The New York Tribune contains the following sensible advice, to which we call the attention of our Republican friends:

We offer to our Republican friends a few suggestions as to getting up and conducting their campaign meetings. Unless some method and forecast be observed, one half the meetings may be failures.

1. Do not engage too many speakers.— Two good, reliable ones, fixed and secured for the occasion, with a contingent reserve of local aid, are quite enough for any one meeting. meraries should be engaged. 2. Secure your speakers first, and let them fix the time; otherwise you will involve them in confusion and yourselves in disappoint-

3. If your speakers are from abroad, see that provision is made for compensation, at least expenses. Remember, it is a sacrifice to leave family, home, business, and travel night and day, and pay fare and hotel bills. "Thou shall not muzzle the ox that treadeth out the corn." Remember, there are many of you, and you sacrifice for one meeting. Your speakers are in the daily sacrifice of time, business, lungs and constitution.

4. If your gatherings are too large for indoors, then select a grove or woods. Alis covered with boards-not canvas. It saves the speakers' voices and helps the audience to hear. Let your covering-boards project three or four feet beyond the platform on which the speaker stands; then you will be sure to protect his voice. This arrangement of immense moment to the speaker.

5. If possible, in every gathering arrange for some good, soul-stirring GLEE Songs .-Let your Glee Clubs be made up of male and female singers. Take care that the songs such as have sour in them.

6. Never fail of inviting your wives, daughters and sisters. Their presence and refining influence are everywhere being felt in our man's heart to its center.

7. Don't waste too much money on bauners, powder and processions, but rather save, it for documents and papers.

8. Don't fritter away half your day or evening in preliminaries, as to who shall be chairman, committee, &c. Remember nine o'clock comes very soon after dark. Get right to work, else your audience will tire before you begin.

These hints—especially that relating to engaging speakers and preparing the speakers' stand—will be of incalculable advantage.— We ask our brethren of the press to insert, if they agree with us in these suggestions, or, in the other case, offer better.

Reports from our speaker in the field assure us that meetings were never so large and enthusiastic as in the present campaign. The feeling in behalf of Free Speech, Free the brim and two through the body of the great influence among his countrymen, the parallel.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES. The House proceeded to act on the various amendments reported from the Councittee of the Whole on the state of the Union to the Army Appropriation Bill.

Mr. Campbell, of Ohio, said he should teel constrained to separate from those with whom he usually acted, in the vote on the amendments of Messrs. Barbour and Sherman, with reference to Kansas. They were introduced in violation of the rules and usages of the House. It was the duty of the Committee on the Judiciary or the Territories, at an early period of the sesson, to introduce measures proposing some proper remedy for the difficulties in Kansas. There are now 7,000 men employed in the defence of the Pacific coast, meeting danger in every form, yet, gentlemen propose substantially to withhold supplies from the army, because, in 1854, a legislative mistake was made. Why was not such a proviso as that on which the House is now about to vote, attached to the Deficiency Bill, which contained the appropriation for the supplies of members? Way postpone it till near the close of the session?-He wished it distinctly understook that he would go as far as those who would go for that, for fair and legitimate legistation relative to Kansas, but he would not edisent to the accomplishment of the object in the indirect manner proposed.

Mr. Giddings explained why did not move a similar restriction to Designey Bill.

It would not have been germain to attach it to a measure providing for the period members of Congress. But the Hopewas now providing for the support of the Army, which the President was using to prethrow the Constitution. The amendment which Mr. Drawn for the Term of Court commencing Campbell complained of was designed to preserve the constitution and rights of the people against Executive usurpation. colleague aid the President to overahrow the liberties of the country?

A Voice—" A good hit." Mr. Campbell replied to Mr. Giddings, that he (Mr. G.) knew well that appropriations for the Army were in the Deficiency Bill. He understood that some similar provisions were to be attached to the other appropriation bills, the effect of which would defeat them. He was unwilling to take the re- Ilis., Houston, Jewett, Jones of Tenn., Jones, sponsibility of withholding supplies from the of Penna. Mr. Campbell expressed his belief that the laws of Kansas were founded in fraud, and if the Committee on the Judiciary were to bring Americans, and Whigs, are purposing to in a bill for their repeal he would vote for unite on a county ticket. The Whig county tions corruptly in the spirit of usurption, he at from 5000 to 6000, should not be willing to embarrass the General Appropriation bills.

The House, by a vote of yeas 91, nays 80, concurred in the amendment offered yesterday by Mr. Sherman, providing that no parts of the military force of the United States shall be employed to aid in the enforcement of the alleged laws of the Legislative 'Assembly of Kansas, convened at the Shawnee Mission, until Congress shall declare whether those laws were passed by a Legislature chosen in conformity with the organic law, and until Congress shall so declare, it shall be the duty of the President to use the military forces to preserve the peace and suppress insurrection, repel invasion and protect the persons and property of the citizens of the territory, and on the highways of Missouri and elsewhere. against unlawful seizure and search, and that the President shall disarm the present militia, recall all the United States arms in their Fremont and Dayton. Crawford gave Pierce possession, and prevent armed men from going into the territory to disturb the public peace, or to enforce real or pretended laws. The following is the vote on the amend-
