NOON AND MORNING. BY R. H. STODARD. There are gains for all our losses. There are gains for all our losses. There are gains for all our losses.

EVENINGS WITH THE JESUITS. Robert Seymour, in his late interesting volume under the above title, shows the aggressive policy of the Church of Rome and its corrupting tendencies.

FASHION IN OLD TIMES. The following story, related by a mother to her children, a few years since, will show the spirit that existed among the people of New England at the trying period to which it relates.

Late in the afternoon of one of the last days in May, '79, when I was a few months short of fifteen years old, notice came to Townsend, Mass., where my father used to live, that fifteen soldiers were wanted.

The training band was instantly called out, and my brother next older than myself, was made first sergeant. He did not return till late at night, when all were in bed. When I rose in the morning, I found my mother in tears, who informed me that brother John was to march the day after tomorrow, at sunrise.

But we can't spin and weave in so short a time. I am certain we can, mother. How can you weave it? There is a long web of linen in the loom.

John A. Collier Riding Round the Town. Hardly a man in the State is wider known as an inveterate wag and joker than John A. Collier. His reputation as a logical reasoner and sound lawyer is not so extensive than his fame as a humorist and piquant narrator of comical events.

John A. Collier Riding Round the Town. Hardly a man in the State is wider known as an inveterate wag and joker than John A. Collier. His reputation as a logical reasoner and sound lawyer is not so extensive than his fame as a humorist and piquant narrator of comical events.

But we are in a fair way to make our vestibule larger than our house. Our purpose was simply to tell an anecdote, in which the laugh is rather against Mr. Collier. He was in town yesterday with his family, and wishing to take an airing, called a carriage driven by a Patlander of the densest and most literal kind.

AYER'S PILLS.

A NEW and singularly successful remedy for the cure of all Bilious Diseases—Constipation, Indigestion, Jaundice, Dropsy, Rheumatism, Fevers, Headache, Neuralgia, Irritability, Inflammation, Dropsy, Catarrhs of the Lungs, Throat, Liver, Pleura, Kidneys and Spleen, Dyspepsia, (Indigestion), Liver, Complaint, Rheumatism, Sciatica, Eruptions, Spinal Complaints, Diseases of the Eye and Ear, and various Weaknesses, &c. &c. Particular attention given to the Diseases of Females and Children. The various affections of the Urinary system.

Dr. Harris is well acquainted with both Homoeopathy and Allopathy, having been in constant study and practice for the last twenty years, and having first introduced Homoeopathy into England in N. Y., in 1847. His plan of treatment is mild, safe and efficacious, and differs from that of any other physician, and cures nearly all cases in all stages of the disease.

Advantages. The advantages of the Homoeopathic treatment of diseases are: 1. That patients treated Homoeopathically, usually are cured much sooner than by any other method. 2. That many patients can be cured by Homoeopathic remedies, who cannot be cured by any other treatment.
