Call and see us for we will sell you shilling. The shafts are shill the shafts and upsetting the sleigh—throwing Mrs. Walton and child in the snow.— Upon the side of the defendant, the counsel argued that the owner of the land had an absolute right, under all circumstonces, to forbid another person entering upon it, and to resist and repel the trespasser—even when the roads are blockaded with snow, and that Fox was justifiable in inflicting the blow upon the horse or the person of Walton. Upon the part of the Commonwealth it was ar gued that the road being in an impassable or unsafe condition, the travelles had a right to enter upon the premises of Fox-from the necessity of the case; but if this were not so, an assault with a dangerous weapon was not justifiable, if he had illegally entered upon his premises: whereas the evidence was he had not entered upon the property of

Judge Haines, in charging the jury on the law and the evidence, declared emphatically that where the roads are impassable by reason of snow, or for other cause, the traveller ers in the State of Virginia to dispose by has a right to enter upon adjoining lands and wholesale of immense tracts of country to pursue his journey; that the Supervisors are | Eli Thayer's company, to be sold to bodies pursue his journey; that the Supervisors are Eli Inayer's company, to be sold to bodies sed to gratify some of the Merchants who have expected the first some of the Merchants who have expected the first some of the Merchants who have expected a desire "to stop some large wagons," es, and that, for neglect of duty in the case, the Supervisors of Upper Oxford were liable to indictment. The jury acquitted Fox.—

The Right " Not to be sued," which has been fully established for our colored fellow citizens by the decision of Judge Tancy in the Dred Scott case, is likely to be a useful one. The Bangor Whig gives the following report of a case in the police court in that

David Sands vs. William Barronett, action of debt for $50, balance of account.-The defendant being of 'African descent,' and 'having no rights which white men are bound to respect, put in a special plea that under the late decision of the U.S. Supreme Court by Judge Tancy he is not a citizen of the United States, and therefore can't spe in any court, nor be sued. The learned counsellor for the plaintiff, being a hunker of the most hunkerish stripe, immediately upon reading the plea wilted and allowed a nonsuit. It is maliciously said, in groups where politicians do most congregate, that the counsellor had fears for his political standing, if he dared oppose the decision of Judge Taney, which is universally received by the Democratic press as part of their party creed."

Orawford (Meadville) Journal, gives some cheering political information from that gallant county. The editor says:

From all the information we can get, the Republican party in this county is continually gaining strength. Very many who voted for Buchanan at the last election under the delusion that he would change the policy of the Administration, are now sulfsnot that he is controlled by the same clique of Southern man iticians that led poor Pierce on to ruin. The outrageous doctrines, promulgated, too, by the Supreme Court in the Dred Scott case. have opened the eyes of many more to the ultimate designs of the Democratic leaders at a fair paris and their determination to compel the North to acknowledge the nationality of slavery, by the strong arm of the Federal government. This arbitrary stretch of the judiciary power of the land has alarmed many, and justly too, who have hitherto been blindly sed, in the party leading strings. There is a charm, likewise, in the Republican principles, which commends them to the free unbiassed people here and elsewhere, which draws thousands to our standard.

Southern Elections.—It is getting to be impossible for the slaveholding cities to hold an election without a riot. At the Baltimore election, ballots were supplanted by dirks, revolvers and paving stones. At the Louisville election, houses were sacked and voters shot. In St. Louis, on election day, the police had repeatedly to use force to quell disorder. In New Orleans, on election day, armed gangs chased each other up and down the streets. To-day, the Washington papers are telling how the President had to call out the Marines to quell an election riot there. Such scenes, contrasted with the quiet of Northern polling days, hardly sustains the Virginia doctrine, that while Free Society is anarchial and turbulent, Slavery is the main- Manufacturer's Insurance Company. stay of order and of law !- Albany Evening

KITE FLYING EXTRAORDINARY. The Chinese kite-flyers a: Sacramento have been astonishing the people there, of late, with strange figures in the heavens. The Union mentions one kite which was in the form of an immense centipede, and which presented a truly unique appearance when floating in the upper air. The Age says of another:
"It was made in the similitude of some oriental monster-fish, fowl, or beast, we could not tell which with great eyes, which was made to bat by a revolving wheel. At first the winking apparatus in one of the eyes refused to work, and the zerial creation made ecandalous faces at the people below. It was hauled down, re-arranged, and sent up again with bow and strings attached, forming a sort of Æolian harp, which could be heard a great distancei"
