was carried against New Jersey, Pennsylva- of State were grossly garbled in publication, in a set speech. Any restriction of the pow- tures upon Free-State men; but when the Democratic press of the North? No: rather er of Congress over commerce was warmly truth was told of their opponents, it was with acquiescence. It is for a departure from opposed by G. Morris, Wilson and Gorham. Madison also took the same side. C. C. strong Eastern ones, he should go against and he, often in the most emphatic manner, It was a mere dictum of that Court—extra any restriction on the power of Commercial confirmed the Governor's words. Indeed, so judicial, and carried no force. Even if it had but would acknowledge that he found them votes of Maryland, Virginia, North Carolina, and Georgia.

"Thus by an understanding or, as Gouverneur Morris called it, 'a bargain,' between the after with the Republican party!" He ans- ces. It would be a proud day for Pennsylcommercial representatives of the Northern States, and the delegates of South Carolina and Georgia, and in spite of the opposition of Virginia and Maryland, the unrestricted power of Congress to pass navigation laws was conceded to the Northern merchants; and to no doubt of what is my duty to do. I be Wilmot for the crime of loving liberty too the Corolina rice planters, as an equivalent, twenty years' continuance of the African Slave-trade. This was the third great Compromise of the Constitution. The other two farm in Minnesota, ready to co-operate with were the concessions to the smaller States of any man or any party to make not only Minan equal representation in the Senate, and, to nesota, but every other Territory, now and the Slaveholders, the counting of three-fifths forever bereafter free. of the Slaves in determining the ratio of representation. If this third Compromise differed from the other two by involving, not only a political, but a moral sacrifice, there was this partial compensation about it, that it was not permanent, like the others, but expired at the end of twenty years by its own limitation."

Gov. Geary on the State of Things in Kansas Joseph Ford of Fountain Grove, Rice County, Minnesota Territory, publishes a letter in 'The Chicago Tribune,' detailing a conversation which he held in Washington, a few days since, with ex-Gov. Geary on Kansas affairs. The following extracts will be read with interest. Mr. Ford avows that he was as we had sent delegates to the nominating a Buchanan Democrat when he commenced | Convention we were bound by the nominathe conversation, but he had turned a Republican before he caded it, and his conversion

the last Presidential election, my sympathies ago that district gaves ix or eight thousand decided by them author and hopes were earnestly for Mr. Buchanan. Democratic majority; it now gives the same beyond that question."

I was not, then, as you may imagine, exactly was equally to blame. Even the report of the Jessersonian ordinance to the Territories that of Pierce. the conversation of the Governor in the office sequired from Mexico, adhered to the noble Those Judges are, politically, Democrats. of 'The Missouri Democrat,' I looked upon stand then taken to Others fell by the way and we commend to the attention of their as a partizan statement, greatly distorted for side, and have had their rewards in places of supporters the following extract of a letter political purposes. Judge then, of my surprise, to hear from his lips a confirmation of But office and emolument had no charms to Mr. Jarvis, dated Monticello, Sept. 28th. all that I had looked on as talse before; and win David Wilmot from his principle. The 1820. Mr. Jefferson has hitherto been con- of private life!" to hear the remarks attributed to him by the highest homors and rewards were within his sidered to be an exponent of Democratic doc-'Democrat,' not only re-affirmed, but repeatened the effect of what he had to say.

conversation that filled almost an hour; but was I camot refrain from calling your attention and that of your readers to the few points which have not appeared in the many reports given by the public press. Passing over his him, and he presents "a combination and a ty, for power, and the privilege of their corps, confirmation of the charges of atrocities, form indeed which have filled the Republican papers-a confirmation direct, positive and unequivocal -I will mention what he said in relation to the withdrawal of the troops:

assurances of the Administration that I should protection. be sestained. The discovery that the people of the Territory were to be left at the mercy the enemy would be. Wilmot is an Aboliened, was the severest trial to which I was with this charge. It was false, utterly false, preme Court .- Boston Atlus.

ble; and I am sure that I do not color or ex- and Mr. K. thought it would now meet the ter of the men who have been laboring to did not swear, in the words of the ever-vary, rejected April 3, in the House of Pepresendestroy his power and influence, he observed : ing creed of the Democratic Barty on the tatives, there being a majority of nine against that they will get what they ask, whose hands AND ARMS UP TO THEIR ELBOWS ARE RED WITH of Pennsylvania, entertaining the most come of special banks, we go on chartering them BLOOD. I KNOW THEM TO BE MURDERERS! servative views on the Slavery question, and year after year, without requiring the depos-Wet they are graciously received by Mr. Bu. chanan and the Cabinet; and their statements Breaker, and for the investigation of the Kan- explosion, and thus, while we concede to a are taken as truth wherever they conflict with sas election frauds, he was taken and reputed few institutions the monopoly of the discount ever hope to be." Convention, he said-

"I believe that at least two thirds of the erhood, he is an Abolitionist." people of the Territory are in favor of making Kansas free; but under the operation of mocracy of Pennsylvania to Kansas only to in proper limits, charters are granted to such the plans which their opponents have devised, be stigmatized a sent back as an abolitionist; bogus concerns as those which have recently there is no doubt that a Pro-Slavery Consti- later, Geary, from the same political fold, stution will be framed."

comer is, 'Where are you from?' and if the not swear to the divinity of slavery—not on present House of Representatives upon the he falls to do this the people and the party sanswer is, 'From the North,' that man is ly of the black man, but that slavery is the bank bills would have induced the adoption will not hold him innocent. It is time that marked, and neither his person or property natural and snevitable condition of labor, of this general law. But it seems that the men, true men demanded peace. Blot out is safe. They have established a reign of ter- without regard to color-are abolitionists. ror. Among the Free State men I found Mr. K. did not fear the use of opprobrious nothing of this; every man who has an opin epithets. They were poor arguments, and ion is at liberty to express it without moles had no longer power with the people. He matten. I had no trouble with them after the would not be reafter stand up to defend against first difficulties were over-none whatever." each charges. They were lies, and he would themen, gave utterance not only to all we have new powers guarded and protected by troops,

"goring our ox."

Pinckney did not deny that it was the true but a brief outline, the Governer, though Kunsas for the bold avowal that Slavery is interest of the South to have no regulation of there were othere in the room a part of the the natural and moral condition of the white commerce; but considering the commercial time at least, spoke principally to me, as I laborer as well as the black, that the Demolosses of the Eastern States during the Revo- had particularly requested a statement of facts | cratic party will have to shower in this canlution, their liberal conduct toward the views as they had come under his observation. He vass, and in the overwhelming voice of popof South Carolina, (in the vote just taken give did not speak under excitement, but discrept ular indignation, their miserable shibboleti ing eight years' further extension to the ly and with apparent care to tell the exact of abolitionism will be unheard. Mr. K. re Slave trade;) and the interest of the weak truth. His Secretary—the name I do not rec. ferred to the decision of the Supreme Court Southern States in being united with the ollect-was present during the conference, of the United States in the Dred Scott case, regulation. 'He had himself prejudices a excited was he at times, when a topic of pe been pronounced upon the very case, there gainst the Eastern States before he came here, culiar interest was touched—the murder of would still be higher authority—for higher Buffum for instance—that his indignation was than acts of Congress, higher than decisions as liberal and candid as any men whatever. manifested not only in words, but in an ext of Federal Courts, was the Constitution of Butler and Rutledge took the same ground, ceedingly demonstrative manner. When the United States-itself the supreme law of and the report was adopted, against the thoroughly aroused by the Governor's narra- the land. tion I asked him: "Governor, what am I, a Mr. K. then pledged to the nomination of Northern Democrat, to do ! I am tempted to David Wilmot and the whole ticket his cardeclare here that I am ready to work here nest and hearty support under all circumstan wered quickly and decisively:

an honest and intelligent man to pursue." curred in an interview which has left me in relaim to have repudiated and ejected David lieve-religiously believe-that Gov. Geary well. It will not be the first time in political is an honest and conscientious man, and that annals that "the stone which the builders rehe told me the truth. I go horae to my jetted became the head of the corner.'

Kunkel on Wilmot

A Ratification Meeting was held at Harrisborg, March 28th, at which John C. Kunkel, the talented Representative in Congress ment of the Supreme Court in confirmation from the Dauphin district, made, as the Har- of the Democratic doctrines which had rerisburg Telegraph says, one of the best ceived the popular endorsement. The decispeeches ever delivered in the Court House. From the Telegraph's sketch of his speech we extract the following:

Mr. Kunkel said he did not rome here to submit to the nomination of David Wilmot President. In his lucid and able opinion, for Governor, but he came to hail it not to Judge McLean remarked:acquiesce in it as a necessity, but to rejoice at it—not to say to his fellow citizens that tion there made, but to say that in his judg. honor and trust from the Democratic party, addressed by Thomas Jefferson to his friend. reach, if he had consented to abandon his trine. He wrote:ed with minute details, which greatly height. fealty to Freedom at the kidding of his party. But he nobly spurned them all, for right ultimate arbiters of all constitutional ques-

> "Faithful found among the faithless, And faithful only he." Take him, as the record of his life shows

Where every god hath set this soul

To give the world assurance of a man." But Mr. Wilmot had been hostile to protection, and this was made a great bag bear "Every Pro-Slavery man of influence, as among old Whigs. It was true that Mr. "The Constitution has created no such sin-well as many of the saloon-keepers, common Wilmot had differed from the Whig party gle tribunal, knowing that to whatever hands loafers, and the like, knew of the proposed on this question; though he always conceded withdrawal; and I was taunted by them- that the iron interest, as a national interest, party, its members would become despots. some of them the vilest of the vile with the should receive the fostering care of the govfact that I was to be left unsupported, long ernment. But whatever may have been the before I had an official notification of what views of the 12th Congressional district in was intended. I did not pay any attention the past on that subject, Mr. K. knew that in to these things, inasmuch as I, though then the last Congress the representative of that by Providence until, in the eighty-one years suspicious, yet depended upon the positive district voted uniformly with the friends of which has elapsed since the declaration of our and those who made it knew it to be a lie.-I repeat his language as literally as possi- It had served its tith thrice in Pennsylvania, "There are men here in Washington now, subject of Slavery, was not obnoxious to this it. This is the way in which our good Comseeking for office, and with the probability epithet. He himself, had gone to Congress monwealth is kept behind others. Notwithyet because he had voted for Mr. Banks for the of securities at Harrisburg in case of their mine. They are treated with more cordialian an abolitionist. If one protest against the business of the State, we have no guarantee ty and favor than I, who have tried to disextension of Slavery, adhering to the policy against loss by their mismanagement. Why charge my duty faithfully and homestly, can that prevailed in the Federal Government, from the days of Washington to Polk, he is stricted to a few tavored hands we could nev-In relation to the coming election and the an abolitionist. If a christian man declare er see, Discounting is as legitimate a busihis belief that all men have God for their ness as any other. No general act to authorof the government, or any other man with Father, and are, therefore, a common broth- ize and regulate the free formation and man-we'bt with the endorsement of the chief men do not doubt that, before the present Legis bayonets, but let peace be restored. The difference between the two parties he of his party everywhere, and because he lature breaks up, it will pass several new would not prostitute the functions of his of special bank charters for out of the way pla-he importation of convicts. A motion to ex- not to be used for their purposes, his troubles block, and that the great evil of Northern free tend the time from 1800 to 1808, made by and persecutions commenced. He complain. society is, that it is burdened with a service C. C. Pinckney, and seconded by Gorham, ed that his dispatches sent to the Department class of mechanics and laborers unfit for selfgovernment, and yet clothed with the attrimia, Delaware, and Virginia; Massachusetts, when they were permitted to see the light at butes and powers of citizens. The great con-Connecticut, and New Hampshire voting this all. The parts which were supposed to be test, Mr. K. said, was, whether free society time with Georgia and South Carolina.

offensive to the Pro Slavery party were stricked or slave society should prevail in the territory. That part of the report which struck out en out; and the country and he has nevited by the Democratic er yet learned the whole truth. He thought should be the Democratic tion acts, was opposed by Charles Pinckney that no objection was ever made to any stric. party. Did they meet with rebuke from the the arcient landmarks, for a settled design In this conversation, of which I have given to force Slavery with fire and sword upon vania and the North when the ballot boxes There seems to be no other course for should proclaim David Wilmot Governor of Pennsylvania. He hoped and expected to I have thus given you a sketch of what oc see that day. The National Democracy

Democratic Doctrine.

The Washington Union of Wednesday endorses the decision in the case of Dred Scott, as follows:--"There was but one thing needed to give to the result in the Presidential contest the force of an absolute and final settlement of the sectional issue. That thing was the judgsion in the Dred Scott case has furnished the closing and clincking confirmation needed." As to the " Settlement," we prefer the auhority of Judge McLean to that of Mr. John Appleton, or even that of His Excellency the

"In this case, a majority of the Court have said that a slave may be taken by his master into a territory of the United States, the same as a horse or any other kind of property. It is true this was said by the Court ment it was the very best nomination that as also many other things which are of no aucould have been made, and in every way fit thority. Nothing that has been said by them, seems to have been approved by the Gover- to be made. David Wilmot was the fore- which has no direct bearing on the jurisdic most man of his age, and of the age. Where tion of the Court, against which they decided I have, all my life, been what is called a in the history of Pennsylvania can such a can be considered as authority. I shall cer-National Democrat; and though my territo. spectacle be presented as the 12th Congress- tainly not regard it as such. The question rial residence forbade my taking my part in sonal district presents? Six or eight years of jurisdiction, being before the Court, was Territory, among whom a conspiracy existed sylvania. decided by them authoritatively, but nothing

The entire opinion of the sectional amjoriprepared to hear the tale that Gov. Genry Congressional district of some lifteen thousand to the Supreme Bench, so far as it related told. I had looked upon the reports which votes. How much of that change is attributed to the constitutionality of prohibition of shares a stribute of the constitutionality of prohibition of shares a stribute of the constitutionality of prohibition of shares a stribute of the constitutionality of prohibition of shares a stribute of the constitutionality of prohibition of shares a stribute of the constitutionality of prohibition of the constitutionality of prohibition of the constitutionality of prohibition of the constitutional transfer of the constitutional transfer of the constitutional transfer of the constitutional transfer of the constitution of the constituti were circulated in opposition newspapers as table to David Wilmot himself! Must not very in the national territory, was extra-judigrossly exaggerated statements of occurrent the man who can thus wield the popular sent cial—as gratuitous on the part of Judges Taces in the Territory; and, though willing to timent among his friends and neighbors be a ney, Catron, Campbell, Wayne, Grier and admit that the Pro-Slavery men had been true, sincere, faithful, able man! How faith. Daniel, as it is contrary to the expressed guilty of some excess, I consoled myself with fully has David Wilmot, ever since he intro- convictions of every American statesmen, the natural supposition that the other side duced into Congress his proviso, extending from the administration of Washington to

"You seem to consider the Judges as the I do not propose to detail at length the and truth and justice, and in the hour of trial tions; a very dangerous doctrine indeed, and one which would place us under the despotism of an oligarchy. Our Judges are as honest as other men, and no more so. They have, with others, the same passions for par-Their maxim is, "Boni judicus est ampliare jurisdictionem," and their power the more dangerous as they are in office for life, and not responsible, as the other functionaries are, to elective control.

confided, with the corruption of time and co-equal and co-sovereign with themselves. such a decision as this has been postponed independence, a weight of opinion has accu-But when every thing else fails, the erv of mulated in favor of the nationality of free-

The General Free Banking Law which has been pending in the Pennsylvania from one of the most conservative districts standing all the outcry about the insecurity business of any legitimate kind should be reagement of corporate banks can be had; and Reeder went from the bosom of the De. under pretence of restricting our credit with-

The Independent Republican C. F. READ & H. H. FRAZIER, EDITORS.

> MONTROSE. Thursday, April 9, 1857.

Freedom National-Slavery Sectional.

REPUBLICAN STATE TICKET. FOR GOVERNOR DAVID WILMOT. Of Bradford County. FOR CANAL COMMISSIONER. WILLIAM MILLWARD. Of Philadelphia.

FOR JUDGES OF THE SUPREME COURT. JAMES VEECH, of Fayette County, JOSEPH J. LEWIS, of Chester County.

_____ We would call the attention of our readers to the advertisement of a new Map of Susquehanna County in another column, This Map is from original surveys taken last Summer; and judging from the specimens we have seen, will give an accurate representation of every part of the County, which blood. He died on Saturday morning, Apr., order "to deceive the elect," 4th. He was a married managed 37 years.

The Montrose Democrat's extraordimary ignorance of passing events may be inspit upon by the pro-Slavery ruffians in the to take his life—that he had already expendenlighten the editors of the Democrat: RESIGNATION OF GOV. GEARY .- Mr. Buchanan received notice, by telegraph, of the tional freedom. Yours &c.

resignation of Mr. Geary, to take effect the last of this month, and also that he was then on his way to the East. We have, for some time, looked for this; indeed, Gov. Geary could not do less than throw up a commission, accepted as it was upon an express understanding that he should be sustained by Mr. Pierce's administration, and which pledges have been knost shamefully neglected. Lecompte was to be removed and still he is the leading member of the Territorial Judiciary—the laws were to be maint has, more wisely, made all the departments tained by the millitia, and yet, this Governor has paid out of his own private means It is fortunate for the United States that $12,000 to maintain this militia. Emissaries, bound by oath, have harrassed and attempted to assassinate him, and during all this time, the late administration was importuned for aid, and the fulfillment of its pledges, and it responded with its masterly inactivdom and the sectionalism of slavery, sufficient ity the only great and leading characteristic of the assassins by whom they were threat tionist!" Mr. K. said he had no patience to overbalance any obiter dictum of the Su- principle for which this weak, imbecile and dangerous administration was ever noted. It may be wrong to refer to the political dead but if the desertion of Gov. Geary, when the aggerate the facts. In relation to the charac- contempt it deserved. Who, he asked, that State Legislature for some time past, was stand how culpable the government stands in facts are fully known, and the people underthis matter, and how far the wrongs committed in Kansas have been winked at and abet> spect for public opinion and wisdom of the American people. We look upon the troubles in Kansas as a national disgrace, nay, more, as a means in the hand of vile and unprincipled men 40 work ruit and eventually to sap and under mine the foundation of our institutions. There is no occasion for these troubles,firmness sufficient to do his duty, they would net exist.

ted; if these facts do not stir up the patriotuntaithful agent, then we shall lese our re-

If it be necessary, to insure peace to Kansas, summons the whole country to arms, let exploded in the interior of the State. We her territory be surrounded by glistening a number of them present) in making con-We believe Mr. Buchanan will do this, or adopt any other feasible plan to restore peace. "Among the Pro-Slavery men there is no fice to fasten slavery on Kansas, is liable to ces, which will stand a pretty good chance of The country demands it of him. The prinfreedom of speech hardly of opinion. The assassination, compelled to resign, and brand. being of the "wild cat" species. We had ciples upon which he was elevated to office first inquiry sende by them of every new ed as an abolitionist. All men who will hoped that the consistency displayed by the as Chief Magistrate demand it of him, and if demagogues are too strong .- N. American. the disgraceful and tyrannical laws of Kansas, came to this office unsolicited by us, and men who have disgraced themselves and the voluntarily, in the presence of five or six gen- country. Send Geary back, clothed with

Hon. G. A. Grow-though not yet ecovered from the malady by which he, in ommon with so many of the boarders at the National' hotel, at Washington, has suffered delivered an affective and eloquent address. to his constituents, in Montrose, on Monday ovening last;

cision, "Buchanan and Free Kansas" &c., but cannot refrain from noticing his answer Grow said, a reference to the Congressional

See how pitiful a position the Democrat oc-

For the Independent Republican.

A Voice from New York. Messas. Editors:- I am rejoiced at the rospect of the campaign now pending, under him, when his foot slipped, and he fell upon propagandism. The people must and will

Where now are all those promises of freeferred from an article in a late issue, on the sels, of which we recently heard so much? resignation of Gov. Geary. In blissful igno- Go and converse with Gov. Geary, and then rance of the fact that, after having been prom- see the infamous Lecompte instated, with a ised the support of the army and the treasu- new lease, into power; and just look at Walkthe partisan Judge Lecompte, as a condition the Old Key Stone State is, in any sense. of his own retention of office, his demand had sound or true to its trust, the coming year Wilmot will be the next Governor of Penn-

Perhaps the following, from the Scranton reached as the Court announces. Gentlemen, tive." ited by Messrs. Davis & Adams, will help to the masses. Now is the time to seek the Erie, among the number, occupy the same position. renovation of the old Key Stone Commonwealth. I am truly, in the cause of Constitu-

AN OLD-FASHIONED DEMOCRAT. ALBANY, N. Y., March 28, 1857.

For the Independent Republican. Teachers' Institute in Jessup. GENTLEMES EDITORS:-Permit me to say through the columns of your paper, that agreeably to notice issued, Prof. J. F. Stoddard and B. F. Tewksbury, County Superinfor the benefit of teachers. Notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather, a large number of teachers assembled, evincing a degree of interest commensurate with the great importance of their high calling and weighty duties. Prof. J. F. Stoddard exercised the teachers in the science of numbers, giving them very valuable, short, and practical methods of performing operations on numbers, mentally, which occupied the time during the afternoon of the first day. The next day, he. ic blood and call down anothernas upon an department of that science. After a reading made a few remarks, and was then followed by Prof. J. F. Stoddard who delivered a lengthy and eloquent address to a large audience which seemed deeply interested.

time in giving object lessons and in instruct gratulatory remarks, and encouraging the teachers were highly commendable.

It is the expressed wish of the people in this vicinity that the ball may keep rolling, and be gathering momentum as it onward tear the official robes of office from such men moves. One of our Directors, who settled Gov. Geany and his Private Secreta as Lecompte, Jones, and the whole horde of in this county when it was almost an unbroken wilderness, recently said, "the teacher from whom he received his education, when The Governor was very direct and explicit not waste time in argument about them. put in his mouth, but a great deal more that and aided in every possible way by the gov. a word of difficult pronunciation occurred, (in his charge against the late Administration, He meant, in this canvass, instead of being we did not find room to publish, and which ernment in maintaining law and order, and would say, 'it was blotted, in his book,' and In his charge against the late Administration, and by as means disposed to apare that now you man disposed to apare that now you man disposed to apare that now you possibility, have ship your and order, and meting equil and exect justice to all bong fide so the obtained a blotted-education, with which tention of design allow with all parties, and enforcing the laws are found then, without inquiry as to have or by whom they were made as some formed that that policy was made as some formed to seek as a fooset.

A Rich Cast — Memphia is decidedly a mould say, it was blotted, in his book, and of the United States perfectly on the south of the outrage of the south work of his court was single section, with which is south to see an effort making so was on the south of the south was all set of the south was allowed to see an effort making to use a south w of his remarks on the recent Dred Scott de- as a speaker; yet I hope I shall ever be willing to Administration. yield obedient when conscience dictates the path of duty. By your meeting together, I infer that you er may not go finally is not remote, and consider the cause of Freedom in danger, and conse. Stanton was originally selected with some to the cowardly insinuation of the Montrose quent necessity of offort on the part of its friends.— reference to this. If the Chinese mission can Democrat against his integrity, in the matter To this I add my opinion, that there never was in the of the Collins Steamers -an answer which history of our country a time which so fully proved pledge of the President to recommend to must forever silence that base slander. Mr. the correctness of your position as the present. A Congress an increase of the dignity and emoltime which you declare in Art. 5, "calls loudly upon uments, Mr. Walker's efforts will be con-Globe would show his vote recorded, in every the blessings of Liberty to all." Mr. President, since the friends of Freedom to unite their efforts to secure centrated in that direction. instance, against the Collins steamers. Col- I last addressed the members of this League, a relins would hardly pay any one for voting a- tiring President has added a codicil to his will, that just been disclosed, and is worthy of serious tiring President has added a codicil to his will, that was, the Republican party should sign before his death (or exit from office) another disclaimer of intention to molest this Idol of slavery, at whose shrine he worshiped, and offered sacrifice. Much as I recupies from having followed the lead of the he worshiped, and offered sacrifice. Much as I reknave who edits the Philadelphia Daily gret to say it, many of those members in Congress ritorial officers to give way to those of the the death warrant of Freedom, by agreeing to let slavery, its sleepless inveterate enemy, alone where it claiming admission upon the plea that the exists, shielded and guarded, as they admit, by the Government which Congress created no long-Constitution, Whereupon the new President congratulates the people, and expresses the hope that the lead of Judge Wilmot. There was never the agitation of this question is approaching an end. ing will be found in the case of California better leader, in his historical relations to He says "the whole territorial question being settled forgetting that it was a military government the cause in which we are now more than ever engaged, than Judge Wilmot. I have recently met with a large number of the leadStates's beyond the reach of any human power extest against the admission, on the ground that ing Republicans of the State of New York, cept that of the respective States themselves where- the faith of the Missouri Compromise had must make it a desirable acquisition for our and have received their congratulations on in it exists." To all of which the Supreme Court been violated. They only claimed then that the nomination for Governor. They enter. adds a hearty amen!! Saying to all the world, "men Slavery ought to be allowed south: of the FATAL ACCIDENT.—On Friday last, Mr. tain strong confidence in the redemption of must be of the right color, to be entitled to citizen- Missouri line, conceding the right of prohibit Adam Beleher, of Oakland, in this County, Pennsylvania from the misrule which now based upon the principle "that all men are born free on the north with the same zeal. If opposiship in this land of Liberty," under a Constitution tion on the north. Now they will deny it met with a fatal accident while cutting rail- throws her influence with the Slave power.— and equal." Now, Sir, I feel proud of the position we tion should be raised against the admission road ties in the woods. Attempting to step They confidently trust that the Democracy occupy as expressed in article fourth, touching the of Kansas as a Slave State, the South will over a tie, he rested the broad axe which he will be unable to hood-wink and deceive the slavery question, viz: "That we hold all organize- combine against Minnesota, and repeat the held in his hand, on it, with the edge towards majority again into the support of Slavery tions that do not aim at the abolition of the entire tactics practiced in the cases of Maine and Misseani This man will be about majority again. system of slavery, unworthy the support and infig. Missouri. This game will be played with ence of Christians and American Citizens. Though preconcerted demonstrations of violence conthe edge of the axe, cutting a deep wound in rise, and put down that lying party, whose the President does not count as a unit, (because he tingent on the refusal to admit the new Slave his side and lungs. By the aid of a young protean shapes in the different sections where says "all,") I think he must have taken the expe- State, and a lively time may safely be foreman with him, he succeeded in reaching home, it appears, so strikingly remind us of him rience of such men as Senator Wilson as oridence of but not till he had lost a great quantity of who could appear "as an angel of light" in their non-existence. For Senator Wilson claims that SAUCE FOR THE GOOSE, NOT SAUCE FOR THE in traveling thirty thousand miles, in nearly all the GANDER. - The Washington correspondent of free States, he "never heard one word uttered claim- the New York Post has had an interview with ing that Congress has power under the Constitution to Gov. Geary, and that interview confirms in dom for Kansas, and of the anti-slavery sen- abolish Slavery in the slave-holding States." Now to every particular the statement made from timents of Buchanan, and of moderate coun- throw the mantle of charity over Mr. Wilson, we will Gov. Geary's lips by the St. Louis Democrat. suppose him to mean that Republicans, never claim. Among other things Gov. Geary, in speaking ed that Congress had power, under the Constitution, of his course in Kansas, says: to abolish Slavery. For the Radical Abolitionists, he Gov. Geary found that while he arrested says, "believe that the Constitution was ordained and only free-state men-for whom alone, on his established to secure not only in the Territories, not arrival, warrants had been issued he was a ry, he was denied the support of either er and Stanton—the forth-coming dynasty of only under the exclusive control of Congress, but in very popular Governor; but when he came that after he had demanded the removal of Kansas! Verily, if the public conscience in all the States, the inalierable rights of every human to try the same process on provide very human to try the same process on being." And we cannot suppose that in traveling ers, it was a different thing; and one of the thirty thousand miles he never once heard one Abo- federal officers in Kansas had openly declared been refused—that he had been insulted and must effect a change, and the Hon. David Mr. Buchanan so interpreted it when he says "all ed to act on "abolitionists," and not on the agree." Again if Republicans all agree that Slavery s beyond the reach of the Constitution, in what class I have lately had an opportunity of congrat. shall we place those who call themselves Republi- of unwritten law of the territory, every man ed $12,000 or $15,000 out of his own private ulating our democratic friends on the results cans, and maintain the position that Mr. Chase of born north of Mason and Dixon's line is an purse, and was continually called upon to of their victory. They are "slow to speak." your county does, viz: That slavery is unconstitu- "abolitionist." No matter how much nor at tional. Such according to our new President, must how much cost a northern "national" demomake further disbursements—that he was ex. One earnest and influential member of the be counted as ciphers, because he is not one of "all." crat may have exerted himself for his party, pected to join with the Border Ruffians in party assured me that he should turn about. I will refer you to Mr. Chase's argument upon the and for the rights of the South, if the attempt soon to be made to force a pro- He said he. "was never so mistaken in an unconstitutionality of slavery. Among other things slavery constitution upon a people opposed election before." I think that it will be found be says the Constitution of the United States "being tionist." to Slavery—and that after his arrival at that now is the time to open the blind eyes Washington lie expressed a willingness to reof even the blind leaders, as well as those of tect which is the first and great object of all law; combined opposition at her State Election same the Governorship, if he could be as the masses. I think that the Dred Scott des hence every system that either takes away any of last year, both supporting the same Goversured of the requisite support from the gen- cision will prove a DEAD SHOT to the Demo- these rights or fails to secure them is unconstitution- nor, but spitting on Lieut. Governor. The eral government-in apparent ignorance of cratic party and its power in the North. I al. That the object of the adoption of the Constitu- same phase was exhibited this year; and the all these facts, the Demorret "concludes that have met with men of that party who would tion was to prevent slavery, and it fails to do it only contrasted vote of the "Republican and "Aill-health has induced him to seek the quiet not believe that so astounding a decision had because it is not allowed to exercise its legitimate merican" parties respectively at those two been made, nor such fearful results been their duty and their oaths, suffer it to remain inacpower, or those who should execute it, derelict to elections is very significant. Look at it;

For the Independent Republican. EXTRACTS From remarks of A. J. Cogswell at a Meeting of the League of Freedom, Auburn, Saturday Evening, March 21, 1857.

> Now, Mr. President, according to this numbering of Mr. Buchanan, there is any quantity of ciphers in able one of being backed on by the Slave Power. To Slavery are now grappled in deadly conflict, one or the other must triumph and that speedily. You canviduals. You believe the Declaration of Independtendent, held, on the 19th, 20th, and 21st, a ence was the basis of the Constitution; and that devery interesting Institute, in this Township, clared all men born free and equal, and that "all," means the whole. Every fourth of July you pledge vourselves anew to Freedom. You hold sacred the day: names of those illustrious ones who pledged their lives and fortunes to the cause of human Liberty.-You see those principles discarded and trampled up. PROPOSES. HARRISBURG, April 3. A new en by a Slave Oligarchy. It becomes the duty there- political movement is on the tapes ar. this fore of every lover of his country to bestir himself for every friend of Freedom to awake and put forth strong indications that a third candidate is an effort to wrest the government from the hands of about being brought out for Governor. A those who pervert it to uphold Slavery, and restore strong conservative element is at work in it to such as are in favor of Freedom for all.

> For Governor we have the foremost man in the ranks—a man who has done more to inaugurate the Republican party and sosspent some time on the subject of Natural tain the free principles inculcated by Jeffer-Philosophy, and elucidated the laws of falling son than any other politician in our State,bodies, proving satisfactorily, that much er. David Wilmor has few equals as a statesror had been taught from the books in this man-as a firm, determined, energetic and sugacious advocate of the great doctrine of republican equality, he has no superiors,— ing despatch from Washington: exercise conducted by B. F. Tewksbury, His reputation is national—the proviso which Prof. S. continued his instructions in Mathe-bears his name, justly entitles him to the day with a splendid service of silver plate, title of a second Jefferson. He has been a the gift of citizens of Savannah. Mr. Toombs faithful, unwavering exponent of the Democ- made the presentation speech." racy of the fathers of the Republic, but when . The Telegraph does not state the number modern sham Democracy introduced its of pieces, but we take it for granted the peo-"popular sovereignty" dogmas and sought ple of Savannah would never offer Mr. Pierce to extend the area of human slavery, and set less than thirty.—Evening Post. The last day Frof, S. occupied a part of the at nought the spirit of the Declaration of Independence. Wilmor repudiated the great wrong and its perpetrators, and scouted Caling the teachers in the most improved meth- houn-Pierce policy as an infamous swindle, ods of teaching;—and the remaining part was occupied by the Directors (there being quite of a free people. Most fearlessly and incessantly did he wage war against the Kansas-Nebraska iniquity, and in the short space of four years we see his district revolutionized, teachers to move onward in their field of la- and a Democratic majority of some ten thousbor, elevating their profession to its proper and turned into a Republican majority of dignity. The recitations and exhibition of the nine thousand. No better evidence is needed of the personal influence and political sagacity of our leader than his successful overthrow of Pro slavery Locofocoism in his own District .- Brie Constitution.

A decision of the Supreme Court though formidable, is not irreversible. That Court affirmed the constitutional vandity of the Alien and Sedition acts, yet the People annulled these acts and paid back the penal-ties imposed and exacted under them by the Federal Judiciary. That Court pronounced a Bank of the United States perfectly consti-

Special Dispatch to the N. Y. Tribune. PROM WASHINGTON.

Washington, Monday, Apr. 6, 1857. The Hon. F. P. Stanton starts for Kansas morrow, and with some regret at having accepted the place. His ultimate aim is the MR. PRESIDENT AND MEMBERS OF THE LEAGUE OF FREEDOM: Following the tide of my personal feel- Sentatorship, which was urged among the conwe shall not attempt to give even a sketch who come to listen. Reluctantly I appear before you to accept. In this he will be sustained by the

The possibility that Mr. Robert J. Walkbe put on the footing desired, that is by the

A most important feature of the intended State, and in that condition to present themer exists.

The pretended precedent for this proceed law and order "party, as it is termed. The Governor facetiously remarks, that by a sort Kansas and attempts a fair and impartial course, he is pronounced at once an "aboli 1856. 1857.

Brown, Am. . 7,990 Mason, Am. . . 3,339 "Herald of the Union," (Democrat) now ed. Now is the time to get a candid hearing by Other members of our Legislature, Col. Warner, of Robinson, Rep. 1,828 Turner, Rep. 5,947 Pell, Dem. ... 7,146 Hall, Dem. ... 4,652 -We respectfully commend these figures to the study of our friends in Connecticut. the country, and if we can but place a unit at the left who are exhorted not to vote the Opposition of them, they will number hundreds of thousands, tickets lest they should thereby swamp Re-There are two ways for the Republicans to get upon publicanism in Americanism. They might our platform. The honorable way, that adopted by as rationally be exhorted never to go to sleep, we Chase in his motto "Advance," or the dishonorable they should wake in the Eleventh Contury. You need not fear a potential return one of these methods all must submit. Freedom and of "Americanism" while Dred Scott decisions and Kaneas subjugations, quickly following one another, admonish the People of the not stand an idle spectator. The maxim "He that Free States that they bave now to decide beis not for me is against me," applies to you as indi- tween the ascendency of Freedom and that of Slavery .- N. Y. Tribune.

> We clip the following from the North American. We know nothing of the facts mentioned, but record it as a rumor of the

A NEW POLITICAL MOVEMENT AT HARRIE. BURG-ANOTHER CANDIDATE FOR GOVERNOR city. Strange as it may appear, there are the eastern section of the State looking towards this object.

Senator Straub has been strongly urged to give his consent to the use of his name as a candidate, but up to this time he has refused to give his assent. He may yet yield to the solicitations of his friends, however. The whole movement will soon be developed.

"Ex-President Pierce was presented to-AMMERST COLLEGE.—The next commence ment of this institution will take plate the second week in August, and promises an unusually rich entertainment. Hon. G. A. Grow, of Pa., will address the Alumni; Hon. Anson Burlingame the literary societies; Prof. Park the Phi Beta Kappa, and Rev. E. B. Fuster, of Lowell, the Society of Inquiry. Prof. Julius H. Seelyd is to deliver the oration, and J. G. Saxe the poem, before the Pai Upsilon Fraternity.

AKOTHER " UNION SAVER." It was hoped that last election finished the disgusting cantabout "saving the Union"—but no, Windy Packer must save it next fall, and that no torious office hunter Bob Walker, only condescends to be Governor of Kansas for the "safety of the Union"—so Buchanan says, and he coincides—and therefore the "Union is to be saved" this nummer by delivering Kansas legally up to Blavery.