ground:
I trembled through and through—
At length I looked him in the face
And cried; "Who cares for you!"

The mighty giant, as I spoke, Grew pale, and thin and small, And through his body, as 'twere smoke, Low the sunshine fall. His blood-red eyes turned blue as skies, "Is this," I cried, with glowing pride, "Is this the mighty foe?"

He sunk before my camest face, He vanished quite away, And left no shadow on his place Between me and the day, Such giants come to strike us dumb-
