Mas. FREMORY. This lade it is not neces. sary to inform our readers, is the daughter of Colonel Benton, of Missouri, and is one of the tiest educated and most assumplished of American women. The Boston Chronicle relates the following anecdotes concerning her: White Colonel Frement was making his arrangements on our western frontier, for that exploring tour in which he broke his road the day of June, 1856, surrounded by his into the valley of the Sacramento, his young friends, "the Keystone Club." Like most wife in Washington, according to his request, opened all letters addressed to him there, and forwarded such as she deemed it important for him to see. Among the rest she opened a government dispatch countermanding his tour, the fruit, perhaps, of jeniousy in a 'superior official station. A most loving wife, us she had proved herself to be, must have been under strong temptation to forward Irish parents; he was born in the county of that; but, happily for the world, she took the responsibility of keeping it, and neither her hisband nor any one else except the poor Tite Barnacle who sent it, knew anything of the matter till Col. Fremont returned, having gloriously effected the objects of the expedi-

Once more: during the protracted struggle which resulted in the election of Mr. Banks to the Speakership, there happened to be fellow passengers in a crowded car between Washington and Baltimore, a Bostonian, as remarkable as any other in this city for his subscryiency to the slaveholders, and a lady, admired beyond most others in Washington society for the brilliancy of her wit and intelligent interest which she takes in public affairs. The conversation, of which she was the centre, turning on the great contest in the House, she expressed her decided sympathy for the Republican side, exulted in its prosdemocratic blood. A SLIGHT Mis-DEAL .- A young lawyer in the interior was the hero, a few evenings not help to originate, the philanthropic idea since of an amusing mistake, and as it is not of compelling the weaker Southern nations worth while to spoil a story, especially a good one, "for relations' sake," we purpose to give it, though the hero was a staungh Republican. "Never until now have I been free from this heath-ome disease in some shape. At times it attacked my eyes, and made me almost himi, besides the unendurable pain; at others it settled in the scalp of my head, and destroyed my har, and has kept me partly baid all my days; sometimes it came out in my fage, and kept it for months a raw sore.

"About nine weeks ago I commenced taking your Cathartic Fills, and now an entirely free from the complaint. My eyes are well, my skin is fair, and my hair has commenced a healthy growth; all of which makes me feel already a now persen.

Cart. JOEL PRATT, of the ship Marion, writes from Boston, 20th April, 1854;

"Your Fills have cured me from a bilious attack which arose from derangement of the Liver, which had become very serious. I had failed of any relief by my Physician, and from every remedy I could try; but a few doses of your Fills have completely restored me to health. I have given them to my children for worms, with the best effects. They were promptly cured. I recommended them to a friend for contineness, which had troubled him for months; he told me in a few days they had cured him. You make the best medicine in the world; and I am free to say so."
