EMPIRE, Ill., July 10, 1858. Never since the banners were fling to the breeze in 1840 for Harrison, have I seen such excitement and enthusiasm as prevails now in favor of Fremont and Free Kansas. The thems of every man you meet from morning illegal enactments affecting the price of paper till night is politics; and so farens I have and tea, it is right now to resist those which heard, full three fourths of the Sons of Illinois are on the side of freedom. You dught to hear them talk of the nianner in which the Chicago boys were served by the "Jaw-abi clergyman may not discuss in the pulpit-any ding Missourians." The other day i had a public measure unconnected with moral good rather hot argument with a Douglasite. He or evil, which involves no question of obedistuck to his text first rate, and insisted that the Free State men were most in the wrong ; but when I read him from the "Press" the account of the disarming and sending back of provement of rivers and harbors, or the tarthe Illinois Volunteers, he fired in a moment and began to wish all sorts of infernal scorch. (though circumstances might easily arise ings on the heads of the "border ruffians," hold of this, too,) or the naturalization laws, and wound up by saying he would give five or a thousand other issues which spring up, dollars for a vote for Fremont and Free baving no connection with religion or the Kansas.

I think there is no mistake but that the North West will set Fremont along toward the White House in such a style as to con- with sin where he finds it, in high places or vince the "Sodom-Apples" that we fully ap- in low; not, as many seem now a days to suppreciate their noble qualities.

I hope he will have a good time, and if successful, may "Jeems" give him an office proportioned to his size.

Harvesting has now fairly begun: the wheat crop will be rather light, also the grass, owing to the drought. Corn looks fair.

POLITICAL PREACHING, is what? The principles they preached were, in their tendency, at the time and amid the circumstances under which they were promulgated, revolutionary. We do not say this in irreverence but use the word as describing the effect of the doctrines, for they went on, overturning and overturning, until the Roman Empire and its Pantheism went down before them. The preschers who made their fiery and soul-stirring appeals to the colonists in 76, to rise up against op-pression, and, trusting in God to balance all odds of numbers and arms, beat it down with their own right bands, are lauded as patriots, and almost reverenced as inspired incn. TONICS WON'T DO.

THEY never did do more than give temporary reliet, and they never will. It is because they don't touch the cause of the disease. The cause of all ague and bilious diseases is the atmospheric poion called Miasma or Malaria. Neutralize this polson by its NATURAL ANTIDOTE, and all disease caused by it disappears at once. Bhode's Fever and Ague Cure is this Antidote to Malaria, and moreover it is a perfectly harmless medicine. The certificate of the elebrated chemist, J. R. Chilton, of New York, to this effect, is attached to every bottle: therefore if it does no good it can do no haim. This is more than can be said of Quinine, Arsenie, r any tonic in existence, as their use is ruinous to the constitution and brings on Dumb Ague, which never allows a person to feel perfectly well for a single moment. In illustration of these truths I annex some extracts just received from a physician: * CEORGETOWN, Ohio, March 17, 1856. JAS. A. RHODES, Fsq.-Dear sir: Yours of 2d

This remedy (known as "Smith's Tonic") would is variably BREAK an ague, but it did not cone it, as it would often return with renewed vigor. This one circumstance I deemed in your favor, if I could institute a test comparison between it and your Cure .-The following is the result : Three persons took your "Cure," all of which were cases of "Quinine Intermittent Fever" of many weeks standing. They had wied Quinine and other emedies, occasionally missing a chill, but it was (as n all such cases) slowly wearing them out and laying he foundation of other and severer maladies. I did ucceed in effecting a radical cure of all three of hese cases with vour remedy, and they have not had chill since. In all three of these cases the "Smith" Conic" had been used, and would, as before stated reak the chill, but after a period or two had clapsed

CATHARTIC PILLS

OPERATE by their powerful influence on the internal viscera to purify the blood and stimulate it into healthy action. They remove the obstructions of the stomach, bowels, liver, and other organs of the body, and, by restoring their irregular organs of the body, and, by restoring their irregular action to health, correct, wherever they exist, such derangements as are the first causes of disease. An extensive trial of their virtues, by Professors, Physicians, and Patients, has shown cures of dangerous diseases almost beyond belief, were they not substantiated by persons of such exalted position and character as to forbid the suspicion of untruth. Their certificates are published in my American Almanac, which the Agents below named are pleased to furnish free to all inquiring.

Annexed we give Directions for their use in the complaints which they have been found to cure For Costiveness.—Take one or two Pills, or such quantity as to gently move the bowels. Costiveness is frequently the aggravating cause of tiveness is frequently the aggravating cause of Prizs, and the cure of one complaint is the cure of both. No person can feel well while under a costive habit of body. Hence it should be, as it can be, promptly relieved.

FOR DYSPERSIA, which is sometimes the cause of Costireness, and always uncomfortable, take mile doses—from one to four—to stimulate the stomach and liver into healthy action. They will do it, and the heartburn, bodyburn, and soulburn of dyspepsia will rapidly disappear. When it has gone, don't or Morbid Inaction of the reneral depression of the ake from four to eight Pills spirits and bl at first, and st

For Nervousness, Sick Headache, Nausea, Pain in the Stomach, Back, or Side, take from four to eight pills on going to bed. If they do not operate sufficiently, take more the next day until they do. These complaints will be swept out from the system. Don't wear these and their kindred disorders because your stomach is foul.
FOR SCHOPULA, ERYSIPPLAS, and all Diseases For Schofula, Envirelas, and all Diseases of the Skin, take the Pills freely and frequently, to keep the bowels open. The cruptions will generally soon begin to diminish and disappear. Many dreadful ulcers and sores have been healed up by the purging and purifying effect of these Pills, and some disgusting diseases which seemed to saturate the whole system have completely yielded to their influence, leaving the sufferer in perfect health. Patients! your duty to society forbids that you slivuld parade yourself around the world covered with pimples, blotches, ulcers, sores, and all or any of the unclean diseases of the skin, because your system wants cleansing.

To PURIFY THE BLOOD, they are the best medicine ever discovered.
