

THE VIRGINIA ELECTION.

The Democratic party is still victorious at the South. The election that has just taken place in Virginia, shows that the influence which has defeated that party in every Free State holding a general election since the passage of the Nebraska bill, does not extend South of Mason & Dixon's line.

man and Cameron were nominated by trickery, but could not be belated, and if by any means a man like Fillmore, for instance, should be nominated for President, the nomination would be similarly received by the people.

McCreary was given up to the officers at Fort Leavenworth, where he now remains of his own free will. He had been at large the kidnappers of Phillips might have had a hot time of it.

ATLANTIC CONSPIRACY. LETTER FROM GEORGE S. PARK, EDITOR OF THE PARKVILLE LUMINARY. The following letter printed in The St. Louis Democrat of the 10th, was briefly alluded to in a despatch published in The Tribune of Saturday morning.

St. Louis, Thursday, May 10, 1855. Believing D. R. Atchison, a dangerous man, The Luminary steadily opposed his reelection to the United States Senate, and supported Col. Benton.

How small a party exercise so much control I cannot conceive. A half a dozen members of the secret association act in concert all over the country get up the meetings, pass just such resolutions as the leaders want, the impression goes abroad that all the world and the rest of mankind are moving in one way.

THE LEAVENWORTH MANSLAUGHTER. From The Chicago Tribune, May 22. We are permitted to publish the following private letter from C. C. McKee, Esq., the man who shot Malcolm Clark a few weeks since at Fort Leavenworth, Kansas Territory.

TERRIFIC TORNADO.

Three persons killed—A house carried up in the air. Never before has it been our duty to record so awful a calamity as that to which we now sit down to write.

ANOTHER OUTRAGE IN KANSAS.

A Citizen Edgemoor—The truth of the McCrea affair. What is needed in Kansas. Correspondence of the N. Y. Tribune.

SECRET POLITICAL ORGANIZATION.

We slip the following Telegraphic item from the Pennsylvania. BALTIMORE, May 10.—The second public meeting of the Catholic Provincial Council was held this morning.

THE DUTY OF TRUE MEN.

The events of the thirteenth of March have clearly revealed to the minds of men less hopeful, that there is, when called into service, enough of moral energy, patriotism, and humanity in the hearts of the voters of New Hampshire, to redress her from political despotism and degradation.

THE DUTY OF TRUE MEN.

The events of the thirteenth of March have clearly revealed to the minds of men less hopeful, that there is, when called into service, enough of moral energy, patriotism, and humanity in the hearts of the voters of New Hampshire, to redress her from political despotism and degradation.

HON. A. H. STEPHENS OF GEORGIA ON KNOW-NOTHINGS.

Mr. A. H. Stephens of Georgia has written a characteristic letter on the Know-Notthings. Mr. Stephens declines to join or represent the Order, and has withdrawn from the canvass as Representative to Congress.

THE DUTY OF TRUE MEN.

The events of the thirteenth of March have clearly revealed to the minds of men less hopeful, that there is, when called into service, enough of moral energy, patriotism, and humanity in the hearts of the voters of New Hampshire, to redress her from political despotism and degradation.