The Mother's Pledge. This Book of Books I give to thee A mother's Pledge of Truth and Love; O may it prove a friend to thee,

A guide unto the realm above. My heartstrings rend to part with thee, Those strings so closely round thee wine; My parting blessing restion thee, God keep thee in the path divine.

If e'er thy joyous, radiant face Be marked with sorrow or with care, Return thee, to my fond embrace, A mother's love then still canst share

But joy it beams in every eye, Let me not dash the cup from thee, Nor from thy bosom draw a sigh, That ought to heave with joyous glee. That ought to heave with joyous glee, Yet perchance, there may be there, Hopes and fears, and love-ah me,
