Rush, Feb. 3, 1857.

TO THE FAIR SEX, We particularly commend our sheet. Their depart

he give it an unmerciful twist, when oh ! frightful ! out catai the entire upper jaw, teeth, gums and all. The heart rending horrors of the scene that followed, I shall not attempt to describe. The yells, the screams, the sonvulsive leaps in frantic agoiny, of the poor sufforder, were enough to pluck the heart out of a decent man and cause the gravel stones in the gizzard of the iniserly Shylock to shake like a rattle box. But before your hearts go quite to smash my friends, just let me ease you a little, by steting that both the teeth and gunts in this case were Artificial, but so very natural in their appearance, that even the Doctor's racticed eve failed to detect them, and hence the catastrophe. But please bear in mind that this de ception can be produced by no other kind of Artificial Dentures, except the "Improved Mineral Plate," is which the teeth and plate are one solid piece carved and colored in so exact imitation of nature as erender it hard to believe that they can be Artificial, when seen in the mouth. I have been several is when seen in the mount. I have boked at them, of Liben r Cauldwell, it advantage is the set of t cruel than even the Sionx, I have brought away not our the flesh but the bone. Those wanting teeth are invited to call and examine specimens. They med no puffing or laudation catra; as their superior asturalness, beauty and cleanliness, are apparent at sight. And now, in conclusion, "my dear fellow men and fellow women," I am happy to profier you the henefits of whatever Professional knowledge or skill I may have acquired while abroad, together with my most hearty thanks for the bounty of your patronage which has sustained me in the past. . My charges will be, as ever, "according to your ability." For the poor whom "we always have with us," my operations all be gratuitous. Come on then ye halt and main ed, and blind, the middle "ten-thousand," and the "upper ten centums," the "Aristoeracy," and the "Codocracy," for I still have some hopes of everybody in this bad world, except Rum patronising Caristians and Rum drinking Carson Leaguans they are gone in. Yours, for cash, C. D. VIRGIL, Resident Demist. N.B. Tender teeth filled without pain, and teeth with-exposed nerves treated, filled, and preserved for SOMETHING NEW! THE undersigned, Merchanit, at Dimock Four Corners, has lately discovered that for ready pay, he can : ell more goods and make more money, at one half the usual profit put upon country goods, consequently I can sell goods from five to ten per cent lower than other establishments in this section. But do not take my word for it, call and see for yourselves. Bring a little cash, or some kind of country produce, and buy your goods at a price unparalleled n the history of mercantile trade. My stock is large and well selected, and I am receiving new additions every week. My terms of sale are ready pay. It will certainly be for your interest to call and see me before purchasing elsewhere. Flour and salt-kept constantly on hand.
