Scatter ye Scads

Bentter ye seeds, and flowers will spring ; Strew them at broadcast o'er hill and glen ; Sow in your garden, and time will bring Bright flowers, with seeds to scatter again. Scatter ye seeds-nor think them lost,

Though they fall amid leaves, and are buried in Boring will awaken them, though heedlessly tossed, And to besutiful flowers those seeds will give friend, as follows : birth.

catter ye seeds; tire not but toil; 'Tis the work of life-'tis the labor of man ! In the head, in the heart, and on the earth's own

Sow, gather, and sow, through life's short span.

Scatter ye seeds, in the fields of mind-Seeds of flowers, with the seeds of grain; In the spring and summer sweet garlanda ye'll find, And in autumn ye'll reap rich fruits for your pain.

Scatter ye seeds in the gardon of heart. Seeds of affection, of truth, and of love : Cultivate carefully cach hidden part, And thy flowers will be seen by angels above. | cowid penetrated the bones of the animal

Scatter ye seeds-the seeds of hope : Plant in your bosoms the tree of life-Then the flowers here budding in Heaven shall ope, And in Heaven will ripen the fruit of your suite.

Then scatter ye seeds each passing year : Sow amid winds and storms of rain ;

In 1848, Mr. Seward was elected almost unanimously, by the legislature of New York, the Post Office system on several points. to the Senate of the United States, in place of John A. Dix, whose term expired on the shird of March. 1849. In the Presidential canvass of the first mentioned year, Mr. Seward gave Gen. Taylor a hearty and enthusi- towns and cities. astic support, and from their meeting in Washington till the death of the latter, they were firm and cordial friends. In 1854/Mr. Seward was re-elected to the United States Senate for aix years from the fourth of March.

At the present time Mr. Seward is generally regarded as the most prominent leader of the new Republican party. Some of that party arge his nomination for the Presideney, but it is generally thought by the more discerning, that the nomination will fall in some other direction. Saturday- Evening Post
