Valuable Discovery .- The last filty years has been marked with a greater number of valuable discoveries than in all the time before since the Christian era. Among the most important, in medical science, is the discovery, by Dr. Halsey of New York, of a process by which certain plants, found growing wild in the mountains and forests, are converted into an excellent wire, of great value as a medical agent. This delightful wine has a surprising efficacy in the care of nervous disorders, para'rsis. spensia, complaints of the stomach and kidneys. and, when used in connection with Dr. Halseys For est Pills, rheumatism, ague and fever, dropsy, and scrofelous disorders, are quickly and permanently erred by them. Dr. Halsey's advertisement will be soon in another column. Aner TURRELE, Agent. Minitrose Dec. 3, 1856.
