FARM FOR SALE. THE subscriber offers for sale his valuable Farm, L being a part of the Farm well known as the "Thomson Farm," in the township of Great Bend, Susquehanna county, Pa., containing about 230 acres of first rate land, about 100 acres in valuable timber, mostly oak, with a suitable quantity of chestnut for fencing, and the remainder in a high state of cultivation-is well watered by a small stream through the centre and also by durable springs. The buildings are mostly in good repair, with cattle and hay barns and other necessary out-buildings. The Farm is well fenced and suitaby adapted to grain or graizing, but its present condition is mostly in first rate grass, with an abundant quantity of excellent meadow, and is considered one of the best stock Farms in the State. The timber land is equally adapted to cultivation, and the great demand for wood and timber, and its proximity to market, make t highly valuable. The location of said Farm, with its fertility of soil and state of cultivation, combine every desirable advantage for convenience and profit not equaled in the country, being pleasantly situated in the productive Valley of the Susquehanna, directly at the junction of the Delaware, Lackawanna & Western Railroad with the New York & Erie Railrond, having two di-On the question, with the New York & Erie Railroad, having two di-Will the House agree to the second amendment? rect facilities to New York by said lines and also The yeas and nays were taken, and were as fol.
