☞ The transit of Slave property thro' the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, has been made the subject of majority and minority reports in the Legislature. The majority of the Judiciary Committee held to the view that the right of transit is secured to the Slaveholder, by the law of nations and the Federal Constitution. The minority, consisting of three members, among whom is Hon. E. Joy Morris, do not yield assent to this reasoning of the majority, but hold that Slavery is exclusively a local institution—not recognized by the law of nature, the common law, or the civil law. They cite abundant authorities, to show that Slavery is not only against the law of Nations, but also against the laws of Pennsylvania. The minority report is remarkably strong and able. The Legislature has as yet taken no action in the matter.

REMOVAL.

M. S. Wilson has removed his Stock of Goods into his new Store (in the Brick Block) at the foot of Public Avenue where the Mercantile business will be continued under the Firm of M. S. Wilson & Son. Additions to their present Stock will be continually made and particular attention given to keep up a general assortment—especially in the Hardware line.

One Word More.

I want to remind those indebted to me, that I lost considerable by the Fire a year ago, and that I have been under the necessity of rebuilding a Store House and consequently must urge payment—hoping all will attend to it without further notice.

Montrose, Dec. 19, 1855. M. S. WILSON.

LOOK HERE!

IT is an old and true saying that "short credits make long friends." In view of that fact, we would call the attention of those indebted to us, as we wish to have our matters arranged to the satisfaction of all concerned. So, gentlemen, please call and settle old accounts, and open new ones, if you wish. We want our pay in order to do justice to those we owe. Now, gentlemen, don't forget us, for we shan't you. WOODRUFF & ELDRED.

WAR! War with Great Britain!

THE Central American question is not yet settled, but GUTTENBERG, ROSENBAUM & CO. are finally settled in their new store in the East end of the New Brick Block, where soldiers who intend to enlist for the war can be supplied with regimentals and all sorts of Clothing, and those who desire to take their wives with them, can also be supplied with the best of materials for ladies' wear, from a Stocking up to a Bonnet, either in soldier or citizen style.

Knowing the citizens of Susquehanna county to be brave and patriotic, we are sure they intend to be prepared for the coming struggle, and therefore advise them to call on us and examine our extensive stock, which we are assured we can sell as low as any other firm this side of New York city.

Our stock, which we have very lately purchased and with great care selected, comprises a full assortment of such as Shawls, from $1 up to $30; Dress Goods from a 10 cent Calico Dress to a $6 Silk; Ladies' Cloaks, Embroideries of all descriptions; and those who happen to live in a very cold climate we can supply with a good suit of Furs to keep them warm.

LADIES' WEAR,

GENTLEMEN'S WEAR.

To gentlemen who do not want to be troubled with getting up new suits of clothes, we would say that we have a very full assortment of Ready-made Clothing, of all descriptions and prices, and in case we should not have the article they want, we will take their orders and supply them on very short notice.

BOYS' CLOTHING.

We have also a very good assortment of Children's Clothing, from an infant up to a young man, which cannot be surpassed for tastefulness, as well as for quality and cheapness.

We have also a regular assortment of Gentlemen's Furnishing Goods, such as Fine Shirts, Collars, Under Garments, Silk Neck and Pocket Handkerchiefs, Stocks, and a great many other articles too numerous to mention.

In addition to all these, we keep a full stock of Staple and Domestic Goods, such as Sheetings of all qualities and prices, Flannels, Tickings, Ginghams, and a great variety of other articles which are usually needed in families.

We are very sure that those who are in want of any of the articles mentioned, would do well to call and price our goods, and satisfy themselves how much they can save by buying of us.

Thankful for past favors while at our old stand, we invite our friends and the public generally to call on us at our new and more commodious establishment, where we are always ready to wait on them with all possible attention.

AT HOME AGAIN.

Perseverance has triumphed over every obstacle.

NOTWITHSTANDING a destructive fire, an extensive loss, and a ten months sickness, has completed his New Brick Store, (built upon the same ground occupied by his former Store, that was consumed by fire, and in the New Brick Block,) into which he has removed his stock of Goods, where he will with pleasure wait upon patrons. An entirely new and extensive assortment of Goods will soon be added to the present stock. The patronage of the public is solicited, with the assurance that the interest of purchasers will be promoted.

Abel Turrell

Montrose, January 23, 1856.

ATTENTION AT HOME!

THE undersigned would respectfully inform the citizens Dimock and vicinity, that he has opened a store at Dimock four corners, where he intends keeping constantly on hand a good and well selected assortment of Dry Goods, Groceries, Hardware, Crockery, and all kinds of merchandise, usually kept in a country store, which he will sell as low, if not lower, than any other establishment in Northern Pennsylvania, Montrose not excepted. Gentlemen and Ladies give me a call, and examine my stock of goods and my prices. You will save some miles travel and perhaps from ten to fifteen cents on every dollar you pay out. A good assortment of Ready Made Clothing kept constantly on hand.

All kinds of Country produce taken in exchange for Goods at the market price.

WM. H. THAYER.

RHYMES FOR THE TIMES.

ONCE more a bright new year,
With its blessings and its cheer,
We have gladly welcomed here.

Now, as your plans you fix,
And as earnestly you mix
In the scenes of fifty six—

Pray give yourselves the pleasure,
At your earliest hour of leisure,
Of securing such a treasure,

As Deans, the "Man of Faces,"
With a sunlight pencil traces!
And to suit your fancy, places
In his neatly finished cases!

Defer not till to-morrow!
Wait not for seam and furrow
Which come with age and sorrow;

But go let the artist take you,
Ere youth's warm glow forsake you,
And a copy true he'll make you.

The place where this can be done to perfection
(No doubt you have been there before)
Is (I'm sure you cannot mistake the direction)
At Old Fellow's Hall, second floor.

BOOT AND SHOE EMPORIUM OF C. M. SIMMONS.

THE subscriber has removed his Boot and Shoe Store into the building recently occupied by Messrs. Bentley & Read, Public Avenue, first above the Post-office, where, notwithstanding the mixed state of politics, the stringency of the money market, the "Nough Smthing," Rail Road Monopolies, Jack-O-Lantern Inducements, and the great Humbug, as one extreme follows another, in all human probability, we shall have a cold winter. In view of this state of things the subscriber begs leave to say that he is prepared to meet the wants of the Boot and Shoe wearing public, with good and substantial varieties of Boots and Shoes of Eastern or Home Manufacture, warranted equal (if not better) than any offered in this market. His stock embraces a general variety of Ladies SILK LASTING, Pat. Fox Heel Gaiters, Silk Lasting Congress Gaiters, French Kid Congress Gaiters, Morocco Gaiters, Ladies Marshall Ties, City Made Bronzed Buskins, Enam'ld Buskins, Kid Buskins, Pat. Leather Buskins, Morocco Lace Boots, Calf Lace Boots, Enam'd Boots, Fur Bound Buskins &c., Misses Silk Lacing Pat. fox Gaiters, Colore Gaiters, Calf Lace Boots, Kid Lace Boots, Jenny Linds Kip Shoes, Childrens Gaiters, Button Shoes, Ankle Ties, Pat. Vamp French Buskins, Calf and Kip Shoes, Men's French Calf, Kip and Stoga Boots, Calf Enam'd, Kip and Cowhide Brogans, Youth's Boots, Thick and Kip, and Pat. Leather Shoes, &c.

Rubbers and Sandals, a general assortment, Findings, Sparables, Thread, Wax, Steel Nails, Pegs, Tacks, Bristles, Heel Ball, Boot Webb, Hammers, Pincers, Shoe Knives, Edge Blacking, Goat and Galoon Binding, Water Proof Blacking, Paste Blacking, Gum Arabic, Gum Tragacanth, Edge Brushes, Awl Hafts, Pegging and Sewing Awl Blades, &c.

LEATHER.

All kinds by the side or pound, to suit customers. The public are invited to call before purchasing elsewhere. Customers may rely upon getting what they bargain for, and that is better than they can do in "some places." If they buy Eastern work, they can be accomodated with as good an article as can be found in this market. If they prefer home manufacture they can have it without being humbugged. All kinds of work made to order and warranted. Repairing done on short notice.

THANKFUL for past favors, he hopes by strict attention to business, to merit a continuance of the same. C. M. SIMMONS.

P. S. It is now over a year since the great Fire in Montrose, at which time the subscriber having met with a great loss, in fact he lost his all, he would say to those indebted to him, either by Note or Book account, that the same must be settled without further notice. Yours, &c., C. M. SIMMONS.

WATCH AND CLOCK MAKING BUSINESS.

BENTLEY & READ with pleasure inform their friends and the public that they have again commenced the repairing of Watches, Clocks, and Jewelry, by

MR. HIGGINBOTHAM,

of New York, and late of Syracuse; and so highly has he been recommended by some of the first Houses there as a steady and first rate workman, that we have given him a personal interest in the business, so that our friends may have every confidence in having their work done with care and despatch.

In addition to his general knowledge of the various kinds of English and foreign watches, he also understands the Clock business, from the largest Turret to the
