

The Independent Republican.

C. F. READ & H. H. FRAZIER, EDITORS.

MONTROSE PA. Thursday, November 13, 1856.

REPUBLICAN TICKET FOR 1860.

FOR PRESIDENT, JOHN CHARLES FREMONT. FOR VICE PRESIDENT, WILLIAM L. DAYTON.

Republican Candidates for 1860.

The friends of freedom throughout the country are in excellent spirits over the glorious victories they have achieved in New-England, the Empire State, and the Free West. Jefferson, Jackson, and Harrison, were defeated at first, but afterwards triumphantly elected, as we expect Fremont will be in 1860.

Our candidates have come forth unscathed from the fiery ordeal to which they have been subjected, and in accordance with the feeling that seems generally to prevail among the Republican friends of the North, and with our own preferences, we again fling to the breeze the names of FREMONT and DAYTON as our Standard Bearer for 1860.

Rise up, Fremont, and go before; The hour has come for thee; Put on the halberd that once more, And lead in Freedom's van!

A Minority and Sectional President.

James Buchanan will be the next President and he will be both a minority and a sectional President; yet we hear no threats from the Republicans that they will dissolve the Union as the Democrats threatened to do if Fremont were elected.

Of the votes cast for the Union ticket, 8 to wit: 6 in Auburn, 1 in Herick, and 1 in Susquehanna, were for Fillmore, and the balance for Fremont. One vote was cast in Cheocout for the "straight out Fremont ticket."

But in addition to this influence, two others were at work, Fillmoreism and bribery. It is an unquestionable fact that many hundred thousand dollars were expended to carry Pennsylvania for Buchanan, and doubtless it was the same in Indiana and Illinois.

Those who owe us will please to take notice that we must have money. We don't want it to hoard up, nor to waste in extravagant expenditures, but to keep the Independent Republican in operation and improve it.

LENOX WINS THE BANNER!—We are preparing a prize banner, which they intend to present on Tuesday evening next, (probably at the Court House) to be received by Hon. G. A. Gow, in behalf of his fellow townsmen, the gallant Republicans of Lenox, who have fairly won it by the largest increase of their vote and majority for Fremont.

as such—seeing a great danger threatening their country's liberties through the foul treachery of such men as the anonymous scribbler referred to, they feel it their duty, as it is certainly their right, to lift their voices and exert their influence in behalf of justice and humanity against outrage and oppression.

The fling of the writer at the members of the Methodist denomination contained in the expression, "such as fall into camp-meeting fits," may be passed by as unworthy of notice, as beneath contempt, but when we consider that the expression refers to those whose feelings are aroused by the atrocities and bloodshed committed by his Border Ruffian allies in Kansas, we recognize in its utterance one of those cold-blooded cowardisms who care not how much or how unjustly others may suffer so long as their own hides are whole.

"The moral field" indeed! The moral field would be withered and desolate, and only the four weeds of party and selfish ambition would grow where the fair flowers of patriotism and humanity should bloom, were the canals of this hypocritical prater of "morality" to prevail.

SUSQUEHANNA COUNTY Presidential Vote, November 4, 1856.

Table with 3 columns: Township, Buchanan, Fremont. Lists 12 townships and their respective votes for Buchanan and Fremont.

Of the votes cast for the Union ticket, 8 to wit: 6 in Auburn, 1 in Herick, and 1 in Susquehanna, were for Fillmore, and the balance for Fremont.

It will be seen that Susquehanna County has this fall polled a much larger vote than ever before. The vote on the 4th inst. foots up 6464. The vote in Oct. last on Congress was 5806.

Ansén Burlingame is re-elected to Congress by 70 majority over Appleton, his only opponent. The Buchaneers and Fillmoreites in Massachusetts generally run separate tickets for Congress, but so anxious were both stripes of doughfaces to secure the approbation of their Southern masters—to whom Burlingame is peculiarly obnoxious since he covered Bully Brooks—that they united all their strength on Appleton, and labored desperately to prevent Burlingame's return to Washington.

Correspondence of the New York Daily Times. News of the Pennsylvania and Indiana Elections in Kansas—People's Convention—Extortion of the Judiciary in Kansas.

There is a sultry gloom sitting upon the conscience of our own tonight, in consequence of what appears to be a confirmation of the news that Indiana and Pennsylvania have gone Democratic by a overwhelming majority. I will not hope, however, as signs of hope, and will not believe till the last hour that there are two such parties willing to plant that detested, God-forsaken party, that is planting its flag deep in the breasts of the loyal citizens of Kansas. I shall have little confidence left in my fellow-man, if he is ever proved that we are to have four years more of slavery-ram in this country.

PEOPLE'S CONVENTION. We, the undersigned, resident voters of Kansas Territory, hereby call a convention of the People of this Territory to nominate a Congressional Delegate to represent the interests of this Territory in the Thirty-fourth Congress of the United States.

The prisoners at Leecompton, numbering 117, are still suffering greatly for clothing, and they are compelled to live in a dirty, beast-like style, as though they had no right to be decent while they are Kansas prisoners. It is reported that the most of them have been indicted for murder in the first degree, and that their trials will commence this week.

Received, Whitehead, K. T., Aug 7, 1856, of Henry Wilson, seventy-five dollars, in full of the imposed upon him by the First District Court, Aug 1st, 1856, and 112 dollars in full, of cost of said suit, and the cost on a presentation to the Grand Jury of the County of Doniphan, of the March Term thereof, A. D. 1856.

Mr. Anger, of Chicago, fed yesterday, for some, having made satisfactory arrangements with our Central Committee, so that in future they will not say "we do not know them." The first money received from them is now in the hands of our Treasurer.

Introduction of Slavery into Central America and Reopening of the Slave Trade. We have more than once referred to the necessity of introducing Slavery into Nicaragua as the only means by which Walker and his followers could consolidate and perpetuate their new Republic, because, from the nature of its climate and products, the Anglo-American slave is not profitable to the natives, and the native negro inhabitants were almost totally worthless and inefficient as free laborers.

on humane principles, and regulated by law, must have the preference over every other form of compulsory labor.—New Orleans Delta.

The Coalition. That the Buchanan and Fillmore men acted in concert on the 14th in Pennsylvania and Indiana, and that this concert was the result of a bargain between the leaders, are fixed facts.

Mr. Buchanan has been saved from a disastrous defeat in his own State, we have good reason to believe, solely by the support of the conservative Fillmore men, in accordance with an arrangement entered into by the great mercantile and financial interests of the cities of New York and Philadelphia.

All Hail, New England! It is an inexpressible gratification that the New England States have given the Republican candidates such a noble vote.

The Reopening of the Slave Trade. The decree which has recently been issued by Gen. Walker, President of the Republic of Nicaragua, re-establishing the institution of Slavery, and inviting the importation of negroes, is now attracting much attention.

The Moose on the Track. A locomotive was thrown from the track the other day in Maine, by coming in contact with a moose which weighed one thousand pounds.

European News. By the arrival at New York, Nov. 10th, of the steamship Baltic from Liverpool, the foreign papers to the 20th, we have four days' later news from Europe.
