting with the herbs of California, he accidentally made a preparation which cured his only child of CONSUMPTION. His child is now in the pink of health, and delights in telling all who call, that she owes her present existence to the wonderful power of this Remedy.
