THE HON G. A. GROW.

Will address the people of Susquehanna County, at Montrose, on Tuesday evening August 10th, on "the Political Questions of rics. the Day."

Mr. Grow will come home worn down with the many and arduous duties that have devolved upon him and that he has so fearlessly and ably met during the present Ses. sion, but with spirit unconquered and unconquerable for the battle of Freedom. We know that his constituents are proud of their Representative, of the high position he has won in Congress, and of his unfaltering devotion to the cause of Freedom, and that the strong hands and warm hearts of the people are eager to welcome him. They need no urging to come and hear him.

We are requested to call public attention to a Musical Concert to be given in the Academy Hall, on Thursday evening, the 21st instant, by Madame Bouchelle and other emiment talent from New York, for the benefit Saint Paul's Episcopal Church, now being erected in this place.

We promise a rare treat to all who may be present.

From the enthusiasm with which all who have heard Mr. Landon, speak of his powers as an orator, we anticipate a very large attendance of the people of the County. Arrangements are making to accommodate the audience, however large it may be. Seats will be provided for the ladies. "Come one.

We ask those who are owing us to pay up during August Court, when great part of the citizens of the County will be in Montrose. ~

THE REPUBLICAN can be ordered at any time, for the balance of the campaign, at the rate of 12 1-2 cents a month. Will not our friends make up a large club for the Cam. paign, in every Township?

It is a singular evidence of the honesty of the supporters of the Hon. Cincinnati Platform, (late James Buchanan,) that scarcely one of their papers has ever published the Republican platform, but most of them publish instead the sayings of Garrison and other, radical abolitionists who declare themselves in favor of Buchanan's election-which sayings they present to their readers as "the Republican platform." They are also shy about publishing their own platform, and generally present detached portions of it, such as they think will best suit particular localities. They are evidently afraid to have the honest rank and file compare the platforms of the two parties, lest they should prefer Fremont and Freedom to Buchanan and Border Ruffianism. It rests with the friends of freedom to extend the light of the FREE PRESS among the people, that the truth may be known.
